Religious Books 1876-1982, 1983. Nigeria - Politics, Religion, Pentecostal-Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel, 2023-10-13. Nigeria presents an enthralling case study for understanding developing archetypes in interreligious encounters in Africa. The global community needs a cultural understanding and sensitivity for productive engagement with the Arab and non-Arab Muslim world. The Nigeria religious exigencies provide a requisite intelligence into the challenges facing a global community seeking to foster peace. Without a domain of tolerance, love, equity, and justice, Nigeria will continually be immured by pessimism, parochialism, cynicism, and mutual suspicion. Despite being the largest economy in Africa and the most populous Black country, Nigeria demonstrates incessantly an uncommon fault line between Christianity and Islam. The significance of this goes beyond the borders of Nigeria but has become a global showcase anywhere the two religions exist contemporaneously. Nigeria is the nexus between west and central Africa. Rooted in the dusty Sahel of the north, the savannah plains, the rich rainforests of the Atlantic coast, the rocky hills of the West, and the oil-filled swamps of the Delta, Nigeria is the beauty, sound vision, passion, and the soul of the African continent. In Nigeria, the Nigeria Pentecostal Charismatic Movement possesses a distinctive flair that demands a holistic understanding of the movement's historical, cultural, fundamental, and religious dimensions in a multifarious religious landscape. The disquisition of the movement's political cognizance, identity, power, authority, theology, popular culture, ethics, and missiological impact in northern Nigeria presents a fine embroidery of their trials, frustrations, and challenges but inveterate in faith, hope, and love that opens up innovative panoramas of peaceful dialogical prospects and coexistence between Christians and Muslims in northern Nigeria. In Nigeria, Politics, Religion, Pentecostal Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel reconnoiters the complex missiological hindrances challenging the Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement. Their contextual missional landslide disheveled with complicated paradoxes in the way the Christian majority have responded to Muslims in northern Nigeria is anatomized The Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement's puissance to solve some of Nigeria's political, ideological, cultural, and spiritual dimensions of crisis and sectarian violence is achievable if the movement can mitigate her missiological hindrances The responses of Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement to Nigeria's socio-political and ethno-religious complexities can construct a great future for the soul of Nigeria They do not only have the capacity to provide the Christian alternatives to Nigeria's peculiarities they can also stimulate Nigeria's deification among other nations by continuing to disentangle from unscrupulousness and atrociousness embedded within a reproach and opprobrium to any people

Preaching That Speaks to Women Alice P. Mathews, 2003-05-01 In most twenty-first century congregations women outnumber men by as much as fifty percent or more Unfortunately masculine anecdotes and a lack of understanding of the different ways women and men listen, learn and perceive ideas of leadership and power leave many women feeling detached from the messages conveyed from the pulpit How can a pastor effectively minister to both men and women How do the ways in which women understand sermons differ from those of men Preaching That Speaks to Women invites preachers to consider how gender affects the way sermons are understood and calls them to preaching that relates to the entire congregation Drawing from her experience as a teacher of ministry students as well as her experience as a missionary conference speaker and radio Bible teacher Alice Mathews explores both the myths and legitimate boundaries for speaking about women as listeners She considers the ways women think about themselves make ethical decisions handle stress learn and view leadership and power and applies the results to the task of preaching Mathews advocates effective preaching that does not ignore women or merely typecast women in narrowly defined roles

The Sabbath Recorder, 1917 Christian Responses to Terrorism Gordon L. Heath, David Kirwa Tarus, 2017-11-01 How should Christians respond to terrorism and terrorists in their midst Terrorism is a global problem and no society on earth faces it alone The mainly Christian society of Kenya has suffered more than most as it attempts to counter the threat of al Shabaab Some pastors have asked for permission to carry guns Many Christians support government military action while others recommend pacifist stances and strive for dialogue and reconciliation with the Muslim community In this book ten Kenyan Christian thinkers and practitioners share their experiences and insights A response section from seven others including a Kenyan Muslim scholar enrich the discussion
