Out of the Howling Storm Beidao,1993 Jervey Tervalon s novel about young people in South Central Los Angeles grows out of his experience teaching in a high school there and his pain at the death of one of his favorite students Out of the Howling Storm Tony Barnstone,1993 Out of the Howling Storm Tony Barnstone,1993 From the Beijing Spring of 1979 until the student uprisings of 1989 a new generation of poets flourished in China Influenced by Western Modernism and increasingly daring in their challenges to state control of their art these poets disguised political protest and social commentary in shadowy images and metaphors earning them the name Misty Poets Rejecting the Social Realism prescribed by Maoist doctrine they celebrated subjective experience and individuality ushering in a new era of artistic expression that has been dampened but not extinguished by the Tiananmen Square massacre This new anthology is the most comprehensive English sampling available of the work of the Misty Poets and their even younger proteges many of whom now live in exile in the West where they continue to reshape Chinese poetry and Literature Editor Tony Barnstone offers a generous and representative sample of the work of more than a dozen poets From more familiar writers such as Bei Dao and Duo Duo to such emerging figures as Zhang Zhen Bei Ling and Chou Ping who composes many of his poems in English these poets characterize the vibrant reawakening of Chinese poetry Barnstone s substantial critical introduction places the poets in their cultural historical and political context Translating China for Western Readers Ming Dong Gu,2014-11-06 This book explores the challenges of translating Chinese works particularly premodern ones for a contemporary Western readership Reacting against the cultural turn in translation studies contributors return to the origin of translation studies translation practice By returning to the time honored basics of linguistics and hermeneutics the book inquires into translation practice from the perspective of reading and reading theory Essays in the first section of the work discuss the nature function rationale criteria and historical and conceptual values of translation The second section focuses on the art and craft of translation offering practical techniques and tips Finally the third section conducts critical assessments of translation policy and practice as well as formal and aesthetic issues Throughout contributors explore how a translation from the Chinese can read like a text in the Western reader s own language Foreign Accents Steven G. Yao,2010-10-27 Foreign Accents examines the various transpacific signifying strategies by which poets of Chinese descent in the U S have sought to represent cultural tradition in their articulations of an ethnic subjectivity in Chinese as well as in English In assessing both the dynamics and the politics of poetic expression by writers engaging with a specific cultural heritage the study develops a general theory of ethnic literary production that clarifies the significance of Asian American literature in relation to both other forms of U S minority discourse as well as canonical American literature more generally At the same time it maps an expanded textual arena and a new methodology for Asian American literary studies that can be further explored by scholars of other traditions Yao discusses a range of works including Ezra Pound s Cathay and the Angel Island poems He examines the careers of four contemporary Chinese American poets Ha Jin Li young Lee Marilyn Chin and John Yau each of whom bears a distinctive relationship to the linguistic and cultural tradition he or she seeks to represent Specifically Yao investigates the range of rhetorical and formal strategies by which these writers have sought to incorporate Chinese culture and especially language in their works Combining such analysis with extensive social contextualization Foreign Accents delineates an historical poetics of Chinese American verse from the early twentieth century to the present Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women's fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women's writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating Constructing a System of Irregularities Chee Lay Tan, 2015-11-25 This book investigates the poetics of three of the most internationally renowned contemporary Chinese poets Bei Dao Yang Lian and Duoduo who were all exiled from China after the 1989 Tiananmen student movement Their poetry was later to be labelled Misty poetry Menglongshi Emphasising polyvalent imagery and irregular syntax Misty poetry engenders a multiplicity of meanings often leading to interpretational indeterminacy This book examines three aspects of the Mistiness of the poets oeuvre the socio historic background where Misty poets live and write imagery and linguistic elements After first identifying the roots of Mistiness this book identifies imagistic and linguistic clues in order to construct a hermeneutical system that examines the irregularities of the Misty poetics and appreciates the polysemy of the poets works Stylometry is used to analyse image frequency and its significance in a stylistic manner and a semiotic approach is then systematically applied to analyse the poets highly irregular images syntax and the different effects of their poems obscurity Through these approaches that unveil the poems evocativeness the irregularity of the poetry's Mistiness is established as its most powerful linguistic and imagistic aspect The book then places the three poets different misty characteristics into contrast Bei Dao's twisted imagery and elliptical syntax Yang's imagery in a classically inspired syntax and Duoduo's integration of images into a rhythmic syntax While the poets progressions from pre to post exile poetics suggest the potential of a non nationally specific or borderless poetics their seemingly irregular poetic Mistiness is the most powerful trait of Misty poetry for evoking its system of multifaceted significations and alternative aesthetics Translating Others (Volume 1) Theo Hermans, 2014-04-08 Both in the sheer breadth and in the detail of their coverage the essays in these two volumes challenge hegemonic thinking on the subject of translation Engaging throughout with issues of representation in a postmodern and postcolonial world Translating Others investigates the complex processes of projection recognition displacement and othering effected not only by translation practices but also by translation studies as developed in the West At the same time the volumes document the increasing awareness the the world is peopled by others who also translate often in ways radically different from and hitherto largely ignored by the modes of translating conceptualized in Western discourses The languages covered in individual contributions include Arabic Bengali Chinese Hindi Irish Italian Japanese Latin Rajasthani Somali Swahili Tamil Tibetan and Turkish as well as the Europhone literatures of Africa the tongues of medieval Europe and some major languages of Egypt s five thousand year history Neighbouring disciplines invoked include anthropology semiotics museum and folklore studies librarianship and the history of writing systems Contributors to Volume 1 Doris Bachmann Medick Cosima Bruno Ovidi Carbonell Martha Cheung G Gopinathan Eva Hung Alexandra Lianeri Carol Maier Christi Ann Merrill Paolo Rambelli Myriam Salama Carr Ubaldo Stecconi and Maria Tymoczko If Babel Had a Form Tze-Yin Teo, 2022-04-05 The likeness of form between Chinese and English sentences writes the American Sinologist Ernest Fenollosa around 1906 renders translation from one to the other exceptionally easy If Babel Had a Form asks not if his claim may be true but what its phantasmic surprise may yet do In twentieth century intersections of China and Asia with the United States translations did more than communicate meaning across politicized and racializing differences of language and nation Transpacific translation breached the regulative protocols that created those very differences of human value and cultural meaning The result Tze Yin Teo argues saw translators cleaving to the sounds and shapes of poetry to imagine a translingual likeness of form but not of meaning or kind At stake in this form without meaning is a startling new task of equivalence As a concept equivalence has been rejected for its colonizing epistemology of value naming a broken promise of translation and false premise of comparison Yet the writers studied in this book veered from those ways of knowing to theorize a poetic equivalence negating the colonial foundations of the concept they ignited aporias of meaning into flashpoints for a radical literary translation The book s transpacific readings glean those forms of equivalence from the writing of Fenollosa the vernacular experiments of Boxer Scholar Hu Shi the trilingual musings of Shanghai born Los Angeles novelist Eileen Chang the minor work of the Bay Area Korean American transmedial artist Theresa Cha and a post Tiananmen elegy by the exiled dissident Yang Lian The conclusion returns to the deconstructive genealogy of recent debates on translation and untranslatability displacing the axiom of radical alterity for a no less radical equivalence that remains pace Fenollosa far from easy or exceptional Ultimately If Babel Had a Form illuminates the demanding force of even the slightest sameness entangled in the translator s work of remaking our differences Transcultural Poetics Yifeng Sun, Dechao Li, 2023-02-09 This book examines many facets of transcultural poetics in the English translation of Chinese literature from 12 different expert contributors Translating Chinese literature into English is a special challenge There is a pressing need to overcome a slew of obstacles to the understanding and appreciation of Chinese literary works by readers in the English speaking world Hitherto only intermittent attempts have been made to theorize and explore the exact role of the translator as a cultural and aesthetic mediator informed by cross cultural knowledge awareness and sensitivity Given the complexity of literary translation sophisticated poetics of translation in terms of literary value and aesthetic taste needs to be developed and elaborated more fully from a cross cultural perspective It is therefore necessary to examine attempts to reconcile the desire for authentic transmission of Chinese culture with the need for cultural mediation and appropriation in terms of the production and reception of texts subject to the multiplicity of constraints in order to shed new light on the longstanding conundrum of Chinese English literary translation by addressing Chinese literature in the multiple contexts of nationalism cross cultural hybridity literary untranslatability the reception of translation and also world literature The book will be of great interest to students and scholars of translation studies Chinese literature and East Asian studies Chinese Whispers Nicholas Jose, 2012 This is a literary journey of an Australian writer's encounter with the culture and people of China particularly its young writers and artists and of the evolving influence of China on the writer's own work and life Nicholas Jose is the author of four novels and two collections of short stories He was Cultural Counsellor at the Australian Embassy Beijing between 1987 and 1990 and has taught Australian Studies in China Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2021-11-15 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature

Encyclopedia of Chinese History Michael Dillon, 2016-12-01 China has become accessible to the west in the last twenty years in a way that was not possible in the previous thirty The number of westerners travelling to China to study for business or for tourism has increased dramatically and there has been a corresponding increase in interest in Chinese culture society and economy and increasing coverage of contemporary China in the media Our understanding of China's history has also been evolving The study of history in the People's Republic of China during the Mao Zedong period was strictly regulated and primary sources were rarely available to westerners or even to most Chinese historians Now that the Chinese archives are open to researchers there is a growing body of academic expertise on history in China that is open to western analysis and historical methods This has in many ways changed the way that Chinese history particularly the modern period is viewed The Encyclopedia of Chinese History covers the entire span of Chinese history from the period known primarily through archaeology to the present day Treating Chinese history in the broadest sense the Encyclopedia includes coverage of the frontier regions of Manchuria Mongolia Xinjiang and Tibet that have played such an important role in the history of China Proper and will also include material on Taiwan and on the Chinese diaspora In A Z format with entries written by experts in the field of Chinese Studies the Encyclopedia will be an invaluable resource for students of Chinese history politics and culture

Fragmenting Modernisms Carolyn FitzGerald, 2013-07-07 In Fragmenting Modernisms Carolyn FitzGerald traces the evolution of Chinese modernism during the War of Resistance against Japan 1937 45 and Chinese Civil War 1945 49 through a series of close readings of works of fiction poetry film and visual art produced in various locations throughout wartime China Showing that the culture of this period was characterized by a high degree of formal looseness she argues that such aesthetic fluidity was created in response to historical conditions of violence and widespread displacement Moreover she illustrates how the innovative formal experiments of uprooted writers and artists expanded the geographic and aesthetic boundaries of Chinese modernism far beyond the coastal cities of Shanghai and Beijing

ranging collection brings together essays on a recent approach to translation known as transcreation Together with new modes of translation such as fansubbing fandubbing and crowdsourcing transcreation has challenged the traditional structure of the translation market the agency and ethics of the discipline and encouraged new research in translation studies A debate has emerged around the two concepts of translation and transcreation mostly in terms of differences between the two practices and issues such as creativity abusive translation and appropriation Mainly applied to commercial translation transcreation is now gaining momentum among translation scholars in broader areas of application going beyond the early focus of promotional and advertising products where it was initially practised In the specific context of this volume transcreation is discussed in relation to a variety of textual and visual genres that range from poetry prose theatre film and television to tourism and highly specialised legal texts

The Red Guard Generation and Political Activism in China Guobin Yang, 2016-05-17 Raised to be flowers of the nation the first generation born after the founding of the People's Republic of China was united in its political outlook and at first embraced the Cultural Revolution of 1966 but then split into warring factions Investigating the causes of this fracture Guobin Yang argues that Chinese youth engaged in an imaginary revolution from 1966 to 1968 enacting a political mythology that encouraged violence as a way to prove one's revolutionary credentials This same competitive dynamic would later turn the Red Guard against the communist government Throughout the 1970s the majority of Red Guard youth were sent to work in rural villages where they developed an appreciation for the values of ordinary life From this experience an underground cultural movement was born Rejecting idolatry these relocated revolutionaries developed a new form of resistance that signaled a new era of enlightenment culminating in the Democracy Wall movement of the late 1970s and the Tiananmen protest of 1989 Yang's final chapter on the politics of history and memory argues that contemporary memories of the Cultural Revolution are factionalized along these lines of political division formed fifty years before
