31 Murders Alvin A.J. Esau, 2024-02-20 Many decades before Ted Bundy roamed the country there was serial killer Earle Nelson During the 1920s this geographically mobile killer went from city to city His modus operandi involved getting into a house by pretending to be a person looking for a room to rent or inspecting a house that was for sale and then strangling the landlady often followed by having sex with the dead body Robbery was frequently a secondary motive After Nelson was captured in Canada in 1927 it was commonly reported that he had killed 21 women and a baby during the 1926-27 period But were these the only cases linked to him The author examines an additional nine unsolved murders of landladies two of which have never been dealt with in previous literature Based on decades of archival research the author examines all 31 murders relying on primary sources when available and a wide variety of secondary sources For each murder the book provides biographical sketches of the victim outlines the police investigation and the various suspects and covers any subsequent attempts to link Nelson to the crime by identification evidence of witnesses or by fingerprints approached Irvine for a job Irvine hesitated as he could not recall a deputy as young as Frank in the territory or any of the surrounding territories But then again there had never been brothers quite like the Conley boys Frank was well over six foot at the time had broad shoulders a trim waist powerful build a mature manner and appearance All three of the brothers especially Jim were known as expert marksmen with the pistol rifle and shotgun Jim assured Irvine he would vouch for Frank and be there if needed to look out for him Irvine trusted Jim s judgement If Frank is half the man you and Jack are Jim I believe he would make an excellent lawman Besides there is only one way to find out Sheriff Irvine was not disappointed nor were the other lawmen and communities the Conley boys served over the next forty years Jack and Jim both became effective and respected Sheriff s stock detectives and U S Deputy Marshals Young Frank became one of the longest serving Prison Wardens and city mayors in the United States This is a story based upon real events characters and the lives of three remarkable brothers and lawmen Jack Jim and Frank The Conley boys of Montana CM ,1988 The Death of Albert Johnson F.
