Creative Industries and Urban Development Terry Flew,2013-10-31 The concept of creative industries has developed considerable academic and policy momentum in the 21st century There has been a connection identified between the rise of creative industries and the urbanisation of the world s population particularly in relation to the significance of cities as sites of cultural production and consumption Much of the work on creative industries and cities however has drawn upon imagined geographies about the relationship between creativity and place This collection draws together contributions that critically appraise recent urban cultural policy discourses as well as reflecting on the role of culture and creative industries in the future development of cities This book is based on a special issue of The Information Society An International Journal

Creativity in Peripheral Places Chris Gibson,2014-06-11 Creativity is said to be the fuel of the contemporary economy Dynamic industries such as film music television and design have changed the fortunes of entire cities from Nashville to Los Angeles Barcelona to Brisbane and beyond Yet creativity remains mercurial it is at the heart of industrial innovation and can attract investment but it is also an intangible personal quality and experience What exactly constitutes creativity Drawing on examples as diverse as postcard design classical music landscape art tattooing Aboriginal hip hop and rock sculpture this book seeks to explore and redefine creativity as both economic and cultural phenomenon Creativity also has a peculiar geography Beyond Hollywood creativity is evident in suburban rural and remote places a quotidian vernacular eclectic enterprise In seeking to redefine the creative industries this book brings together geographers historians sociologists cultural studies scholars and media communications experts to explore creativity in diverse places outside major cities These are places that are physically and or metaphorically remote are small in population terms or which because of old industrial legacies are assumed by others to be unsophisticated or marginal in an imaginary geography of creativity This book reveals the richness and depth the challenges and surprises of being creative beyond city limits This book was originally published as a special issue of Australian Geographer

Theology and the Religions Viggo Mortensen,2003 The academic study of religion is undergoing great changes in response to globalization Just as sociologists now find it necessary to think in terms of multiculturalism so religion scholars and theologians today must work in the context of multireligiosity Globalization is leading not only to multiethnic societies but also to plurality in religions and worldviews Theology and the Religions A Dialogue offers the first sustained analysis of the trend toward multireligiosity and its implications for the study of religion Drawing on the resources of cultural analysis religious studies and theology an international slate of scholars explores the relation of multiculturalism and multireligiosity the need for interreligious dialogue and the possibilities for a theology of religions This groundbreaking work is supported by case studies of various religious traditions in diverse cultures from around the world Special attention is paid to Christian theological reflection however since as a global religion Christianity is particularly challenged by multireligiosity Offering an engaging wide angle view of religion worldwide Theology and the Religions makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the forces shaping the future of religious and social life Contributors Kajsa Ahlstrand Theodor Ahrens Jan Martin Berentsen Ulrich Dehn Helene Egnell Marianne C Qvortrup Fibiger Patrik Friedlund Virginia Garrard Burnett Geomon K George Elisabeth Gerle Friedrich Wilhelm Graf Hans Hauge Ulf Hedetoft S Mark Heim Chris Hewer Klaus Hock Michael Ipgrave Andrew J Kirk Lene K hle Volker K ster Aasulv Lande Oddbjorn Leirvik Ole Skjerk k Madsen Hiromasa Mase Mogens S Mogensen Viggo Mortensen Johannes Nissen Klaus N rnberger Caleb Oladipo Tinu Ruparell Risto Saarinen Lamin Sanneh Olaf Schumann Notto R Thelle Joachim Track V tor Westhelle H S Wilson Outer Thinking from the Inner City ,2002
