Out Of The Darkness Teens Talk About Suicide:

Out of the Darkness Marion Crook, 2003 Based on interviews with survivors parents and professionals this is a sensitive exploration of teen suicide in particular the reasons why certain young people are driven to it and an examination of the history of teen suicide in Western and other cultures as well as what roles parents and schools can play in suicide prevention A book for both teens and adults that breaks the silence surrounding this often taboo subject and offers hope for those who think there is none

Out of the Darkness Marion Crook, 2004-01-01 Teen suicide has long been considered one of society's darkest secrets the idea of troubled young people driven to take their own lives was a tragedy too horrible to contemplate let alone talk about openly But the fact remains that teen suicide is an issue that refuses to go away so long as young people in crisis have nowhere to turn But now in this age of frank discussions about bullying peer pressure and issues of difference there is a growing sense that teen suicide is no longer a taboo subject and that talking about it can help us to identify and acknowledge the kind of problems that lead teens to make such drastic and tragic decisions Based on interviews with teen suicide survivors parents and professionals Marion Crook sensitively explores all aspects of teen suicide in particular the reasons why certain young people are driven to it The motives are far ranging but central to all is a sense of desperation Despite their dire circumstances however many found a way out of the darkness and into adult lives of meaning and worth Marion Crook also examines the history of teen suicide in Western and other cultures as well as what roles parents and schools can play in suicide prevention and coping strategies for teens in crisis Out of the Darkness is a book for both teens and adults that breaks the silence surrounding teen suicide offering hope for those who think there is none Marion Crook has spent the last fifteen years actively researching the difficulties teens face relying on the expertise of the teens themselves This is her twenty third published book She teaches at the university in Surrey B C while continuing to research and write

help for youth workers to recognize their limitations and learn the principles of effective referral This practical and informative book is essential for any untrained youth worker and will be a vital tool for any youth pastor to share with their staff

Qualitative Research Sandra G. Kouritzin, Nathalie A.C. Piquemal, Renee Norman, 2009-02-15 I commend and celebrate the editors and authors for a remarkable book that engages the reader's imagination heart mind spirit and body Out of creative and courageous commitments to challenging orthodoxies by living and writing research that is personal political and poetic these scholars invite the kind of vigorous dialogue that will continue to promote creative possibilities for inquiry in the social sciences Carl Leggo University of British Columbia From the Foreword Evocative and provocative this book presents the points of view of often junior scholars in the social sciences who used non standard methods or writing practices to challenge the research as usual paradigm in the academy while at the same time meeting the demands of quality and rigor set by their university examining committees and ethical review boards The intent is to encourage new researchers who are also considering such a path The authors discuss their lived personal experiences within and against traditional academic research and writing traditions as well as their struggles and eventual successes Chapters are written in dramatic form in dialogue in story and include poetry vignettes testimonials and autobiographical accounts Collectively they form a unique distinctive situated polyphonic case study of research in the social sciences from several perspectives challenging the orthodoxies

Care of the Suicidal Person John R. Cutcliffe, Chris Stevenson, 2007-01-01 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States This book is based on a three year qualitative study a study that was funded by the United Kingdom Department of Health that investigated how psychiatric nurses provided care for suicidal people Drawing on service user data this book contains and explains an evidence based empirically induced theory of how to care for suicidal people Far from being an esoteric theory with no clinical applicability the findings captured in this book are grounded in the reality of day to day practice Furthermore in addition to tracing the role of nurses in caring for suicidal people the authors use their findings to launch into formal level issues regarding future research education and policy as well as focusing on the ethical issues involved in care of the suicidal person The authors close by shifting the focus on suicide survivors and with the help of contributing authors As the eminent suicidology scholars who have generously provided their Forewords note this is a must read book for anyone involved in the care of the suicidal person
