Jung on Art Tjeu van den Berk, 2012-12-07 In this book Tjeu van den Berk examines C G Jung's personal perspective on art and how his work intensely engages with this theme It analyses Jung's profound reflections on artistic considerations such as how we experience art the specific qualities in the perception of beauty the nature of the creative process and the aesthetic attitude Jung on Art considers Jung's feelings about art simply being art rather than reducing it to a moral political religious or psychological product It also discusses Jung's notion that the artist is only a breeding ground for a piece of art and once complete the piece has an independent existence Topics covered include symbolism the difference between art and aesthetics Jung's ideas about himself as an artist the psychology of art Jung's perspective on modern art and surrealism This book will be of great interest to all Jungian scholars as well as those interested in the meeting of Jung and art

Jungian Psychology in Perspective Mary Ann Mattoon, 1985

Psychologism and Psychoaesthetics John Fizer, 1981-01-01 Unlike studies which confine psychologism to the second half of the nineteenth century and to an explicit claim of psychology as a Grundwissenschaft during that period this work attempts to trace psychologism's emergence in Greek antiquity in hedonistic tendencies of the Renaissance and in British Empiricism Thus psychologism figures as a generic concept embracing a variety of both positivistic and idealistic arguments concerning the localization of normative sciences particularly aesthetics and literary theory in psychological space This study also considers the implicit psychologism of even those psychoaesthetic theories which claimed to be against the exclusive status of psychology In their actual treatment of aesthetic and literary facts such theories inadvertently did indeed resort to psychologistic arguments The position from which I have chosen to look at psychologically committed aesthetics and literary theory is essentially phenomenological The author seeks to present psychologism as a central tendency of psychoaesthetics as well as to assert critically psychologism's basic assumptions contradictory characters of being both autonomous and yet expressive of life outside art is seen in its most acute form Part IV is a philosophical analysis of the main concepts so far involved meaning symbolism knowledge truth standards in art as distinct from other discursive knowledge It concludes with a discussion of the question whether art is in any sense a revelation Part V considers the bearing of the arguments of the book on aesthetic education Symmetry Marc J.
