Katz,David C. Ward,2010-11-02 An entirely new interpretation of modern American portraiture based on the history of sexual difference Hide Seek Difference and Desire in American Portraiture companion volume to an exhibition of the same name at the National Portrait Gallery Smithsonian Institution traces the defining presence of same sex desire in American portraiture through a seductive selection of more than 140 full color illustrations drawings and portraits from leading American artists Arcing from the turn of the twentieth century through the emergence of the modern gay liberation movement in 1969 the tragedies of the AIDS epidemic and to the present Hide Seek openly considers what has long been suppressed or tacitly ignored even by the most progressive sectors of our society the influence of gay and lesbian artists in creating American modernism Hide Seek shows how questions of gender and sexual identity dramatically shaped the artistic practices of influential American artists such as Thomas Eakins Romaine Brooks Marsden Hartley Georgia O Keeffe Charles Demuth Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg Andrew Wyeth Andy Warhol Robert Mapplethorpe and many more in addition to artists of more recent works such as Felix Gonzalez Torres Glenn Ligon Catherine Opie and Cass Bird The authors argue that despite the late nineteenth century definition and legal codification of the homosexual in reality questions of sexuality always remained fluid and continually redefined by artists concerned with the act of portrayal In particular gay and lesbian artists of but not fully in the society they portrayed occupied a position of influential marginality from which vantage point they crafted innovative and revolutionary ways of painting portraits Their resistance to society's attempt to proscribe them forced them to develop new visual vocabularies by which to code disguise and thereby express their subjects identities and also their own Bringing together for the first time new scholarship in the history of American sexuality and new research in American portraiture Hide Seek charts the heretofore hidden impact of gay and lesbian artists on American art and portraiture and creates the basis for the necessary reassessment of the careers of major American artists both gay and straight as well as of portraiture itself

Women Together/Women Apart Tirza True Latimer, 2005-08-24 What does it mean to look like a lesbian Though it remains impossible to conjure a definitive image that captures the breadth of this highly nuanced term today at least we are able to consider an array of visual representations that have been put into circulation by lesbians themselves over the last six or seven decades In the early twentieth century though no notion of lesbianism as a coherent social or cultural identity yet existed In Women Together Women Apart Tirza True Latimer explores the revolutionary period between World War I and World War II when lesbian artists working in Paris began to shape the first visual models that gave lesbians a collective sense of identity and allowed them to recognize each other Flocking to Paris from around the world artists and performers such as Romaine Brooks Claude Cahun Marcel Moore and Suzy Solidor used portraiture to theorize and visualize a new breed of feminine subject The book focuses on problems of feminine and lesbian self representation at a time and place where the rights of women to political professional economic domestic and sexual autonomy had yet to be acknowledged by the law Under such circumstances same sex solidarity and relative independence from men held important political implications Combining gender theory with visual cultural and historical analysis Latimer draws a vivid picture of the impact of sexual politics on the cultural life of Paris during this key period The book also illuminates the far reaching consequences of lesbian portraiture on contemporary constructions of lesbian identity

Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy "Orientalism, Eroticism and Modern

Visuality in Global Cultures " Julie Codell, 2017-07-05 In Orientalism Eroticism and Modern Visuality in Global Cultures scholars look afresh at representations of nineteenth century oriental bodies inquiring deeply into their erotic dimensions tracing their global dissemination at cross cultural intersections of the visual and the political Authors consider the impact of eroticized orientalist representations registered on racial and gendered bodies at historical moments across the globe in the media of photography painting prints and sculpture by contextualizing the visual within social practices ethnography literature travel writing and the dynamics of imperialism Authors examine orientalism s politico erotic import across not only imperial Britain and France but also throughout India and the Middle East initiating cross cultural analyses of orientalism outside of Europe Works studied include Orientalist and homoerotic works by canonic artists such as Ingres G me Delacroix and Girodet and lesser known artists such as sculptor Raffaele Monti and painter Elisabeth Jerichau Baumann Contributors explore Turkish and European writings explorer Richard Burton s self fashioning and popular Orientalist photography in India and the Middle East Authors draw on methods from gender studies semiotics material culture and psychoanalysis to explore art national identity homoerotic subcultures female agency class sexuality and colonialism The book is directed to interdisciplinary scholars and students in art history literature history and postcolonial studies Dance, Desire, and Anxiety in Early Twentieth-Century French Theater Charles R. Batson, 2017-03-02 The 1909 arrival of Serge de Diaghilev s Ballets Russes in Paris marked the beginning of some two decades of collaboration among litt rateurs painters musicians and choreographers many not native to France Charles Batson s original and nuanced exploration of several of these collaborations integral to the formation of modernism and avant gardist aesthetics reinscribes performances of the celebrated Russians and the lesser known but equally innovative Ballets Su dois into their varied artistic traditions as well as the French historical context teasing out connections and implications that are usually overlooked in less decidedly interdisciplinary studies Batson not only uncovers the multiple meanings set in motion through the interplay of dancers musicians librettists and spectators but also reinterprets literary texts that inform these meanings such as Val ry s L Ame et la danse Identifying the performing body as a site where anxieties drives and desires of the French public were worked out he shows how the messages carried by and ascribed to bodies in performance significantly influenced thought and informed the direction of much artistic expression in the twentieth century His book will be a valuable resource for scholars working in the fields of literature dance music and film as well as French cultural studies Feeling Photography Elspeth H.
