Out of Chaos Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1988      Out of Chaos Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1988 Stresses the fact that refounding persons are essential for the revitalization of religious life      From Chaos To Mission Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1996-01-10 Formation is a rite of passage or initiation ritual This book draws on the findings of social anthropological studies of initiation rituals and contemporary biblical studies of rites of passage Since initiation rituals are of critical importance in the life journeys of individuals and groups the book's central theme is relevant to educationalists and ritual leaders in the Church and secular society Most religious congregations founded since the thirteenth century were formed for prophetic ministry to a world in change yet for centuries before Vatican II their candidates were rarely trained explicitly for this task Through years of quasi indoctrination and voluntary incarceration they were taught in a monastic atmosphere of unchanging order that the world was evil and to be avoided Conformity to a theological ecclesiastical and pastoral status quo was the most esteemed value in a candidate This emphasis was contrary to the very nature of active religious life Religious must be prophetic challengers of the status quo within the Church and society Training for membership in active religious congregations therefore must now be radically reformed but there are no road maps available to direct educationalists in developing programmes that would stimulate candidates to be radically creative in ministry From Chaos to Mission creates a framework for radical thinking and practical action about the critical issue of formation of religious for mission today

Religious Life in the 21st Century O'Murchu, Diarmuid, 2016-08-18 This seminal work surveys the historical rise and fall of religious orders and congregations and reveals an unfolding pattern that gives hope for the present and future

Fundamentalism at Home and Abroad Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2017 For most people fundamentalism in the modern world has become synonymous with a radical form of Islam but fundamentalism in many shapes and forms is also very much present in Western societies Yes fundamentalist economic political nationalistic and religious movements are aplenty in the West Using the lens of cultural anthropology Gerald A Arbuckle examines fundamentalist attitudes and movements in this book exploring why they arise and how readers can constructively respond to them      Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live

Catholic Identity Or Identities? Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2013 How can Catholic leaders effectively train and form members of our institutions in the Gospel values that are the ultimate foundation of Catholic identities Internationally recognized author educator and facilitator Gerald A Arbuckle argues that it is time to acknowledge that the programs and processes used in the past are inadequate to our postmodern age The systems previously used to educate the staffs of our hospitals universities schools and other institutions rarely succeed today Although didactic teaching and discursive learning have their place they cannot be the primary method for forming identities Catholic Identity or Identities will assist a wide range of people bishops theologians pastoral workers institutional leaders and staffs and more in their various ministries Arbuckle draws on several disciplines including Scripture theology and history but in particular cultural anthropology to explain the importance of refounding adult formation for Catholic ministries and the practical ways to achieve it Religious Life in a New Millennium Volume One Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M., Celebrating the Past, Present and Future of British and Irish Practical Theology Andrew P. Rogers, Nicola Slee, 2021-05-13 Practical theology has become a well established academic discipline in Britain and Ireland over the past half century evidenced in its chairs journals books conferences and contribution to transformed practices The British and Irish Association for Practical Theology BIAPT and its journal Practical Theology has had a significant role to play in the story of the discipline This volume is a celebration of practical theology in Britain and Ireland in all its inventiveness and variety on the occasion of BIAPT s twenty fifth birthday It offers an account of its roots in its emergence from the Scottish Pastoral Association in the 1960s its trajectories established in the journal Contact Practical Theology and how human experience has been a constant companion on the journey The book considers a range of methodologies including engagement with popular culture public theology the arts and the importance of conversation It explores new shoots in the discipline that consider how sexuality ethnicity and different religious traditions may be addressed within practical theology It concludes by asking how it may be fruitful in the future by reflecting on the challenges ahead not least the ubiquity of ignorance This is a landmark text in the unfolding of British and Irish practical theology in all its glorious distinctiveness which promises to be a major contribution to international debate in the discipline The chapters in this book were first published in Practical Theology Sub-merge John B. Hayes, 2007-01-11 It s time to change the face of poverty to live our faith authentically and to get involved with the people who need help It s time to sub merge ourselves to go deep beneath the surface of shallow living and make a difference in our world Follow author John Hayes as he lives out his faith on some of the toughest streets and poorest ghettos in the world Learn what real compassion

Arbuckle,2004 The reality of violence and the fear it generates is constantly in the news Terrorist attacks across the world and other abuses of power such as the sexual abuses in the Catholic Church the continuance of patriarchalism racism and the negative effects of globalization highlight the relevance of this book Here the author uniquely explains these forms of violence in the wider context of their cultural roots      Defining Mission Patricia Durchholz,1999 Defining Mission offers a glimpse into the daily life and leadership styles of the members of an Italian religious institute struggling to overcome the obstacles faced in America Patricia Durchholz provides the historical context and diplomatic negotiations involved as a foreign missionary society works and expands in the North American dioceses in Canada Atlanta Chicago Detroit Los Angeles

Louisville Newark and San Diego She begins before World War II with the diary of Father Edward Mason a seasoned African missionary who sought to offer his services to African American parishes to secure a safe haven for Comboni missionaries facing expulsion from Africa Durchholz continues the story as other Comboni missionaries struggle to adapt to America and pioneer work in ethnic parishes and missions through the 1960s The author analyzes the successes and failures of this Italian institute serving African Americans while detailing the political and religious aspects of the community The Lichen Factor Jim Lotz,1998 Essays on Moses from Buenos Aires John Tracy Greene,2017-03-07 Essays on Moses from Buenos Aires Moses in Three Traditions and in Literature brings together papers presented at the International Annual Meeting of the Society of Biblical Literature s Seminar in Biblical Characters in Three Traditions Judaism Christianity and Islam and in Literature In 2015 this Meeting took place at the Pontifical Catholic University in Buenos Aires Argentina with the biblical character of concern being Moses resulting in a myriad of approaches taken in understanding traditions concerning him The Seminar has provided a forum for scholars of the three traditions and literature to express freely and in a scholarly atmosphere their learned opinions concerning one biblical character at each meeting The purpose is two fold 1 to take advantage of the academic freedom proffered by the Seminar in a courteous yet intensive environment and 2 through the proceedings volumes to provide a growing and specialized research library on the development of learned opinions on specific biblical characters This volume will appeal to the university and seminary scholar both professorial and student as well as the interested intelligent reader Spiritan Life and Mission Since Vatican II William Cleary,2018-02-01 The Second Vatican Council 1962-65 called for the renewal of all religious institutes in the Catholic Church The Congregation of the Holy Spirit Spiritans responded initially under the leadership of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre Different interpretations of Vatican II caused divisions culminating in Lefebvre s departure from the congregation From this difficult starting point the Spiritans sought to redefine themselves in creative fidelity to their founding intention the spirit of Vatican II and the signs of the times Spiritan Life and Mission since Vatican II recounts this journey of renewal in three parts the Spiritan world before Vatican II and the election of Archbishop Lefebvre as superior general in 1962 the ad experimentum period culminating with a new rule of life in 1986 and the implementation of this new rule as interpreted through inter congregational discourse particularly the general chapters of 1992 1998 and 2004 The development of thinking on the church s mission and the congregation s rediscovery of the founding charisms of Claude Poullart des Places and Francis Libermann provide the parameters for this positive interpretation of the Spiritan journey of renewal Its evolution in the third millennium into a multicultural international missionary community of some three thousand members from over sixty countries in service of the Missio Dei bears testimony to this The Rise and Fall of Catholic Religious Orders Patricia Wittberg,1994-10-25 Laughing with God Gerald A. Arbuckle,2015-03-15 When Sarah overhears God tell Abraham that she will give birth to a son she laughs She laughs to herself at the impossibility of her in her old age bearing a child Gen 18 12 But God s ways are not Sarah s ways God is far more wonderful than Sarah imagines Of course Sarah does give birth to a son and names him Isaac whose name means to laugh God has brought laughter for me everyone who hears will laugh with me Gen 21 6 Surely the ancient audience aware of the many incongruities in this story did laugh But can we in modern times recover the divine humor the paradox and promise in this and other biblical accounts Can we use that sacred laughter as a means to evangelize a world that longs for God every bit as much as the ancients did In Laughing with God Humor Culture and Transformation Catholic priest and cultural anthropologist Gerald Arbuckle helps us do just that With Arbuckle readers will enter many rich biblical stories and come away laughing not laughter as in response to a joke or comedy but a profound laughter of the heart Readers will laugh at Sarah as she laughs at God and they will laugh together with Sarah and God Readers will discover divine humor in the parables of Jesus and even in his suffering and death the ultimate paradox for Christians In addition to uncovering and recovering humor in Scripture Arbuckle s work is a treasure trove of modern examples of humor from literature movies and television that surprisingly can be a means of transforming cultures to better reflect the kingdom of God In the end readers will want to turn the phrase He who laughs last laughs best into They who laugh with God evangelize best Gerald A Arbuckle SM PhD is co director of Refounding and Pastoral Development a research ministry in Sydney Australia He is internationally known for his expertise in helping church leaders minister effectively in a postmodern world Arbuckle s most recent books include Confronting the Demon A Gospel Response to Adult Bullying Violence Society and the Church A Cultural Approach and Healthcare Ministry Refounding the Mission in Tumultuous Times 2001 Catholic Press Association Award all published by Liturgical Press
