Our Time:

Our Time in Vietnam John H. Corns, 2009-12-17 Captain John Corns leads his Special Forces team into the jungles of the Central Highlands of Vietnam in 1963. There is an insurgency and he and his Green Berets have undergone extensive training for the mission of assisting the Vietnamese and Montagnard people in their fight against communist terrorism. What they find is a challenge that resists rapid progress and a cause that leaves destruction and death in its wake. Corns returns four years later as a major and operations officer for the Army Navy Mobile Riverine Force in the Mekong Delta. The conflicting military forces are larger losses to both the insurgent Viet Cong and to American Forces are greater and the sacrifices of men around him beg the question of what will it cost to win and will it be worth the losses. Now a retired Lieutenant General, Corns looks back at those days as a young officer to share the worth to him of that experience, his time in Vietnam with men like himself.

Manage Your Time, Your Work, Yourself Merrill E. Douglass, Donna N. Douglass, 1993 Working faster won't save you more time. Neither will working longer hours. But changing time squandering behavior can lead to less stress, a more balanced life, and greater accomplishments. This newly revised popular guide outlines seven steps that will transform time wasters into time masters. Covering every aspect of time management, it shows you how to set priorities, distinguish short from long term goals, schedule activities, analyze time, streamline paperwork, minimize interruptions, manage travel time, and conquer procrastination. A miniquiz at the beginning of each chapter pinpoints areas for improvement that you can incorporate into your own Time Management Profile. You'll also find many worksheets to complete throughout the book to help you better manage your busy life.

Ministry Digest, Vol. 03, No. 04 Witness Lee, In this issue we will continue four lines of ministry. The first line, The History of the Lord's Recovery, contains chapters 14 through 17 of Fellowship concerning the Urgent Need of the Vital Groups, which are in volume 3 of The Collected Works of Witness Lee. 1991-1992. These chapters cover vital points concerning the vital group practice, an earnest talk concerning the practice of the vital groups being burdened with God's loving concern for sinners and with converting sinners into members of Christ for the carrying out of God's economy, and fellowship concerning the living contents of the vital groups. The second line, Words for New Believers, contains chapters 9 through 12 of Crucial Truths in the Holy Scriptures, Volume 1, which are in volume 3 of The Collected Works of Witness Lee. 1932-1949. These chapters cover topics related to justification, reconciliation, regeneration, and eternal life. The third line, Maturing in Life, continues with chapters 3 through 6 of Reward and Punishment, which are in volume 3 of The Collected Works of Witness Lee. 1955. These chapters cover various aspects of the gospel revealed in the Gospels and Acts, God setting aside a portion of His salvation as a reward, reward and punishment in the New Testament, and the time duration and intention of reward and punishment. The fourth line, The High Peak of the Divine Revelation, continues with chapters 2 through 5 of God's New Testament Economy, which are in volume 3 of The Collected Works of Witness Lee. 1984. These chapters cover the Word's incarnation and the Son's living on the earth, the Son's death in

Garcia,2017-09-06 This book deals with the thorny issue of human rights in different cultures and religions especially in the light of bioethical issues In this book experts from Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Daoism Hinduism and Confucianism discuss the tension between their religious traditions and the claim of universality of human rights The East West contrast is particularly evident with regards to human rights Some writers find the human rights language too individualistic and it is foreign to major religions where the self does not exist in isolation but is normally immersed in a web of relations and duties towards family friends religion community and society Is the human rights discourse a predominantly Western liberal ideal which in bioethics is translated to mean autonomy and free choice In today's democratic societies laws have been drafted to protect individuals and communities against slavery discrimination torture or genocide Yet it appears unclear at what moment universal rights supersede respect for cultural diversity and pluralism This collection of articles demonstrates a rich spectrum of positions among different religions as they confront the ever more pressing issues of bioethics and human rights in the modern world This book is intended for those interested in the contemporary debates on religious ethics human rights bioethics cultural diversity and multiculturalism Elements of Psychology, Victor Cousin,1842 Good Morning

Message Peggy Edwards,2010-08 This daily devotional book has been a God led inspiration from its very start up from its original Bible verse and note of encouragement to some coworkers and family members to people around the world via my email network Our God is so awesome I've had people return emails to me or speak to me and ask How did you know that I needed that today or How did you know I was going through this That is when I thankfully remind them that God inspired each and every one of these devotionals I am just being faithful and following His directions Now I'm led to put them into a year of daily devotions book to reach others Occasionally my emailed devotionals have colored photographs that I take as God inspired message for the day Unfortunately I couldn't include those in this book I did include a photo in grayscale at the beginning of each month the cover photo is a God blessed look at an Alaskan sunset I am so thankful that God is working in my life I want to encourage each of you to grasp hold of whatever gift He has blessed you with and step out in trust and faith to go forth and to share it with others When you feel down just start counting each of the blessings God has touched you with in your life and you will feel His Presence and comfort to encourage you We are never alone He is just a prayer away nothing is impossible for our God He is not done with us yet He is asking us to be obedient in our service to Him and He will help us grow in our faith Trust in Him and you will be astounded at what He has in store for you *Physico-Theology ...
