Outback Coronets:

Coronet, 1958 Love in the Outback Deb Hunt, 2014-05-01 The true story of an unlikely romance in the Australian outback At forty nine Deb Hunt stopped dating men It was just too painful The men she loved didn't love her back When she found herself stalking her last boyfriend who'd become engaged to another woman Deb knew it was time to make changes From her home in the UK she applied for a job in Australia a PR assistant with the Royal Flying Doctor Service She packed up her London home said goodbye to everything that was familiar and headed down under There she encountered a land she never imagined and met a man unlike any other a Royal Flying Doctor Service legend He was a deeply practical reasonable steady conservative person in other words the polar opposite of Deb He wanted a relationship She wanted to flee This is the story of what happens when you finally ditch your life long dreams of romance only to discover that reality is not such a bad place after all

Romancing the Outback Irene Drummond, 2014-12-12 Romancing the Outback is a sequel to War at Our Door A continuation of War at our Door thirty two years on Romancing the Outback includes some of the same main characters along with their offspring and the politics and happenings around that time It covers troubled romances and a double wedding A runaway Tommy ends up on the streets of Brisbane battling for survival A returned soldier and an army nurse finally find peace thirty two years after WW2 ends A plane crash kills a neighbor's twin sons There are near fatalities when dealing with ruthless cattle rustlers Accidents happen a heart attack is dealt with and a horse sale along with a Charleville Picnic Race Meeting isn't without its dramas A Land Army Girl reunion brings back to the fold two from Tuscany And all this amid cattle being mustered branded ear marked cut injected against brucellosis and parasites sheep mustering and sheering and many other chores and happenings that go hand in hand with living on a sheep and cattle station in the outer regions of Queensland's vast outback Film Score Monthly, 1997

The Ghost Camp; or, the Avengers Rolf Boldrewood, 2019-12-18 In The Ghost Camp or the Avengers Rolf Boldrewood weaves a narrative rich in the themes of revenge justice and the supernatural set against the backdrop of the Australian outback Through his deft use of descriptive prose and dialogue Boldrewood captures the rugged landscape and the complexities of human emotion employing a style that is both vivid and reflective of the colonial Australian experience The novel immerses the reader in the psychological landscapes of its characters blending elements of adventure and horror to explore societal issues of the time including lawlessness and frontier justice Rolf Boldrewood the pen name of Thomas Alexander Browne was deeply influenced by his experiences in Australia as a pastoralist and writer during the 19th century His understanding of the harsh realities of life in the Australian bush and the intrigues of early settler society inform the rich characterization and moral dilemmas that populate The Ghost Camp Boldrewood's background offered him a unique lens through which to view the human propensity for vengeance and the haunting presence of the landscape itself I highly recommend The Ghost Camp or the Avengers to readers interested in Australian literature and those who appreciate intricate narratives that weave the supernatural into the
