Out To Launch:

D-Day: The Decision to Launch Antony Beevor, 2013-05-21 The little known drama of the last minute decision to launch the invasion of Normandy excerpted from the internationally bestselling D Day The Battle for Normandy In D Day The Decision to Launch excerpted from Antony Beevor's bestselling book D Day The Battle for Normandy readers get the little known story of how the difficult decision was made to launch the Allied invasion of France on June 6 1944 The stakes could not have been higher if Operation Overlord were to fail it would be a crushing blow to the Allies a huge loss of both men and equipment The decision of when to launch rested with supreme commander General Dwight D Eisenhower but it hinged on one factor the weather If there was too much cloud cover the Allied bombers wouldn't be able to provide air support and if the seas were too rough the landing craft would be swamped It fell to one man to predict the weather Dr James Stagg the head of the meteorological team at Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force This riveting selection from D Day praised by Time as a vibrant work of history that honors the sacrifice of tens of thousands of men and women tells the fascinating inside story of one of the most important decisions of World War II
