Nature and Culture in the Northern Forest Pavel Cenkl, 2010-03-15 Nearly 30 million acres of the Northern Forest stretch across New York Vermont New Hampshire and Maine Within this broad area live roughly a million residents whose lives are intimately associated with the forest ecosystem and whose individual stories are closely linked to the region's cultural and environmental history The fourteen engaging essays in Nature and Culture in the Northern Forest effectively explore the relationships among place work and community in this complex landscape Together they serve as a stimulating introduction to the interdisciplinary study of this unique region Each of the four sections views through a different lens the interconnections between place and people The essayists in Encounters have their hiking boots on as they focus on personal encounters with flora and fauna of the region The energizing accounts in Teaching and Learning question our assumptions about education and scholarship by proposing invigorating collaborations between teachers and students in ways determined by the land itself not by the abstractions of pedagogy With the freshness of Thoreau's irreverence the authors in Rethinking Place look at key figures in the forest's literary and cultural development to help us think about the affiliations between place and citizenship In Nature as Commodity three essayists consider the ways that writers from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries thought about nature as a product and thus how their conclusions bear on the contemporary retailing of place The writers in Nature and Culture in the Northern Forest reveal the rich affinities between a specific place and the literature thought and other cultural expressions it has nurtured Their insightful and stimulating connections exemplify adventurous bioregional thinking that encompasses both natural and cultural realities while staying rooted in the particular landscape of some of the Northeast's wildest forests and oldest settlements      This Luminous Coast Jules Pretty, 2015-06-04 Over the course of a year Jules Pretty walked along the shoreline of East Anglia in southeastern England eventually exploring four hundred miles on foot and another hundred miles by boat It is a coast and a culture that is about to be lost not yet perhaps but soon to rising tides and industrial sprawl This Luminous Coast takes the reader with him on his journey over land and water over sea walls of dried grass beside stretched fields of golden crops alongside white sails gliding across the intricate lacework of invisible creeks and estuaries under vast skies that are home to curlews and redshanks and the outpourings of skylarks East Anglia's coastline is as much a human landscape as it is a natural one and Pretty is equally perceptive about the region's cultural heritage and its industrial wild fishing villages and the modern seaside resorts family farms and oil refineries pleasure piers and concrete seawalls cozy pubs and military installations Through words and photographs Pretty interweaves stories of the land and sea with people past and present He is a passionate and sensitive guide to a region in transition under stress and perhaps even doomed as finely attuned to its history as he is to its unique sensory world      The East Country Jules Pretty, 2017-09-15 The East Country is a work of creative nonfiction in which the acclaimed nature writer Jules Pretty integrates memoir natural history cultural critique and spiritual reflection into a single compelling narrative Pretty frames his book around Aldo Leopold and his classic A Sand County Almanac bringing Leopold's ethic that some could live without nature but most should not into the twenty first century In The East Country Pretty follows the seasons through seventy four tales set in a variety of landscapes from valley to salty shore Pretty convinces us that we should all develop long attachments to the local observing that the land can change us for the better      Seeking Awareness in American Nature Writing Scott Slovic, 1992      Reasonable Doubt Peter Manso, 2017-12-19 In January 2002 forty six year old Christa Worthington was found stabbed to death in the kitchen of her Cape Cod cottage her curly haired toddler clutching her body A former Vassar girl and scion of a prominent local family Christa had abandoned a glamorous career as a fashion writer for a simpler life on the Cape where she had an affair with a married fisherman and had his child After her murder evidence pointed toward several local men who had known her Yet in 2005 investigators arrested Christopher McCowen a thirty four year old African American garbage collector with an IQ of 76 The local headlines screamed Black Trash Hauler Ruins Beautiful White Family and Black Murderer Apprehended in Fashion Writer Slaying while the sole evidence against McCowen was a DNA match showing that he'd had sex with Worthington prior to her murder There were no fingerprints no witnesses and although the state medical examiner acknowledged there was no evidence of rape after a five week trial replete with conflicting testimony and accusations of crime scene contamination McCowen was condemned to three lifetime sentences with no parole Rarely has a homicide trial been refracted so clearly through the prism of those who engineered it Bestselling author and biographer Peter Manso dug deep into the case and the results were explosive The Cape

DA indicted the author threatening him with fifty years in prison In this exhaustively researched and vividly accessible book Manso bares the anatomy of a horrific murder a botched investigation rife with bias and one of the most grossly unjust verdicts in modern trial history Page 4 of cove
