Our War Stories II Marvin Harper, 2005-05 War Stories II Oliver North, 2012-03-28 When it comes to sheer savagery endured by the American fighting man few combat theaters could match the Pacific in World War II the sodden malarial and Japanese infested jungles of New Guinea and Guadalcanal the kamikaze pilots for whom death was no deterrent and the blood soaked beaches taken by island hopping Marines Here in their own words are the compelling stories of American soldiers sailors airmen and Marines as told to decorated combat veteran Lt Colonel Oliver North Our War Stories Marvin B. Harper, 2003 The EC Archives: Two-Fisted Tales Volume 2 Harvey Kurtzman, 2025-09-09 HARROWING TRUE TO LIFE WAR TALES IN THE EC TRADITION The heart pounding spine rattling war stories of Two Fisted Tales continue with this volume where the destructive force of battle and the true human cost of war is laid bare under celebrated cartoonist Harvey Kurtzman's watchful eye and steadfast editorship Collecting Two Fisted Tales issues 24-29 this affordably priced paperback volume features in fully remastered digital color the work of comic book greats Harvey Kurtzman Wally Wood John Severin Jerry De Fuccio John Severin and more Includes the Kurtzman classic war story Corpse on the Imjin Foreword by Rocco Versaci Ph D When It Was Our War Stella Suberman, 2003-10-05 When Stella Suberman wrote her first memoir The Jew Store at the age of seventy six she was widely praised for shedding light on a forgotten piece of American history Jewish life in the rural South In her new memoir Suberman reveals yet another overlooked aspect of America's past the domestic side of war Her story begins in the Miami Beach she grew up in when hotel signs boasted Always a View Never a Jew and where a passenger ship lingered just off shore carrying hundreds of European Jews hoping for but never finding sanctuary It was a time of innocence before that war in Europe became our war Stella was nineteen when America entered the fighting By the time she was twenty three the war was over She married Jack Suberman the week he enlisted and set out alone to join him in California She was kicked off trains to make room for soldiers her luggage was stolen she was arrested for soliciting but she was determined to follow her husband And she did so for the next four years as he was sent from air base to air base first training to be a bombardier and then training others It wasn't until he was sent overseas to fly combat missions that she finally went back home to wait as did so many other soldier's wives This remarkable memoir renders a double understanding of war of how it matured a young woman and how it matured a country By personalizing the patriotism of the 1940s Stella Suberman's story becomes the story of all military wives and serves as a powerful reminder of how differently many Americans feel about war sixty years later This Was Not Our War Swanee Hunt, 2004-11-29 Combines Bosnian women's personal testimony about the recent war and its aftermath with Ambassador Hunt's analysis of the U S government's approach to the conflict A Cumulated Index to the Books of .. , 1900

Your Country, Our War Katherine A. Brown, 2019-02-01 Journalists are actors in international relations mediating communications between governments and publics but also between the administrations of different countries American and foreign officials simultaneously consume the work of U S journalists and use it in their own thinking about how to conduct their work As such journalists play an unofficial diplomatic role However the U S news media largely amplifies American power Instead of stimulating greater understanding the U S elite mainstream press can often widen mistrust as they promote an American worldview and with the exception of some outliers reduce the world into a tight security frame in which the U S is the hegemon This has been the case in Afghanistan since 2001 particularly as emerging Afghan journalists have relied significantly on U S and other Western news outlets to report events within their government and their country Based on eight years of interviews in Kabul Washington and New York Your Country Our War demonstrates how news has intersected with international politics during the War in Afghanistan and shows the global power and reach of the U S news media especially within the context of the post 9 11 era It reviews the trajectory of the U S news narrative about Afghanistan and America s never ending war and the rise of Afghan journalism from 2001 to 2017 The book also examines the impact of the American news media inside a war theater It examines how U S journalists affected the U S Afghan relationship and chronicles their contribution to the rapid development of a community of Afghan journalists who grappled daily with how to define themselves and their country during a tumultuous and uneven transition from fundamentalist to democratic rule Providing rich detail about the U S Afghan relationship especially former President of Afghanistan Hamid Karzai s convictions about the role of the Western press we begin to understand how journalists are not merely observers to a story they are participants in it

Imagination in the United States the first book in a two volume series provides a map of current approaches to comics and their engagement with historical representation The first section of the book on history and form explores the existence shape and influence of comics as a medium The second section concerns the question of trauma understood both as individual traumas that can shape the relationship between the narrator and object and historical traumas that invite a reassessment of existing social economic and cultural assumptions The final section on mythic histories delves into ways in which comics add to the mythology of the US Together both volumes bring together a range of different approaches to diverse material and feature remarkable scholars from all over the world War Stories Leigh Hafrey, 2015-12-23 War Stories Fighting Competing Imagining Leading advances a leadership model for business that takes Americans beyond combat and competition as the default setting for our daily enterprise The book draws on feature and documentary films TV social science and journalism to show that in the 21st century the United States is reaping the fruit of a long standing and deep rooted faith in one take on business practice Rooted in the history of World War II and the Vietnam era War Stories traces an arc of military American self perception on the screen the printed page and in public conversation over the past 20 years It juxtaposes to that arc a different potentially more liberating and productive story linking personal and professional commitments to organizational culture and finally systems thinking Ethical sustainable business practice depends on leaders who can tell that story of business in society integrating public private and civil sector imperatives for an audience eager to engage them Civil War Stories Lamar Underwood, 2018-05-01 The Civil War Re Lived in 40 Stories Between the first shots fired at Fort Sumter on April 12 1861 to Lee s surrender at Appomattox Courthouse on April 9 1865 the nation was irrevocably changed as were the lives of the soldiers and civilians who lived through the war This is an extraordinary collection of stories about that epochal conflict bringing the victories and defeats the valor and the heartbreak alive with personal intensity Includes entries by Ambrose Bierce Stephan Crane Mark Twain Abraham Lincoln Ulysses S Grant Walt Whitman Frederick L Hitchcock Louisa May Alcott Carlton McCarthy Abner Doubleday Theodore Roosevelt and many others Wisconsin Vietnam War Stories Sarah A. War Stories Matthew A. Baum, Tim J. Groeling, 2009-12-14 How does the American public formulate its opinions about U S foreign policy and military engagement abroad War Stories argues that the media systematically distort the information the public vitally needs to determine whether to support such initiatives for reasons having more to do with journalists professional interests than the merits of the policies and that this has significant consequences for national security Matthew Baum and Tim Groeling develop a strategic bias theory that explains the foreign policy communication process as a three way interaction among the press political elites and the public each of which has distinct interests biases and incentives Do media representations affect public support for the president and faithfully reflect events in times of diplomatic crisis and war How do new media especially Internet news and more partisan outlets shape public opinion and how will they alter future conflicts In answering such questions Baum and Groeling take an in depth look at media coverage elite rhetoric and public opinion during the Iraq war and other U S conflicts abroad They trace how traditional and new media select stories how elites frame and sometimes even distort events and how these dynamics shape public opinion over the course of a conflict Most of us learn virtually everything we know about foreign policy from media reporting of elite opinions In War Stories Baum and Groeling reveal precisely what this means for the future of American foreign policy
