Our Sister Killjoy Or Reflections From A Black Eyed Squint:

Our Sister Killjoy Ama Ata Aidoo, 1977 Postcolonial Perspectives on Women Writers from Africa, the Caribbean, and the US Martin Japtok, 2003 Combining postcolonial perspectives with race and culture based studies which have merged the fields of African and black American studies this volume concentrates on women writers exploring how the post colonial condition is reflected in women's literature The essays are united by their focus on attempts to create alternative value systems through the rewriting of history or the reclassification of the woman's position in society By examining such strategies these essays illuminate the diversity and coherence of the postcolonial project Our Sister Killjoy Ama Ata Aidoo, 2025-02 Join a young Ghanaian woman on her journey into Europe's heart of whiteness to meet the natives in this iconoclastic modern classic A wondrous discovery Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie A treasure one of the works that inspired my own literary journey Tsitsi Dangarembga Aidoo has reaffirmed my faith in the power of the written word Alice Walker Modest lyrical reflective and intelligent Deserves as wide an audience as it can get Angela Carter Ver do you come from she asked Sissie Ghana Is that near Canada Sissie is leaving Africa for the first time arriving in Europe on a scholarship to experience the glories of a Western education In Germany as guest of honour over embassy cocktails she cringes at her countrymen In a Bavarian castle she is seduced by a lonely local mother to Little Adolf In freezing London she witnesses been to's sharing myths of an overseas idyll In between continents she writes a letter on the plane to her exiled former lover But it is not sent She will tell these tales back at home Ama Ata Aidoo's landmark debut Our Sister Killjoy exploded into the world in 1977 With its blistering feminist satire of the African diaspora colonial legacies and toxic racism expressed in a radical literary form prose poetry letter manifesto its provocative impact remains unmatched Introduced by Ayesha Harruna Attah

Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, 2006 Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Migration and Identity in Black Women's Literature brings together a series of essays addressing black women's fragmented identities and quests for wholeness The individual essays concern culturally specific experiences of blacks in select African countries England the Caribbean the United States and Canada They examine identity struggles by establishing the Middle Passage as the first site of identity rupture and the subsequent break from cultural and historical moorings In most cases the authors themselves have migrated from their places of origin to new spaces that present challenges Their narratives replicate the displacement engendered by their own experiences of living with the complexities of diasporic existence Their female characters many of whom participate in multiple border crossings work to define themselves within a hostile environment In nearly every essay the female characters struggle against multiple yokes of oppression giving voice to what it means to be black female poor old and alone The subjects' migrations and journeys are analyzed as attempts to heal the displacement both physical and psychological that results from dislocation and relocation from the homeland imagined variously as Africa This volume reveals that black women across the globe share a common ground fraught with struggles but the narratives bear out that these women are not easily divided and that they stand upon each other's shoulders dispensing healing balms Black women's history and herstory commingle the trauma that ensued when Africans were loaded onto ships in chains continues to haunt black women and men too wherever they find themselves in this present moment of the Diaspora

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

This is the Canon Joan Anim-Addo, Deirdre Osborne, Kadija Sesay, 2021-10-28 A vital and timely introduction to some of the best books I've ever read Perfectly curated and filled with brilliant literature Nikesh Shukla The ultimate introduction to post colonial literature for those who want to understand the classics and the pioneers in this exciting area of books Symeon Brown These are the books you should read This is the canon Joan Anim-Addo Deirdre Osborne and Kadija Sesay have curated a decolonized reading list that celebrates the wide and diverse experiences of people from around the world of all backgrounds and all races It disrupts the all too often white dominated required reading collections that have become the accepted norm and highlights powerful voices and cultural perspectives that demand a place on our shelves From literary giants such as Toni Morrison and Chinua Achebe to less well known but equally vital writers such as Caribbean novelist Earl Lovelace or Indigenous Australian author Tony Birch the novels recommended here are in turn haunting and lyrical innovative and inspiring edgy and poignant The power of great fiction is that readers have the opportunity to discover new worlds and encounter other beliefs and opinions This is the Canon offers a rich and multifaceted perspective on our past present and future which deserves to be read by all bibliophiles

Bishnupriya Ghosh, Brinda Bose, 2019-08-15 The editors are committed to destroying perceptions and stereotypes of third world women as passive victims who need to be liberated by Western feminists The essays address cases in which women have challenged and resisted the political formations nationalist struggles religious fundamentalist practices and authoritarian regimes that shape their daily lives Each critic presents a close reading of the circumstances under which the feminist writers and film makers

Romance, Diaspora, and Black Atlantic Literature Yogita Goyal, 2010-04-22 Romance Diaspora and Black Atlantic Literature offers a rich interdisciplinary treatment of modern black literature and cultural history showing how debates over Africa in the works of major black writers generated productive models for imagining political agency Yogita Goyal analyzes the tensions between romance and realism in the literature of the African diaspora examining a remarkably diverse group of twentieth century authors including W E B Du Bois Chinua Achebe Richard Wright Ama Ata Aidoo and Caryl Phillips Shifting the center of black diaspora studies by considering Africa as constitutive of black modernity rather than its forgotten past Goyal argues that it is through the figure of romance that the possibility of diaspora is imagined across time and space Drawing on literature political history and postcolonial theory this significant addition to the cross cultural study of literatures will be of interest to scholars of African American studies African studies and American literary studies

Out in Africa Chantal J. Zabus, 2013 Homosexuality was and still is thought to be quintessentially un-African Yet in this book Chantal Zabus examines the anthropological cultural and literary representations of male and female same sex desire from early colonial contacts between Europe and Africa in the nineteenth century to the present Covering a broad geographical spectrum from Mali to South Africa and from Senegal to Kenya and adopting a comparative approach encompassing two colonial languages English and French and some African languages Out in Africa charts developments in Sub Saharan African texts and contexts through the work of 7 colonial and some 25 postcolonial writers

Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia's coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in Africa itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth

But Some of Us Are Brave Akasha (Gloria T.) Hull, Patricia Bell-Scott, Barbara Smith, 2016-01-01 Published in 1982 But Some of Us Are Brave was the first ever Black women's studies reader and a foundational text of contemporary feminism Featuring writing from eminent scholars activists teachers and writers such as the Combahee River Collective and Alice Walker All the Women Are White All the Blacks Are Men But Some of Us Are Brave challenges the absence of Black feminist thought in women's studies confronts racism and investigates the mythology surrounding Black women in the social sciences As the first comprehensive collection of Black feminist scholarship But Some of Us Are Brave was recognized by Audre Lorde as the beginning of a new era where the women in women's studies will no longer mean white Coeditors Akasha Gloria T Hull Patricia Bell Scott and Barbara Smith are authors and former women's studies professors Brittney C Cooper is a professor of

Women's and Gender Studies and Africana Studies at Rutgers University She is the author of several books including Eloquent Rage named by Emma Watson as an Our Shared Shelf read for November December 2018 The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others
