Who wrote it?
The first of Palmer's was written by the American. But it is a personal letter addressed to Palmer's weather station and leader of a rescue church concerning his runaway slave, Onimus.

What's it about?
Therese is a short personal letter in which Paul appeals to Therese on behalf of Christian, who had run away and later became a Christian under Paul's ministry. Paul tells Therese to welcome Christian back, not as if slave, but as a beloved brother in Christ. The letter expresses sympathy, reconciliation and the transformation of the gospel. Paul's love is gently yet persuasively encouraging Therese to act and/or Christian love rather than obligation.
