Out In Theory The Emergence Of Lesbian And Gay Anthropology:

Out in Theory Ellen Lewin, William Leap, 2002-07-29 A companion volume to Lewin and Leap's Out in the Field this study presents lesbian and gay anthropology as a distinct specialization and addresses the theoretical issues that define the emerging field. The essays detail the scholarly, personal and political factors that affected the emergence of lesbian and gay anthropology; they define the lesbian and gay anthropology's scope and subject matter and consider how feminist anthropology helped define the field and how transgendered experience, queer theory, race and class studies are promoting a new direction of inquiry. Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty-First Century Ellen Lewin, Leni M. Silverstein, 2016-07-07

Feminist anthropology emerged in the 1970s as a much needed corrective to the discipline's androcentric biases. Far from being a marginalized subfield it has been at the forefront of developments that have revolutionized not only anthropology but also a host of other disciplines. This landmark collection of essays provides a contemporary overview of feminist anthropology's historical and theoretical origins, the transformations it has undergone and the vital contributions it continues to make to cutting edge scholarship. Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty First Century brings together a variety of contributors giving a voice to both younger researchers and pioneering scholars who offer insider perspectives on the field's foundational moments. Some chapters reveal how the rise of feminist anthropology shaped and was shaped by the emergence of fields like women's studies, black and Latina studies and LGBTQ studies. Others consider how feminist anthropologists are helping to frame the direction of developing disciplines like masculinity studies, affect theory and science and technology studies. Spanning the globe from India to Canada, from Vietnam to Peru, Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty First Century reveals the important role that feminist anthropologists have played in worldwide campaigns against human rights abuses, domestic violence and environmental degradation. It also celebrates the work they have done closer to home helping to explode the developed world's preconceptions about sex, gender and sexuality.

therefore caught in a constant tension of embracing and contesting normality as they try to create a new and legitimate space for themselves Tongzhi men's attempts to practice both conformity and rebellion paradoxically undercut the goals they aspire to reach Zheng shows perpetuating social prejudice against them and thwarting the activism they believe they are advocating
