Tassi,2005 In Elizabethan England dramatists and painters were both achieving the greatest degree of artistic excellence yet witnessed but they were also in a state of transition vying for social status and patronage as well as struggling against religious reformers accusations of idolatry and eroticism This interdisciplinary study brings to light the radical inventive ways in which dramatists such as Shakespeare Lyly and Marston appropriated painting and subtly competed with painters to advance their own art and defend theater against Puritan attacks They transformed painting into a provocative stage property and trope that enhanced the language of their scripts and the audience's imaginative participation in the drama At the same time they reflected a profound ambivalence towards painting by staging scenes with painters and pictures that emphasized the dangerous powers inherent in visual images and image making Propaganda and Zionist Education Yoram Bar-Gal,2003 A history of the Jewish National Fund and the ways it encouraged Jews around the world to buy land in Palestine in the years 1924-1947 The Jewish National Fund JNF is the executive body established by the Zionist movement in 1902 to buy land in Palestine for the Jewish people Very quickly however it became an international organization and soon had branches in many countries throughout the world One of the tasks of these branches was to mediate between the central office in Jerusalem and the millions of Jews who donated money to buy land The organization which is still active throughout the Jewish world concerned itself with the marketing of ideology the dissemination of symbols knowledge and ideas to the masses of the Jewish people and converted them into money and real estate property In thememories of much of World Jewry the JNF is linked with memories of their childhoods and the forming of their identities The memory was in fact fashioned by the Propaganda Department of the JNF which worked through the mass communications media in the Jewish world and made its presence massively felt in the Jewish education networks in many countries Among the most remembered items are the Blue Box the flagship of the organization and the stamps distributed to schools which were miniature posters making political declarations Up until today there has been virtually no research carried out on these aspects of Zionist propaganda which helped to fashion this collective memoryand left its mark upon Jewish culture in Israel and the Jewish Diaspora Yoram Bar Gal is Professor of Geography at Haifa University in Israel
