UNORTHODOX LIFE In the 1930 s Germany the most powerful and ruthless nation in the world decreed that our family was to be exterminated Rudy Rosenberg born in Belgium in 1930 found himself and his immediate family locked in Belgium Rudy his sister Ruth Hillel his Poland born father and Frieda his German born mother Jewish and Stateless were unable to break out of Europe The family watched the growth of Hitler and his Nazi anti Semitic policies with increased concernhoping that unlike in the Great War 1914 1918 Belgium s neutrality would be respected by Germany 1935 Anti Jewish laws began in Germany Frieda s family would be murdered and wiped out during 1942 1943 1938 Hitler marched into Czechoslovakia Hitler marched into Austria 1939 Hitler invaded Poland Hillel s family would be murdered and wiped out 1941 1942 we heard of Jews being hunted and killed by the German invaders 1940 In April Hitler invaded Denmark and Norway 1940 in May Hitler invaded Belgium Holland and France Rudy and his family watched and remembered the anti Jewish vitriol that seeped into occupied Europe and even in previously benign Belgium Starting in 1941 the first arrests of thousands of Belgian Jews came about These were released through the personal intervention of Belgium s Queen Elizabeth These Belgian Jews would later be arrested and deported again in 1943 In 1942 Rudy Ruth and countless Jewish students were forbidden to continue their schooling The family was left with limited choices We had to either try to flee to unoccupied Switzerland or hide in convents or Christian camps or private homes A last alternative was to await the German troops for the deadly arrest and deportation to concentration camps mostly in Poland or Germany where swift death would be certain In June 1942 we purchased fake identity papers so we could flee to Switzerland Unfortunately we soon learned that this escape route was too dangerous and not practical Our parents found a safe hiding place in the Ardennes for Ruth and Rudy For a fee Frieda found a basement to hide in Ixelles a suburb of Brussels in a private home Hillel for a much larger fee found a hiding place in a private house ini Uccle another suburb of Brussels For safety reasons after about three months Ruth and Rudy left the hotel in the Ardennes Ruth and Rudy went to hide and joined with father in Uccle Six months later in March 1943 Rudy went to hide with Frieda in her Ixelles basement where they remained in hiding until they were finally liberated on the 3rd of September 1944 after hiding in the basement for 17 months The family spent over two years 27 months 823 days in hiding We then tried to resume our educations live again and become normal people again Eventually Rudy left Europe for the USA joined the US Army during the Korean conflict Frieda and Ruth joined Rudy three years later In 1991 Rudy wrote and published And Somehow We Survive an account of the struggle of his family to survive Now Rudy Rosenberg expands his life and the attempts to sort out the early life survival and his arrival in the USA There he details his bewildering coming to terms with his ethnic background a faith he never knew and the religion he ran away from AN UNORTHODOX LIFE Beyond the Synagogue Rachel B. Gross,2021-01-12 Finalist for the 2021 National Jewish Book Award in American Jewish Studies

Honorable Mention 2021 Saul Viener Book Prize given by the American Jewish Historical Society Reveals nostalgia as a new way of maintaining Jewish continuity In 2007 the Museum at Eldridge Street opened at the site of a restored nineteenth century synagogue originally built by some of the first Eastern European Jewish immigrants in New York City Visitors to the museum are invited to stand along indentations on the floor where footprints of congregants past have worn down the soft pinewood Here many feel a palpable connection to the history surrounding them Beyond the Synagogue argues that nostalgic activities such as visiting the Museum at Eldridge Street or eating traditional Jewish foods should be understood as American Jewish religious practices In making the case that these practices are not just cultural but are actually religious Rachel B Gross asserts that many prominent sociologists and historians have mistakenly concluded that American Judaism is in decline and she contends that they are looking in the wrong places for Jewish religious activity If they looked outside of traditional institutions and practices such as attendance at synagogue or membership in Jewish Community Centers they would see that the embrace of nostalgia provides evidence of an alternative under appreciated way of being Jewish and of maintaining Jewish continuity Tracing American Jews involvement in a broad array of ostensibly nonreligious activities including conducting Jewish genealogical research visiting Jewish historic sites purchasing books and toys that teach Jewish nostalgia to children and seeking out traditional Jewish foods Gross argues that these practices illuminate how many American Jews are finding and making meaning within American Judaism today
