Outport Reflections From The Newfoundland Coast:

Outport Candace Cochran, 1981 The Shipping News Annie Proulx, 2008-01-01 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize Annie Proulx's The Shipping News is a vigorous darkly comic and at times magical portrait of the contemporary North American family Quoyles a third rate newspaper hack with a head shaped like a crenshaw no neck reddish hair features as bunched as kissed fingertips is wrenched violently out of his workaday life when his two timing wife meets her just desserts An aunt convinces Quoyles and his two emotionally disturbed daughters to return with her to the starkly beautiful coastal landscape of their ancestral home in Newfoundland Here on desolate Quoyles Point in a house empty except for a few mementos of the family's unsavory past the battered members of three generations try to cobble up new lives Newfoundland is a country of coast and cove where the mercury rarely rises above seventy degrees the local culinary delicacy is cod cheeks and it's easier to travel by boat and snowmobile than on anything with wheels In this harsh place of cruel storms a collapsing fishery and chronic unemployment the aunt sets up as a yacht upholsterer in nearby Killick Claw and Quoyles finds a job reporting the shipping news for the local weekly the Gammy Bird a paper that specializes in sexual abuse stories and grisly photos of car accidents As the long winter closes its jaws of ice each of the Quoyles confronts private demons reels from catastrophe to minor triumph in the company of the obsequious Mavis Bangs Diddy Shovel the strongman drowned Herald Prowse cane twirling Beety Nutbeem who steals foreign news from the radio a demented cousin the aunt refuses to recognize the much zippered Alvin Yark silent Wavey and old Billy Pretty with his bag of secrets By the time of the spring storms Quoyles has learned how to gut cod to escape from a pickle jar and to tie a true lover's knot Servants of the Fish Myron Arms, 2004 As the last of the northern cod disappeared from the fishing banks of eastern North America during the waning years of the 20th century more than just fish faced the threat of extinction In communities all around the island of Newfoundland thousands of fishermen and their families suddenly found themselves confronted by a similar threat Servants of the Fish is the story of these people who are at once the perpetrators and the victims of this event As he did in his bestselling Riddle of the Ice Arms employs the drama of the voyage to bring readers face to face with the people and the geography of the tale he tells It is the tale of a particular time and place Yet it is also an allegory of sorts about predators and prey about greed and denial and about our collective ability as human beings to destroy natural systems once thought to be infinite Creating This Place Linda Cullum, Marilyn Porter, 2014-04-01 The twentieth century witnessed both the formation of Newfoundland as a self conscious national entity and the construction of distinct and self aware middle and upper classes in its capital city This interdisciplinary collection examines the key roles played by women in the creation of this state and society and the essential influence that gender ethnicity and religion played in class relations Shifting class relations were formed in the salient political events of the first half of the twentieth century in Newfoundland the First World War the suffrage movement the Great Depression the Second World War and finally Newfoundland's contested entry into the Canadian Confederation

Creating This Place shows how upper middle and working class worlds were established in the everyday work of women as well as the ways in which the complex social boundaries of the period were constructed Individual chapters explore issues such as women s work in religious and voluntary institutions their struggle for voice suffrage and political change work of domestic servants and the construction of proper women and mothers through denominational education Creating This Place adopts an innovative perspective on Newfoundland and Labrador that focuses on the often overlooked lives of urban women Contributors include Sonja Boon Memorial University Linda Cullum Memorial University Margot Duley University of Illinois at Springfield Vicki Hallett Memorial University Jonathan Luedee doctoral candidate University of British Columbia Bonnie Morgan doctoral candidate University of New Brunswick Marilyn Porter emerita Memorial University Karen Stanbridge Memorial University Helen Woodrow Educational Planning and Design Associates and Harrish Press Publications
