The Human Tradition in Colonial Latin America Kenneth J. Andrien,2013-05-02 The Human Tradition in Colonial Latin America is an anthology of stories of largely ordinary individuals struggling to forge a life during the unstable colonial period in Latin America These mini biographies vividly show the tensions that emerged when the political social religious and economic ideals of the Spanish and Portuguese colonial regimes and the Roman Catholic Church conflicted with the realities of daily living in the Americas Now fully updated with new and revised essays the book is carefully balanced among countries and ethnicities Within an overall theme of social order and disorder in a colonial setting the stories bring to life issues of gender race and ethnicity conflicts over religious orthodoxy and crime violence and rebellion Written by leading scholars the essays are specifically designed to be readable and interesting Ideal for the Latin American history survey and for courses on colonial Latin American history this fresh and human text will engage as well as inform students Contributions by Rolena Adorno Kenneth J Andrien Christiana Borchart de Moreno Joan Bristol Noble David Cook Marcela Echeverri Lyman L Johnson Mary Karasch Alida C Metcalf Kenneth Mills Muriel S Nazzari Ana Mar a Presta Susan E Ram rez Matthew Restall Zeb Tortorici Camilla Townsend Ann Twinam and Nancy E van Deusen The Sea-Craft of Prehistory Paul Johnstone,2013-11-12 The nautical dimension of prehistory has not so far received the attention it deserves It is also too often assumed that early man was land bound yet this is demonstrably not the case Recent research has shown that man travelled and tracked over greater distances and at a much earlier date than has previously been thought possible Some of these facts can be explained only by man s mastery of water transport from earliest times This book by an acknowledged expert on prehistoric sea craft examines these problems looking at the new archaeological information in the light of the author s nautical knowledge The result is a detailed account of man s use of inland and ocean going craft from earliest times until the dawn of recorded history All forms of evidence are critically assessed from the vessels of Ancient Egypt to the Chinese junk to present of comprehensive picture of the vessels men have built through the ages and of the variety of ways in which they have been used

Philosophical Hermeneutics Reinterpreted Paul Fairfield,2011-08-11 Examines hermeneutics in relation to existentialism pragmatism critical theory and postructuralism Academics, Pompiers, Official Artists and the Arrière-garde Natalie Adamson,Toby Norris,2020-06-12 Academics Pompiers Official Artists and the Arri re garde Defining Modern and Traditional in France 1900 1960 is a collection of eight essays and a scholarly introduction by established and emerging scholars that challenges the continuing modernist slant of twentieth century art history The intention is not to perpetuate the vulgar opposition between avant garde and reactionary art that characterized early twentieth century discourse and has marked much subsequent historical writing but rather to investigate the complex relationship that both innovative and conservative artists had to the concept of tradition How did artists and art critics conceive of tradition in relation to modernity What was the role of an artist s institutional positioning in determining expectations for his or her art What light is thrown on the structure of the French art world by considering artists from abroad who worked in Paris How did the war alter modernist and avant garde paradigms and force crucial changes upon art production in the postwar period to 1960 Particular attention is paid to the terms academic pompier official and arri re garde originally used to situate the more conservative artists and works as second rate or as the negative foil to the assumed radicalism of the avant garde By re evaluating the work of artists pushed to the historical margins by such polemical descriptors and by proposing alternative understandings of the aesthetic economic institutional and political factors that drive our ideas of avant gardism and the modernist narrative in France this collection of essays offers new routes to explore the terrain of twentieth century art in France
