Soul Lovers and Soul Makers Dr. Joe G. Vethanayagam, 2015-12-29 I was raised in a city with one of the most beautiful and natural beaches I was struck by the beauty of the ocean and the way its waves pushed and pulled along the shoreline always departing but never failing to return And I witnessed how every time the ocean withdrew from the shoreline it left shells behind It happened every single time These shells could have originated from anywhere on the planet But the ocean carried those shells to that particular place where we could pick them up When we get broken we keep trying without giving up just as the ocean refuses to stop coming Every failure teaches us some lessons Every withdrawal leaves us with some blessings We are never left empty handed as we are getting our share of seashells We collect the shells that are meant for us When we start reaching for love from within and explore our inner potential we bring our awareness into focus and discover our available abundance When our attention is placed within ourselves we do not need an outside source to make us happy to make us heal or to make us who we are meant to be after receiving her twin sons baccaaurat results She died in peace but without having had the opportunity to be able to truly forgive her brutal attackers She died without anyone coming to ask her for forgiveness and without having been able to offer her sincere forgiveness But her last thoughts really went out to her wonderful children She remembered the great ocean of motherly love that she had been able to give them during their upbringing Before she closed her eyes for the last time she asked God to bless them On her deathbed she didnt have the slightest inkling of the powerful impact of the incredible testimonial that she had succeeded in bequeathing to her children As Maria Africa had also been kidnapped raped and its not a Belgian story and tortured for centuries From those repeated rapes were born sick and weak republics None of the many rapists did recognize the shameful paternity despite the fact that their saliva and blood were still visible everywhere and there was no need for complex DNA analysis to find out whom they belong to
