Our Threatened Inheritance Natural Treasures Of The United States:

Our Threatened Inheritance Ron Fisher, James P. Blair, National Geographic Society (U.S.). Special Publications Division, 1984 A guide to the American landscape and wildlife in text and stunning photographs with warnings concerning their future

Our Threatened Inheritance Ron Fisher, 1984 America's national parks forests and wildlife refuges Bureau of Land Management holdings and other Federally owned areas encompass more than 700 million acres This volume covers the beauty of the American landscape and wildlife and the threats that development presents to these national treasures It also chronicles the history of the Federal lands their many uses the laws and policies that affect them and the problems these areas face and explores possible solutions The author documents both efforts to preserve and restore the land's glories and plans to put the same land to more profitable economic use Over 300 evocative photographs help to record the splendor of nature and tragedy of its devastation ISBN 0 87044 512 X 19 95 For use only in the library

Deer Companions Thomas Lee Boles, 2008-09-23 Deer Companions includes several years of observations and experiences at a deer farm The reader will be introduced to a herd of several dozen white tailed deer become closely acquainted with several and their human caretakers and even see a little of what used to be called natural history The nearest likeness to the author's experience is the proverbial traveler to a distant land who becomes adopted into an exotic tribe We will see the herd's social structure as it were from the inside and acquire a jealous but very devoted sweetheart That's her on the cover The author has seen this happen to several other people but after extensive research can find no published mention of it The picture doesn't do it justice no one else can see the look in Sugar's eyes when she does that There is also an extensive appendix describing habitat and herd manipulations in all fifty states of the Union to enhance sporting opportunities multiply deer populations for hunters benefit This puts away any claim that hunting is about population control
