New House:

Phone Home Berlin Nigel Cox, 2008-04-01 This provocative collection contains pieces both older and previously unpublished from the author's 20 year career. Readers will especially value the new material pulled from his journalistic pieces written during his five year employment at the Jewish Museum in Berlin. Posthumously published, this book gives one last celebratory glance at a writer who colorfully captured everyday life in New Zealand and provided many with a stronger sense of place.

The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share: The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better.

Goncharov in the Twenty-First Century Ingrid Kleespies, Lyudmila Parts, 2021-11-23 Goncharov in the Twenty First Century brings together a range of international scholars for a reexamination of Ivan Goncharov's life and work through a twenty first century critical lens. Contributions to the volume highlight Goncharov's service career, the complex and understudied manifestation of Realism in his work, the diverse philosophical threads that shape his novels, and the often colliding contexts of writer and imperial bureaucrat in the 1858 travel text Frigate Pallada. Chapters engage with approaches from post colonial and queer studies theories of genre and the novel, desire, laughter, technology and mobility, and travel.

Winning Women's Hearts and Minds Diana Cucuz, 2023-01-31 Throughout the Cold War, Soviet citizens had limited access to US life and culture. Amerika, a glossy Russian language magazine similar to Life, provided a rare exception. Produced by the United States Information Agency (USIA), America's first peacetime propaganda organization, Amerika was used to influence the Soviet public and convince women in particular that an American style consumer culture and conservative gender norms could better their lives. Winning Women's Hearts and Minds relies on USIA archives, issues of Amerika, and American women's magazines such as the Ladies Home Journal to show how during the postwar period USIA officials deployed idealized images of American women as happy, fulfilled, and feminine wives, mothers, and homemakers. This study analyses how Amerika was used to appeal to Soviet women. Portrayed in the US media as babushkas, they were considered unfeminine, overworked, and deprived of consumer goods and services by a repressive regime. Diana Cucuz provides a gendered analysis of the USIA and of Amerika, whose propaganda campaign relied heavily on postwar conservative gender norms and images of domestic contentment to convey positive messages about the American way of life in the hopes of undermining the Soviet regime. Winning Women's Hearts and Minds sheds light on the significance of women, gender, and consumption to international politics during the Cold War.
