Out Of The Blue:

Out of the Blue: A Western Novel Bertrand W. Sinclair, 2005-01-01 Once upon a time as the old tales used to begin a young man came riding down the main street of Fort Worth in the sovereign State of Texas He was mounted on a bright sorrel horse which stepped daintily in the dust of the thoroughfare for Fort Worth had not yet come to the high estate of asphalt paving and such civic ornamentation as followed in the wake of petroleum and cotton The longhorn was still king of the plains a source of wealth in his unnumbered thousands The cattle kings and their followers were like the ancient Romans they made their own roads made them into far places in a spirit of high emprise They did not mind a little dust here and there This rider who looked out from under a gray Stetson hat holding his reins in a buckskin gloved hand while he scanned the windows of the various establishments that fronted on the street was plainly of the range He was young and deeply tanned He was armed as men commonly were in those times His saddle bridle and spurs were beautifully made and the silver inlaid steel clinked faintly as his horse moved The coiled rawhide reata at his saddle fork was limber with much use He might have been considered picturesque That idea would never have occurred to him or his fellows The seed of romance indubitably lay in the stout hearts of Rock Holloway and his like living and moving and having their being on the fringes of an encroaching civilization but they were practical in their activities which had to do with a major industry wherein there was doubtless romance but also a considerable portion of hard work and long chances which the range man accepted as incidental to his calling This long limbed youth with the keen eyes and pleasant face could probably have told why he preferred the range to a university campus but he was merely the occasional exception And he may have had glimpses of the future apart from cattle and trail herds and the wide pastures that were in process of reclamation from the bison and the Indian But he would never have embodied such dreams in words And he was not steeping his soul in the color and aspect of a little cow town when he rode along that street He was looking for a certain place Presently and without very much trouble he found it Out of the Blue Pat Miller, 2016-03-09 Josie Bouchard lives in Prince Edward Island and learned to fly when she was sixteen Four years later World War II broke out and she enters the war as a nurse in London After a serious illness Josie decides to use her experience as a pilot and joins the Air Transfer Auxiliary The ATA ferries planes from the factories to the air bases Josie breaks the rules when she takes the famous Spitfire through barnstorming maneuvers she learned from a close family friend Sean Campbell Josies daredevil stunts land her in hot water Her ATA flying comes to a stop when the military grounds her and sends her to work in the hangar as a mechanic When several ferry planes crash sabotage is suspected and Josies name is rumored as the saboteur Sean Campbell the friend Josie had always regarded as another brother has worked his way into Josies heart Now that she realizes she loves him the family gets word that he is missing in action in Germany Josie has her whole life planned out but the war changes everything Her friends tell her that God has a plan for her As each plan goes awry she becomes aware of incidents that seem to come out of the blue Are they accidents coincidences or miracles of God
