Outback In Focus:

Outback in Focus Jeff Carter, 1968 Outback and Out West Tom Lynch, 2022-11 Outback and Out West examines the ecological consequences of a settler colonial imaginary by comparing expressions of settler colonialism in the literature of the American West and Australian Outback Tom Lynch traces exogenous domination in both regions which resulted in many similar means of settlement including pastoralism homestead acts afforestation efforts and bioregional efforts at belonging Lynch pairs the two nations texts to show how an analysis at the intersection of ecocriticism and settler colonialism requires a new canon that is responsive to the social cultural and ecological difficulties created by settlement in the West and Outback Outback and Out West draws out the regional Anthropocene dimensions of settler colonialism considering such pressing environmental problems as habitat loss groundwater depletion and mass extinctions Lynch studies the implications of our settlement heritage on history art and the environment through the cross national comparison of spaces He asserts that bringing an ecocritical awareness to settler colonial theory is essential for reconciliation with dispossessed Indigenous populations as well as reparations for ecological damages as we work to decolonize engagement with and literature about these places The Business Year: Abu Dhabi 2020 Peter Howson, 2020-04-20 As Ecuador and the world at large grapple with the emerging challenge of the COVID 19 pandemic it is important not to forget the fundamentals of the Ecuadorian economy and the success stories of 2019 and the start of 2020 We believe contained within these pages is an accurate balanced account of the state of the Ecuadorian economy as of publication told through the words of the dozens of top public and private sector figures The Business Year s country specific publications sometimes featuring over 150 face to face interviews are among the most comprehensive annual economic publications available internationally This 212 page publication covers green economy finance hydrocarbons mining agriculture construction industry transport education health ICT and tourism Private Equity Paul Gompers, Victoria Ivashina, Richard Ruback, 2019-03-15 Private Equity is an advanced applied corporate finance book with a mixture of chapters devoted to exploring a range of topics from a private equity investor s perspective The goal is to understand why and which practices are likely to deliver sustained profitability in the future The book is a collection of cases based on actual investment decisions at different stages for process tackled by experienced industry professionals The majority of the chapters deal with growth equity and buyout investments However a range of size targets and investments in different geographical markets are covered as well These markets include several developed economies and emerging markets like China Russia Turkey Egypt and Argentina This compilation of cases is rich in institutional details information about different markets and segments of the industry as well as different players and their investment practices it is a unique insight into the key alternative asset class Pragmatics and the English Language Jonathan Culpeper, Michael Haugh, 2014-08-15 How do we interpret language and expose its meanings How does pragmatics describe the English language Where can we go to acquire a deeper understanding of pragmatics Pragmatics and the English

Language is a bold new textbook that presents an innovative and exciting way of looking at the subject This new perspective called integrative pragmatics steers a course between what have historically been considered irreconcilable perspectives With an emphasis on empirical data the book is filled with examples from cartoons films and historical sources as well as face to face and digitally mediated interactions all of which are used to help the reader develop a better understanding of the theory Pragmatics and the English Language Focuses on both the pragmatic aspects of English and how pragmatics is shaped by English Synthesizes traditional ideas with state of the art pragmatics research Goes far beyond the coverage found in other pragmatics textbooks Shedding light on the English language in highly original ways Pragmatics and the English Language is essential reading for advanced students of the English language and linguistics along with anybody else who wishes to develop a more in depth knowledge of pragmatics The Australian Library Journal ,1969 Translating

National Allegories Alistair Rolls,John West-Sooby,Marie-Laure Vuaille-Barcan,2019-04-15 This book explores the intersection of a number of academic areas of study that are all individually of growing importance translation studies crime fiction and world literature The scholars included here are leaders in one or more of these areas The frame of this volume is imagological its focus is on the ways in which national allegories are constructed and deconstructed encompassing descriptions of national characteristics as they play out at the level of the local or the individual as well as broader political analyses Its corpus crime fiction is shown to be a privileged site for writing the national narrative and often in ways that are more complex and dynamic than is suggested by the genre s much cited role as vehicle for a new realism Finally these two areas are problematised through the lens of translation which is a crucial player in both the development of crime fiction and the formation rather than simply the interlingual transfer of national allegory In this volume national allegories and the crime novels in which they emerge are shown to be eminently versatile foundationally plural texts that promote critical rewriting as opposed to sites for fixing meaning This book was originally published as a special issue of The Translator Hospitality

An Archaeology of Australia Since 1788 Susan Lawrence, Peter Davies, 2010-10-21

This volume provides an important new synthesis of archaeological work carried out in Australia on the post contact period It draws on dozens of case studies from a wide geographical and temporal span to explore the daily life of Australians in settings such as convict stations goldfields whalers camps farms pastoral estates and urban neighbourhoods The different conditions experienced by various groups of people are described in detail including rich and poor convicts and their superiors Aboriginal people women children and migrant groups The social themes of gender class ethnicity status and identity inform every chapter demonstrating that these are vital parts of human experience and cannot be separated from archaeologies of industry urbanization and culture contact The book engages with a wide range of contemporary discussions and debates within Australian history and the international discipline of historical archaeology The colonization of Australia was part of the international expansion of European hegemony in the eighteenth and nineteenth century The material discussed here is thus fundamentally part of the global processes of colonization and the creation of settler societies the industrial revolution the development of mass consumer culture and the emergence of national identities Drawing out these themes and integrating them with the analysis of archaeological materials highlights the vital relevance of archaeology in modern society
