Victorian Community History Award Winner Larundel Psychiatric Hospital was the madhouse on the edge of town until the 1990s a Melbourne cultural icon shrouded in mystery in the outer suburb of Bundoora What was it really like inside this madhouse This story takes us into the heart of Larundel through the voices of former inmates and staff exposing the best and worst aspects of the mental institutions of the times It shows the shifts in psychiatric treatments the social forces at play and changes driving mental health policy It explores what de institutionalisation and care in the community actually meant for those suffering mental illness as well as for those treating and caring for them What did we lose with Larundel s closure in 1999 and the move to acute psychiatric wards in general hospitals The notion of asylum Is the more recent notion of recovery a hopeful signpost towards a brave new world for mental health The authors are Sandy Jeffs a former inmate of Larundel who became an advocate for her mad comrades and is now a poet of distinction and Margaret Leggatt sociologist occupational therapist and activist for the friends and families of mentally ill people A significant and lively contribution to the history of mental health services in Australia offering vital insights for the progress we must work for Jack Heath CEO SANE Australia horrors for ten days noting down in her quick brain all that she saw and heard The old song says Nellie Bly shuts her eye When she goes to sleep but she seems never to have closed a peeper during the whole of that trying ordeal Her narrative of the horrors of the place the indifference of doctors the neglect and cruelty of the nurses and the tortures inflicted upon the unfortunates is told in a plain straightforward manner and attests at once to her humanity and truth November 1887 This volume collects for the first time ever all the reporting surrounding Nellie Bly s blockbuster undercover story that launched her to fame including all three versions from her own pen Bly s initial account across three articles for the New York World Bly s bestselling book Ten Days In A Mad House Bly s long form 1889 article Among The Mad for Godey s Lady s Book Also included are over two dozen contemporary articles relating to Bly s madhouse stay including the attempt by the New York Sun to scoop Bly on her own story With a foreword by David Blixt author of What Girls Are Good For A Novel Of Nellie Bly The Master Of Verona and Her Majesty s Will The Madhouse System Richard Paternoster,2024-08-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1841 Madhouse at the End of the Earth Julian Sancton,2021-05-04 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The exquisitely researched and deeply engrossing The New York Times true survival story of an early polar expedition that went terribly awry with the ship frozen in ice and the crew trapped inside for the entire sunless Antarctic winter The energy of the narrative never flags Sancton has produced a thriller The Wall Street Journal In August 1897 the young Belgian commandant Adrien de Gerlache set sail for a three year expedition aboard the good ship Belgica with dreams of glory His destination was the uncharted end of the earth the icy continent of Antarctica But de Gerlache s plans to be first to the magnetic South Pole would swiftly go awry After a series of costly setbacks the commandant faced two bad options turn back in defeat and spare his men the devastating Antarctic winter or recklessly chase fame by sailing deeper into the freezing waters De Gerlache sailed on and soon the Belgica was stuck fast in the icy hold of the Bellingshausen Sea When the sun set on the magnificent polar landscape one last time the ship s occupants were condemned to months of endless night In the darkness plagued by a mysterious illness and besieged by monotony they descended into madness In Madhouse at the End of the Earth Julian Sancton unfolds an epic story of adventure and horror for the ages As the Belgica s men teetered on the brink de Gerlache relied increasingly on two young officers whose friendship had blossomed in captivity the expedition s lone American Dr Frederick Cook half genius half con man whose later infamy would overshadow his brilliance on the Belgica and the ship s first mate soon to be legendary Roald Amundsen even in his youth the storybook picture of a sailor Together they would plan a last ditch nearly certain to fail escape from the ice one that would either etch their names in history or doom them to a terrible fate at the ocean s bottom Drawing on the diaries and journals of the Belgica s crew and with exclusive access to the ship s logbook Sancton brings novelistic flair to a story of human extremes one so remarkable that even today NASA studies it for research on isolation for future missions to Mars Equal parts maritime thriller and gothic horror Madhouse at the End of the Earth is an unforgettable journey into the deep The Old Madhouse William De
