

2023 Federal, State and Regional Grant Making Facts Public-Sector Grant

Public Support for the Arts

The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA), state and jurisdictional arts agencies (SAAs) and regional arts organizations (RAOs) all award grants to organizations that advance the arts across the nation. Federal, state and regional grants play complementary roles in arts support. The NEA is the largest national arts funder and makes federal investments that serve as catalysts for public and private support. SAAs and RAOs reach organizations and communities, often with smaller grants for grassroots projects. Organizations receiving both federal and state awards use those dollars for discrete projects.

About This Fact Sheet

This fact sheet explores grantees receiving funds from both the NEA and SAAs and/or RAOs for fiscal years 2016-2020 (NEA FY2015-2019). Over this five-year period, a total of 3,204 grantees benefited from funding from both NEA and SAAs/RAOs. 11% of SAA/RAO grantees also received grants from the NEA.

Outcome Funding A New Approach To Public Sector Grant Making:

Outcome funding Harold S. Williams, Arthur Y. Webb, 1991 At all of its levels a primary function of government is to give out money Government funds many groups to carry out public purposes This book presents a new approach which shifts funding to investment It replaces the traditional Request for proposal process with a sharp focus on key investor questions What are we buying What is the probability we will get it OUTCOME FUNDING asks grant seekers to define their customers their product their performance target The long proposal becomes a short plan as government as well as foundations other donors seek to make their money work as hard as do their people A key gain to grant seekers they no longer have to write one document to get money another to spend it The framework presented has been tested in a number of state local governments throughout the U S Authors are President of The Rensselaerville Institute Director of New York State Division of Substance Abuse Services

Outcome Funding Harold S. Williams, Arthur Y. Webb, 1992 Total Quality Management in Human Service Organizations Lawrence L. Martin, 1993-09-10 Now that business government and other fields are embracing Total Quality Management TQM as their management philosophy TQM may also hold the solution for problems that exist in human services organizations today After a brief history of TQM the author discusses the philosophy of management quality as an organizational goal the challenges of determining an organization's customers and collecting and using customer quality data He also describes how to achieve quality improvement through teamwork and shows how to use brainstorming cause and effect diagrams check sheets and pareto analysis Among the other topics examined are contractor involvement training top management personnel training middle managers and staff and selecting an implementation strategy All the examples used in this volume are drawn from the fields of public administration gerontology public health and management of nonprofit organizations Total Quality Management in Human Service Organizations is a good backgrounder for human service administrators and organizations prior to undergoing a more detailed agency discussion of or training in TQM It is also of great value to students and faculty in social work administration programs who are interested in the basics of TQM

Grants Jean M. Fromm, 2007 Grants are available from thousands of sources both private and public To the grantseeker however this wealth of sources appears like an impenetrable jungle Where are the grants I need and what do I need to do to submit my ideas and proposals This book is designed to answer these questions by aiming the grantseeker to both the grant givers and by providing a bibliography of book for further research

Planning Sustainable Transport Barry Hutton, 2013-06-19 Transport choices must be transformed if we are to cope with sustainability and climate change but this can only be done if we understand how complex transport systems work Straightforward choices are never made between one transport mode and another door to door movements of both people and freight use combinations of different modes of transport This book offers a cross disciplinary overview of transport systems and the ways in which they interact with urban and regional planning decisions and environmental issues It offers a thoughtful critique of existing methodology and policy raising issues providing facts explaining linkages and particularly stimulating debate The book methodically explores the definitions trends problems objectives and policies of transport planning In particular the author looks at land use as a major determinant of the nature and extent of the demand for transport concluding that the management of land use has to be a key element of any sustainable transport policy Planning Sustainable Transport will be essential reading for today's transport specialists planners and property developers It will also be useful to postgraduate students in planning and related disciplines

Managing and Measuring Social Enterprises Rob Paton,2003-02-18 Managing and Measuring Social Enterprises explores how the performance agenda has impacted on public policy and management Rob Paton examines what has happened when performance improvement techniques originating in the private sector are applied to public and nonprofit organizations

Remaking Social Work with Children and Families Paul Michael Garrett,2004-06-01 Remaking Social Work with Children and Families provides a sustained examination of the modernisation of this area of social care It analyses some of the key themes introduced by the administrations of John Major and Tony Blair and provides a critical exploration of contemporary policy initiatives and issues These include the Looking After Children LAC materials The Framework for the Assessment of Children in Need and Their Families working together to protect children the mainstream approach to race and ethnicity in social work the implications for social work of the emergence of personal advisers mentors and related professionals The author argues that political and ideological factors need to be taken into account in order to understand the dominant discourses and evolving practices of social work with children Potential fixation with ensuring that young people are able to fit into their allotted roles in a market economy and an overarching concern about children and criminality have been crucial in this respect He concludes that while social workers and educators should be prepared to embrace change they need to be critical agents in the process of change recognising the ever present need to promote and foster democracy within the sphere of social welfare This timely book will be helpful to all students educators and social care professionals who are seeking to develop their theoretical and practical understanding of a changing profession
