American Life Writing Amy Monticello, Jason Tucker, 2023-07-31 The stories of lived experience offer powerful representations of a nation's complex and often fractured identity Personal narratives have taken many forms in American literature From the letters and journals of the famous and the lesser known to the memoirs of former slaves to hit true crime podcasts to lyric essays to the curated archives we keep on social media life writing has been a tool of both the influential and the disenfranchised to spark cultural and political evolution to help define the larger identity of the nation and to claim a sense of belonging within it Taken together individual stories of real American lives weave a tapestry of history humanity and art while raising questions about the veracity of memory and the slippery nature of truth This volume surveys the forms of life writing that have contributed to the richness of American literature and shaped American discourse It examines life writing as a rhetorical tool for social change and explores how technological advancement has allowed ordinary Americans to chronicle and share their lives with others The Made-Up Self Carl H. Klaus, 2010-04-15 In this first book length study of the personal essay Carl Klaus unpacks the writer's made up self and the manifold ways in which a wide range of essayists and essay have brought it to life By reconceiving the most fundamental aspect of the personal essay the I of the essayist Klaus demonstrates that this seemingly uncontrived form of writing is inherently problematic not wilfully devious but bordering upon the world of fiction He develops this key idea by explaining how structure style and voice determine the nature of a persona and our perception of it in the works of such essayists as Michel de Montaigne Charles Lamb E B White Virginia Woolf James Baldwin George Orwell Joan Didion Richard Rodriguez Alice Walker and Leslie Marmon Silko

Leaders in Curriculum Studies Leonard J. Waks, Edmund C. Short, 2009-01-01 In the 1950s and 1960s school teaching became a university based profession and scholars and policy leaders looked to the humanities and social sciences in building an appropriate knowledge base By the mid 1960s there was talk about a new philosophy history and sociology of education Curriculum thinkers such as Joseph Schwab Dwayne Heubner and Paul Hirst initiated new intellectual projects to supplement applied work in curriculum By the 1970s the field was in the process of re conceptualization as a new generation of scholars provided deep critical insights into the social political and cultural dynamics of school experience and templates for renewal of curriculum research and practice In this book 18 leading curriculum scholars since 1970 who remain influential today present the fascinating stories of their lives and important new contributions to the field They trace their early experiences in teaching and curriculum development creative directions in their work mature ideas and perceptions of future directions for the field Each chapter contains a list of works chosen by the authors as their personal favorites

Personal Effects Nancy Caronia, Edvige Giunta, 2014-10-15 Celebrating one of the most important Italian American female authors of our time Personal Effects offers a lucid view of Louise DeSalvo as a writer who has produced a vast and provocative body of memoir writing a scholar who has enriched our understanding of Virginia Woolf and a teacher who has transformed countless lives More than an anthology Personal Effects represents an author case study and an example for modern Italian American interdisciplinary scholarship Personal Effects examines DeSalvo's memoirs as works that push the boundaries of the most controversial genre of the past few decades In these works the author fearlessly explores issues such as immigration domesticity war adultery illness mental health sexuality the environment and trauma through the lens of gender ethnic and working class identity Alongside her groundbreaking scholarship DeSalvo's memoirs attest to the power and influence of this feminist Italian American writer The Art of the Personal Essay Phillip Lopate, 1997-01-15 For more than four hundred years the personal essay has been one of the richest and most vibrant of all literary forms Distinguished from the detached formal essay by its friendly conversational tone its loose structure and its drive toward candor and self disclosure the personal essay seizes on the minutiae of daily life vanities fashions foibles oddballs seasonal rituals love and disappointment the pleasures of solitude reading taking a walk to offer insight into the human condition and the great social and political issues of the day The Art of the Personal Essay is the first anthology to celebrate this fertile genre By presenting more than seventy five personal essays including influential forerunners from ancient Greece Rome and the Far East masterpieces from the dawn of the personal essay in the sixteenth century and a wealth of the finest personal essays from the last four centuries editor Phillip Lopate himself an acclaimed essayist displays the tradition of the personal essay in all its historical grandeur depth and diversity I Love Myself When I Am Laughing... And Then Again When I Am Looking Mean and Impressive Zora Neale Hurston, 2020-01-07 The foundational classic anthology that revived interest in the author of Their Eyes Were Watching God one of the greatest writers of our time and made her work widely available for a new generation of readers Toni Morrison During her lifetime Zora Neale Hurston was praised for her writing but condemned for her independence and audacity Her work fell into obscurity until the 1970s when Alice Walker rediscovered Hurston's unmarked grave and anthologized her writing in this groundbreaking collection for the Feminist Press I Love Myself When I Am Laughing And Then Again When I Am Looking Mean and Impressive established Hurston as an intellectual leader for future generations of black writers A testament to the power and breadth of Hurston's oeuvre this edition newly reissued for the Feminist Press's fiftieth anniversary features a new preface by Walker Through Hurston the soul of the black South gained one of its most articulate interpreters The New York Times Dataclysm Christian Rudder, 2014-09-09 A New York Times

Bestseller An audacious irreverent investigation of human behavior and a first look at a revolution in the making Our personal data has been used to spy on us hire and fire us and sell us stuff we don t need In Dataclysm Christian Rudder uses it to show us who we truly are For centuries we ve relied on polling or small scale lab experiments to study human behavior Today a new approach is possible As we live more of our lives online researchers can finally observe us directly in vast numbers and without filters Data scientists have become the new demographers In this daring and original book Rudder explains how Facebook likes can predict with surprising accuracy a person s sexual orientation and even intelligence how attractive women receive exponentially more interview requests and why you must have haters to be hot He charts the rise and fall of America s most reviled word through Google Search and examines the new dynamics of collaborative rage on Twitter He shows how people express themselves both privately and publicly What is the least Asian thing you can say Do people bathe more in Vermont or New Jersey What do black women think about Simon Garfunkel Hint they don t think about Simon Garfunkel Rudder also traces human migration over time showing how groups of people move from certain small towns to the same big cities across the globe And he grapples with the challenge of maintaining privacy in a world where these explorations are possible Visually arresting and full of wit and insight Dataclysm is a new way of seeing ourselves a brilliant alchemy in which math is made human and numbers become the narrative of our time ANTHONY TROLLOPE

Writing Exploratory Essays; From Personal to Persuasive , Write Yourself In Eric Tipler, 2024-06-11 Write authentic memorable college essays that will help you get into the right school for you with this guidebook from a veteran college admissions expert Every spring over one million high school juniors embark on an annual rite of passage applying to college And with college admission rates at an all time low getting into a competitive school is now tougher than ever At the top schools a strong transcript and great test scores will get your application noticed but it's your essays and the personal story that they highlight that will get you admitted But often students don't know where to start Teens fret over topics because they don't know what college admissions officers are looking for They bend over backwards to write what they think colleges want to read instead of telling their authentic story which is what admissions officers actually want in a way that will resonate with their readers They also struggle because college essays which are narrative first person and introspective require a different set of skills from academic expository writing they've been learning for years in the classroom Seasoned college admissions expert and educator Eric Tipler has seen this firsthand Teens and their parents spend countless anxiety filled hours crafting and refining essays that are often lackluster In Write Yourself In Tipler meets students where they are and provides comprehensive actionable advice in a warm and conversational tone He demonstrates how to craft a winning essay one that is authentic vulnerable and demonstrative of qualities like personal growth and emotional maturity Instead of formulas Write Yourself In gives students step by step processes for brainstorming outlining writing and revising essays It encourages them to seek out feedback at key points in the process something Tipler has found to be vital to helping students produce their best writing Further the book includes sidebars that teach essential components of good storytelling a secret weapon in the admissions process In addition to the admissions essay Write Yourself In also covers the most common supplemental essays on topics like community diversity openness to others viewpoints and why their school is a good fit for the student scholarship essays as well as scholarship essays Tipler includes sections that address current topics like the widespread use of ChatGPT and the discussion of race in the admissions essay a facet of the student's application that will have newfound importance given the Supreme Court decision on affirmative action Written with both the parent and teen in mind Write Yourself In is the go to handbook for writing a great college essay

Creative Nonfiction Philip Gerard, 2017-11-10 Writing creative nonfiction intertwines journalistic truth and literary techniques to tell a story that is clear accurate and exploding with meaning Philip Gerard artfully guides readers through the entire creative nonfiction writing process going beyond the technical basics to address topics such as ethics voice and structural integrity In response to the genre's evolution the latest edition includes examples to illustrate how cultural changes have influenced the way writers conduct research approach writing and communicate during the production of their projects Timely engaging and poetic Creative Nonfiction is the practical manual every novice and seasoned writer will want on their bookshelf

Beyond Argument Sarah Allen, 2015-04-01 Beyond Argument offers an in depth examination of how current ways of thinking about the writer page relation in personal essays can be reconceived according to practices in the care of the self an ethic by which writers such as Seneca Montaigne and Nietzsche lived This approach promises to revitalize the form and address many of the concerns expressed by essay scholars and writers regarding the lack of rigorous exploration we see in our students personal essays and sometimes even in our own In pursuing this approach Sarah Allen presents a version of subjectivity that enables productive debate in the essay among essays and beyond
