Go Fast Go Faster J. F. McDermott, 2025-05-05 Go Fast Go Faster is a tender funny and deeply moving story of a father's love for his daughter and how together they continue to triumph over tragedy In November of 1995 birth trauma left James McDermott's daughter Mariel profoundly brain injured physically disabled and unable to care for herself This event started him on a journey of love and compassion for her and others who face similar challenges Ever an energetic and tenacious person James immediately rose to the occasion transforming nearly overnight from a self-described slightly self-centred ex athlete to a passionate advocate for disability rights Determined to create a meaningful and empowered life for his beautiful daughter he stood bravely in the face of people and systems that devalued her and others like her Using humour and positivity to cope through hard times James dedicated himself to improving the lives of people with developmental disabilities fighting for both their inclusion and their health In 2017 he invented the CareChanger a device he built for his daughter that will revolutionize personal care for wheelchair users In this book James honours both his adventures with Mariel from clever Halloween costumes to a memorable Vegas vacation and the many people who have touched her life through their compassion and care We also get to meet the Glorious Golfers a wonderful story about friendship overcoming adversity and being inspired by inclusion organizers and educators describe how they are fighting systemic racism in schools by building a new intersectional educational justice movement Illuminating the struggles and triumphs of the emerging educational justice movement this anthology tells the stories of how black and brown parents students educators and their allies are fighting back against systemic inequities and the mistreatment of children of color in low income communities It offers a social justice alternative to the corporate reform movement that seeks to privatize public education through expanding charter schools and voucher programs To address the systemic racism in our education system and in the broader society the contributors argue that what is needed is a movement led by those most affected by injustice students of color and their parents that builds alliances across sectors and with other social justice movements addressing immigration LGBTQ rights labor rights and the school to prison pipeline Representing a diverse range of social justice organizations from across the US including the Chicago Teachers Union and the Gender and Sexualities Alliance Network the essayists recount their journeys to movement building and offer practical organizing strategies and community based alternatives to traditional education reform and privatization
