Our Times 2 Readings From Recent Periodicals:

Rejuvenating the Humanities Ray Broadus Browne, Marshall William Fishwick, 1992 The humanities are the human elements in any culture In the West these humanities have ordinarily been anchored in and derivative of Eurocentric culture and have been centered on elite and art related subjects As such they have strengthened and perpetuated elite culture and have been restricted and narrow in their point of view They have enervated the modern humanities which in a democratic society insist on having democratic humanities Democratic humanities demand a new point of view which demands respect for and dignity to the common aspects of culture as well as inclusion of those elements It is time the call went ringing through the land The Old is Sick Please Bring Assistance Rejuvenate the humanities The essays in this volume are Assistance an effort to demonstrate the inalienable need for new subjects in the humanities canon and the value of those subjects as parts of the New Humanities The twenty essays in this effort to bring new vitality to the humanities range through fields familiar in life but unfamiliar in the humanities canon They include leisure folk cultures material culture pornography comics animal rights Black studies travelling and of course the bugbear of academics television The authors include some of the outstanding scholar observers of today all of whom address their subjects in cool dispassionate and convincing reason The subject of revitalizing the Humanities is important indeed This volume will go a long way toward alerting the intellectual community to the desperate need to bring new understanding to the study of the modern humanities Susan Sontag Leland Poague, Kathy A. Parsons, 2021-12-12 Susan Sontag An Annotated Bibliography catalogues the works of one of America's most prolific and important 20th century authors Known for her philosophical writings on American culture topics left untouched by Sontag's writings are few and far between This volume is an exhaustive collection that includes her novels essays reviews films and interviews Each entry is accompanied by an annotated bibliography The Struggles After the Struggle David Kaulemu, 2008 Writing Students Marguerite H. Helmers, 1994-11-22 This is a book about the usual teacher student relationship in composition courses It disrupts and rewrites the commonplace conception of the relationship by revealing the uneven ways in which power is deployed in and around the classroom And it offers a responsible alternative The author not only offers teachers a way of learning about power relations at their own specific sites but also works towards a more equitable redistribution Drawing from testimonials about teaching practice published in the journal College Composition and Communication Helmers explores conventions in this form of writing that portray students in a negative light and show the teacher to be powerfully triumphant in his or her creative pedagogy Several prevalent modes of representation are discussed in the book all of which define the students as distinctly different from the teachers in other words as an other The texture of the work is rich because Helmers takes an enormous amount of post structuralist theory and recasts it in the sphere of the teacher student relationship itself an underexplored realm Our Times/2 Robert Atwan, 1991 Encyclopedia of Politics Rodney P.
