Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 New interchange : English for international communication : student's book Jack C. Richards, Jonathan Hull, Susan Proctor, 2004 Learner-centered English Language Education David Nunan, 2013 This carefully crafted collection provides a snapshot of the evolution of David Nunan's theoretical and empirical contributions to the field of second language education over the last 40 years. The volume focuses on the development of his work on second language curricula and in particular the work for which he is best known: learner centered education and task based learning and teaching. David Nunan has been a language teacher, researcher, and consultant for 40 years. He has lived and worked in many countries principally in the Asia Pacific region but also in the Americas, Europe, and the Middle East. In addition to his research and scholarly work, he is the author of several major textbook series for the teaching and learning of English as a foreign language. These texts are based on his task based language teaching approach and are widely used in schools, school systems, and universities around the world.
