Outrageous Pursuit Of Hope Prophetic Dreams For The Twenty First Century:

The Outrageous Pursuit of Hope Mary C. Grey, 2000 According to Mary Grey times of change like our own call for a new and subversive language for the sacred

From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation The work unfolds in two parts In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God's response to them In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy memory forgiveness and hope

Public Theology for the 21st Century Duncan B. Forrester, William Storrar, Andrew Morton, 2004-01-01 The book is a unique stocktaking by a leading international group of theologians social scientists and other scholars on issues facing public theology at the beginning of the 21st century It combines retrospect and prospect in that it reflects on the issues and approaches that have characterized public theology in the 20th century especially its latter half and attempts to anticipate those which will or should come to the fore in the 21st century seeking to discern continuities and changes Three opening chapters deal with the overall theme of public or political theology with Jurgen Moltmann giving a critical historical account from the Second World War onwards Raymond Plant relating such theology to cultural pluralism and Andrew Morton illustrating it from the work of Duncan Forrester These are followed by pairs of contributions relating public theology to more specific topics: History Technology and Creation Globalization Spirituality Punishment and Forgiveness Medical Ethics Tolerance and Human Rights Social Exclusion and Equality

Feminist Eschatology Emily Pennington, 2016-08-25 Many feminist theologians have made timely and valuable contributions to rethinking the eschaton by framing it as cyclical and by embracing endings as they are experienced by present relational fluid and sensuous bodies However any sense of eschatological finality or ultimacy has either been rejected or ignored Feminist Eschatology seeks to think differently about Christian eschatology in light of contributions from feminist theologians noting the numerous and varied critiques they have made of traditional models These critiques are identified as being directed towards three key claims eschatology is understood to be actuated by a domineering God populated by masculinised beings and disassociated from present lives Using a form of strategic feminism wherein traits associated with female bodies and some women's experiences of their bodies are used to rethink the end time of the eschaton this book contributes to the meaning and significance of both bodies and eschatology

Melodies of a New Monasticism Craig Gardiner, 2018-03-09 The New Monastic Movement is a vibrant source of renewal for the church's life and mission Many involved in this movement have quoted Dietrich Bonhoeffer's conviction that the church must recover ancient spiritual disciplines if it is to effectively engage the powers that be Melodies of a New Monasticism adopts a musical metaphor of polyphony the combination of two or more lines of music to articulate the way that these early Christian virtues can be woven together in community Creatively using this imagery this book draws on the theological vision of Bonhoeffer and the contemporary witness of George MacLeod and the Iona Community to explore the interplay between discipleship doctrine and ethics A recurring theme is the idea of Christ as the cantus firmus the fixed song around which people perform the diverse harmonies of God in church and world including worship ecumenism healing peace justice and ecology

Prophets Megan McKenna ,2014-07-30 Teaching Community bell hooks,2013-08-21 Ten years ago bell hooks astonished readers with Teaching to Transgress Education as the Practice of Freedom Now comes Teaching Community A Pedagogy of Hope a powerful visionary work that will enrich our teaching and our lives Combining critical thinking about education with autobiographical narratives hooks invites readers to extend the discourse of race gender class and nationality beyond the classroom into everyday situations of learning bell hooks writes candidly about her own experiences Teaching she explains can happen anywhere any time not just in college classrooms but in churches in bookstores in homes where people get together to share ideas that affect their daily lives In Teaching Community bell hooks seeks to theorize from the place of the positive looking at what works Writing about struggles to end racism and white supremacy she makes the useful point that No one is born a racist Everyone makes a choice Teaching Community tells us how we can choose to end racism and create a beloved community hooks looks at many issues among them spirituality in the classroom white people looking to end racism and erotic relationships between professors and students Spirit struggle service love the ideals of shared knowledge and shared learning these values motivate progressive social change Teachers of vision know that democratic education can never be confined to a classroom Teaching so often undervalued in our society can be a joyous and inclusive activity bell hooks shows the way When teachers teach with love combining care commitment knowledge responsibility respect and trust we are often able to enter the classroom and go straight to the heart of the matter which is knowing what to do on any given day to create the best climate for learning One for the Other Andrew P. Campbell,2025-06-24 For two thousand years the cross of Christ has been the central point of Christian theologies of salvation However in recent years a variety of theologians such as Rosemary Radford Ruether Rita Nakashima Brock J Denny Weaver and Ren Girard united in their disdain for violence have abandoned any divine sanction or salvific significance for the cross of Christ Instead they frame atonement not in terms of Christ s death but his life formulating atonement theologies that address the need for an ethical concern for the oppressed and powerless Other This volume is dedicated to offering a fair account of their revisions identifying the ethical undertones that lead nonviolent theologians and thinkers to reform atonement theology examining their claims in light of those ethical foundations and exploring P T Forsyth as a viable alternative for contemporary theology Sacred Longings Mary C. Grey,2004 This book explores what is happening to the human spirit in a culture shaped and driven by globalization a culture where dreams imaginations and desires are all manipulated What do we really want Noted theologian Mary Grey believes we have gotten out of touch with our deepest desires and that the root problem is our acquiescence in global capitalism s most problematic characteristics Story and symbol she argues can put us back in touch with out sacred longings Focusing on such simple yet profound symbols as water light and sacred space she tries to reinstill a spiritual quest In the end she envisions spirituality a kind of ecomystical renewal as an element in the transformation of desire lived out in Christian community For desire to be reborn for sacred longings even to be named not to mention fulfilled there needs to be an embracing of the way of renunciation simplicity and sacrifice And that is counter cultural As Part One looks at how our culture has lost heart and Part Two analyzes are restless hearts Part Three asks us to take heart and rekindle our thirst for righteousness

Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill,2013-01-17 Global realities of human inequality poverty violence and ecological destruction call for a twenty first century Christian response which links cross cultural and interreligious cooperation for change to the Gospel This book demonstrates why just action is necessarily a criterion of authentic Christian theology and gives grounds for Christian hope that change in violent structures is really possible Lisa Sowle Cahill argues that theology and biblical interpretation are already embedded in and indebted to ethical political practices and choices Within this ecumenical study she explores the use of the historical Jesus in constructive theology the merits of Word and Spirit Christologies the importance of liberation and feminist theologies as well as theologies from the global south and also the possibility of qualified moral universalism The book will be of great interest to all students of theology religious ethics and politics and biblical studies

Feminist Theology and Contemporary Dieting

Culture Hannah Bacon, 2019-08-08 Hannah Bacon draws on qualitative research conducted inside one UK secular commercial weight loss group to show how Christian religious forms and theological discourses inform contemporary weight loss narratives Bacon argues that notions of sin and salvation resurface in secular guise in ways that repeat well established theological meanings The slimming organization recycles the Christian terminology of sin spelt Syn and encourages members to frame weight loss in salvific terms These theological tropes lurk in the background helping to align food once more with guilt and moral weakness but they also mirror to an extent the way body policing techniques in Christianity have historically helped to cultivate self care The self breaking and self making aspects of women s Syn watching practices in the group continue certain features of historical Christianity serving in similar ways to conform women s bodies to patriarchal norms while providing opportunities for women s self development Taking into account these tensions Bacon asks what a specifically feminist theological response to weight loss might look like If ideas about sin and salvation service hegemonic discourses about fat while also empowering women to shape their own lives how might they be rethought to challenge fat phobia and the frenetic pursuit of thinness As well as naming as sin principles and practices which diminish women s appetites and bodies this book forwards a number of proposals about how salvation might be performed in our everyday eating habits and through the cultivation of fat pride It takes seriously the conviction of many women in the group that food and the body can be important sites of power wisdom and transformation but channels this insight into the construction of theologies that resist rather than reproduce thin privilege and size ist norms A Primer in Ecotheology Celia E.

Deane-Drummond, 2017-09-22 This book serves as an introduction to the burgeoning field of ecotheology illustrating both its variety and its commonality across different Christian theological divides Some of the questions addressed in this short book include the following How can the Bible still make sense in the context of climate change and biodiversity loss Who on earth is Jesus Christ and what does he mean for us in today s world How can Christians be faithful to their traditions while responding to pressing calls to be engaged in environmental activism What is the relationship between theory and practice and local as well as global demands and how is this relationship expressed in different ecclesial settings How can we encourage each other to develop a sense of the earth as divine gift Written in clear accessible style this book walks readers through difficult concepts and shows the way different sources in Christian theology have responded to one of the most significant cultural issues of our time

The Wrath of God Satisfied? Tom Stuckey, 2012-08-22 What do Robben Island Colonel Gadaffi the earthquake in Haiti the riots in London credit crunch child abuse and the death of Christ have in common They are all linked by the common thread of violence Tom Stuckey reexamines the traditional theories of atonement which he argues are contextual and utilitarian as he searches for meaning and hope in these contemporary events In The Wrath of God Satisfied Tom Stuckey argues that because we live in a violent world we should not dismiss the idea of the wrath of God or the disturbing metaphors of blood debt satisfaction and sacrifice While not subscribing to the theory of penal substitution he does not dismiss it Within a dynamic interpretation of the Trinity the author draws on the insights of Athanasius Anselm Abelard Luther Calvin Julian Girard Augustine Barth and contemporary theologians to show how divine wrath being satisfied poses the question of God in its most acute form Stuckey sees God s wrath as a necessary shadow cast by the powerful light of hope and argues that wrath cannot be dismissed if justice is to be restored Through Us, with Us, in Us Lisa Isherwood, Elaine Bell Chambers, 2010 Relational theologies such as feminist theology ecotheology and liberation theologies of various kinds turn our traditional starting point for theology on its head They ask what it is that we experience This book aims to explore the concept of the emerging divine within human and non human relationality Critical Terms in Futures Studies Heike Paul, 2019-12-02 This volume provides the essential vocabulary currently employed in discourses on the future in 50 contributions by renowned scholars in their respective fields which examine future imaginaries across cultures and time Not situated in the field of futurology proper it comes at future studies sideways and offers a multidisciplinary treatment of a critical futures vocabulary The contributors have their disciplinary homes in a wide range of subjects history cultural studies literary studies sociology media studies American studies Japanese studies Chinese studies and philosophy and critically illuminate numerous discourses about the future or futures past and present In compiling such a critical vocabulary this book seeks to foster conversations about futures in study programs and research forums and offers a toolbox for discussing them with an adequate degree of complexity Eco-theology Celia Deane-Drummond, 2008 Concern for the environment has developed and intensified over the last few decades to the point where it now dominates much of our contemporary political landscape and culture In Eco Theology Celia Deane Drummond offers a comprehensive resource book for this burgeoning field of enquiry that highlights and seeks to evaluate the merits or otherwise of contemporary eco theologies She introduces the reader to critical debates in eco theology tracing trends from around the globe and key theological responses and encourages reflection and analysis through further reading sections at the end of each chapter and questions for discussion Publisher The Neurobiology of Values Bruce Miller, Ian Robertson, Niall Kavanagh, Victor Valcour, 2024-03-12
