Copyright Office,1920 Chinese Art Roger Fry,Laurence Binyon,Albert Frank Kendrick,Bernard Rackham,Walter Perceval Yetts,Osvold Sirén,W. W. Winkworth,1925 Our object in producing this book is to supply information about Chinese art that is at once authoritative and introductory To many it may seem curious that no previous volume of the kind exists but to those who know the extreme difficulty of a detailed study of even one part of Chinese art with its enormous periods and its close relationship to Eastern ideas it may rather seem curious that anyone should attempt such a summary We should not have given way to the desire to make such a book had we not known how valuable it would be if properly produced and had we not felt that we had hit upon the right plan Preface Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm),1920 Our Library Library Association (Portland, Or.),Library Association of Portland,1920 A Perpetual Fire Lara Jaishree Netting,2013-09-01 After serving as a missionary and then foreign advisor to Qing officials from 1887 to 1911 John Ferguson became a leading dealer of Chinese art providing the Metropolitan Museum of Art the Cleveland Museum of Art and other museums with their inaugural collections of paintings and bronzes In multiple publications dating to the 1920s and 1930s Ferguson made the controversial claim that China s autochthonous culture was the basis of Chinese art His two Chinese language reference works still in use today were produced with essential help from Chinese scholars Emulating these men of culture with whom he lived and worked in Peking Ferguson gathered paintings bronzes rubbings and other artifacts In 1934 he donated this group of over one thousand objects to Nanjing University the school he had helped to found as a young missionary This work offers a significant contribution to the history of Chinese art collection John Ferguson learned from and worked with Qing dynasty collectors and scholars and then Republican era dealers and archeologists while simultaneously supplying the objects he had come to know as Chinese art to American museums and individuals He is an ideal subject to help us see the interconnections between increased Western interest in Chinese art and archeology in the modern era and cultural change taking place in China Library Record Free Public Library of Jersey City,1920 Brooklyn Public Library News Bulletin Brooklyn Public Library,1918 A Study of Chinese Alchemy Obed Simon Johnson,2009-04 Reprint Paperback 156p In China as elsewhere alchemy is a doctrine aiming to afford an understanding of the principles underlying the formation and functioning of the cosmos The alchemist overcomes the limits of individuality and ascends to higher states of being he becomes in
