Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel John Russell, 2000 Nonfiction novels have usually been associated with the new journalism writers of the 1960s such as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer and Truman Capote Yet this form has long commanded a key position in the literary canon as John Russell now reveals Russell identifies eleven major works not usually thought of as nonfiction novels such as Isak Dinesen's Out of Africa and E E Cummings's The Enormous Room to create a new definition of the genre He shows that journalistic writing is characterized by a reporter's proprietary stance which undermines reciprocity with subjects while true nonfiction novels feature greater reciprocity and also employ such techniques as circular narrative and bricolage Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel contributes to ongoing explorations of literary forms and offers wise commentary on how writing about real life can become art

Shadows on the Grass Isak Dinesen, Karen Blixen, 1990-10-25 Isak Dinesen takes up the absorbing story of her life in Kenya begun in the unforgettable Out of Africa which she published under the name of Karen Blixen With warmth and humanity these four stories illuminate her love both for the African people their dignity and traditions and for the beauty and wildness of the landscape The first three were written in the 1950s and the last Echoes from the Hills was written especially for this volume in the summer of 1960 when the author was in her seventies In all they provide a moving final chapter to her African reminiscences

Food and Foodways in African Narratives Jonathan Highfield, 2017-04-07 Food is a defining feature in every culture Despite its very basic purpose of sustaining life it directly impacts the community culture and heritage in every region around the globe in countless seen and unseen ways including the literature and narratives of each region Across the African continent food and foodways which refer to the ways that humans consume produce and experience food were influenced by slavery and forced labor colonization foreign aid and the anxieties prompted by these encounters all of which can be traced through the ways food is seen in narratives by African and colonial storytellers The African continent is home to thousands of cultures but nearly every one has experienced alteration of its foodways because of slavery transcontinental trade and colonization Food and Foodways in African Narratives Community Culture and Heritage takes a careful look at these alterations as seen through African narratives throughout various cultures and spanning centuries Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o Charles Cantalupo,1995 In 1994 over 200 students from Universities world wide gathered in celebration of the work of Ngugi wa Thiong o The best papers and discussions are collected here Women's Art of the British Empire Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2019-11-11 The spread of the British Empire around the globe made vast changes in the relationship of peoples to places Because the logistics of colonization varied countries passed in and out of the empire some rapidly and others slower or by degrees Multiculturalism broadened the world s ability to read the English language and understand and adopt England s ethics and morals Into the early twentieth century the posting of the British army and navy and the establishment of English style embassies and police forces in remote colonies freed single travelers especially women and children of the fear of violence or kidnap As a result girls and women found outlets for creativity by exploring unfamiliar lands In Women s Art of the British Empire Mary Ellen Snodgrass provides an overview of multiracial arts and crafts from Great Britain s Empire Drawing upon primary sources this volume encompasses a wide variety of artistic accomplishment such as sewing and quilting basketry and weavings songwriting and dancing diaries memoirs editorials and speeches Each entry includes a comprehensive bibliography of primary and secondary sources as well as further readings on the female artists and their respective crafts With its informative entries and extensive examinations of artistic talent Women s Art of the British Empire is a valuable resource for students scholars and anyone interested in learning about the history of women and their artistic contributions The Creative Dialectic in Karen Blixen's Essays Marianne T. Stecher,2014-03-06 This new study addresses the provocative essays of Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen an iconic figure in Scandinavia and the Anglo American world Celebrated for her literary tales Karen Blixen s essays offer sagacious reflections on three significant challenges of the twentieth century feminism Nazism and colonialism Karen Blixen 1885 1962 contributed to topical debates in Denmark particularly during the 1950s when her distinct voice on Danish radio became familiar to a nation of listeners Some of her lectures radio addresses and newspaper chronicles were later published as essays and now constitute a distinct genre within her work In this study Blixen s most important essays are critically examined for the first time The book demonstrates that a creative dialectic informs these essays an interplay of complementary opposites that Blixen sees as fundamental to human life and artistic creativity Whether exploring questions of gender and the status of the feminist movement or the reign of National Socialism in Hitler s Germany or colonial race relations under British rule in East Africa Blixen s observations are insightful witty and surprisingly progressive for an author notable for aristocratic sensibilities Blixen s essays are also framed by a dialectic method which develops an idea by drawing on opposing viewpoints in order to arrive at an original vantage point The Creative Dialectic of Karen Blixen s Essays builds on archival research historical study literary criticism and theory as well as bilingual readings of Blixen s renowned literary work For the first time in an English translation Karen Blixen s essay Blacks and Whites in Africa 1938 by award winning translator Tiina Nunnally appears in this publication Looking Before and After Alan Jacobs,2008-04-15 In the work of such major theologians as Lesslie Newbigin and Stanley Hauerwas the Christian story is communal and the individual Christian achieves meaning only through participation in this communally recounted narrative While Alan Jacobs acknowledges the importance of the communal story he suggests that something has been neglected in the development of narrative theology the narrative dimension of individual Christian lives Looking Before and After encourages us to ask how individual lives can in a specifically Christian sense be meaningful how we can discern and rightly interpret those meanings and how we might tell our own stories in ways that avoid the dangers of presumption and despair In his typically beautiful writing style Jacobs here reinvigorates narrative theology and demonstrates the power of individual life stories well told and properly understood Encyclopedia of Motion Picture Sound Marty McGee,2015-06-08 Ever since 1927 when The Jazz Singer broke the silence of the silver screen sound has played an integral role in the development and appreciation of motion pictures This encyclopedia covers the people processes innovations facilities manufacturers formats and award winning films that have made sound such a crucial part of the motion picture experience Every film that has won a sound related Academy Award is included here with detailed critical commentary Every sound mixer or editor who has been honored by the Academy has his or her own entry and filmography and career biographies are provided for key developers including Jack Foley Ray Dolby George Lucas and more Encyclopedia of Women's Autobiography: A-J Victoria Boynton,Jo Malin,2005 Contains nearly two hundred alphabetically arranged entries that provide information on women s autobiography covering selected authors from throughout history major works nationalities or ethnicities and related issues themes and terms Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Pan-African Chronology II Everett Jenkins, Jr.,2011-02-28 This continuation volume of the Pan African Chronology set covers the most significant events in the African diaspora from the end of the American Civil War through the pre World War I years This was a time of great change for black Americans Reconstruction the founding of the NAACP the formation of the separate but equal doctrine and the migration of blacks from the rural South to Northern cities The eradication of slavery as a legalized institution was finally realized in the Americas while the struggle to end it in Asia was also taking place European colonialism in Africa was accelerated ironically coinciding with humanitarian efforts to end the slave trade on the African continent These events and many others are covered here Lucifer's Child William Luce,1992 From the skilled author of The Belle of Amherst and Barrymore Julie Harris starred on Broadway and in the national tour as Baroness Karen Blixen aka Isak Dinesen author of Out of Africa and Seven Gothic Tales Preparing for a trip to America the flamboyant author tells of how she traveled to Africa married a baron and suffered his neglect and faithlessness while contracting syphilis in the bargain In Act Two she reveal A Companion to the British and Irish Novel, 1945 - 2000 Brian W. Shaffer,2008-04-15 A Companion to the British and Irish Novel 1945 2000 serves as an extended introduction and reference guide to the British and Irish novel between the close of World War II and the turn of the millennium Covers a wide range of authors from Samuel Beckett to Salman Rushdie Provides readings of key novels including Graham Greene s Heart of the Matter Jean Rhys s Wide Sargasso Sea and Kazuo Ishiguro s The Remains of the Day Considers particular subgenres such as the feminist novel and the postcolonial novel Discusses overarching cultural political and literary trends such as screen adaptations and the literary prize phenomenon Gives readers a sense of the richness and diversity of the novel during this period and of the vitality with which it continues to be discussed
