Community Work with Migrant and Refugee Women Naomi Thompson, Rabia Nasimi, Marina Rova, Andy Turner, 2022-05-30 Arguing for a bottom up approach that centres on needs as well as assets

Community Work with Migrant and Refugee Women highlights the importance of cultural relevance of services and a holistic approach to integration that acknowledges the full range of needs and experiences migrant and refugee women face The Korean Women's Movement and the State Seung-kyung Kim, Kyounghee Kim, 2014-01-10 This book asks what strategies women's movements can employ to induce law and policy changes at the national level that will assist women's equality without sacrificing their feminist energy movement cohesiveness and core feminist commitments The book takes up this question in order to emphasize the need not only to recognize the accomplishments of women's movements through political participation but also to analyze the process through which feminist organizations interact with formal politics It examines the institutionalization of the Korean women's movement under the progressive presidencies of Kim Dae Jung 1998 2002 and Roh Moo Hyun 2003 2007 focusing on three major pieces of legislation concerning women's rights that were enacted during this time and looks at the process of gender politics and the strategic bargains that needed to be made between the women's movement and other political forces in order to advance their agenda It questions whether the institutionalization of the women's movement inevitably results in demobilization and deradicalization and goes on to examine the relationship between the women's movement and the government over the two most women friendly administrations in South Korean history a period marked by flourishing civil society activism and participatory democracy The Black Studies Reader Jacqueline Bobo, Cynthia Hudley, Claudine Michel, 2004-05-15 Black studies emerged from the tumultuous social and civil rights movements of the 1960s and empowered African Americans to look at themselves in new ways and pass on a dignified version of Black history However it also enriched traditional disciplines in profound and significant ways Proponents of Black and ethnic studies confronted the false notion that scholarly investigations were objective and unbiased explorations of the range of human knowledge history creativity artistry and scientific discovery As they protested against hegemonic notions like universal psychology and re-evaluated canonical texts in literature a new model of academic inquiry evolved one committed to serving a range of populations that critiqued traditional politics culture and social affairs and worked with activist energy for the transformation of the existing social order With an all star cast of contributors The Black Studies Reader takes on the history and future of this multi-faceted academic field Topics include Black feminism cultural politics Black activism lesbian and gay issues African American literature and film education and religion This authoritative collection takes a critical look at the current state of Black studies and speculates on where it may go from here Gender Struggles Constance L. Mui, Julien S. Murphy, 2002 Contemporary feminist theory and postmodernism have left significant marks on how we think about practical matters most notably the old and new forms of gender struggles that many women confront in their daily lives The essays collected in Gender Struggles are designed to highlight those influences by addressing the following questions What is practical feminism in a postmodern world How does rethinking the nature and boundaries of philosophy affect the way we understand practical issues that we confront daily What new forms of freedom autonomy subjectivity social welfare motherhood public and private space and political resistance have emerged from this new philosophical sense Together the sixteen essays in this volume represent many different voices of feminists who boldly take up familiar everyday concerns from unorthodox vantage points within new conceptual and theoretical frameworks The essays in Gender Struggles address a wide range of issues in gender struggles from the more familiar ones that for the last thirty years have been the mainstay of feminist scholarship such as motherhood beauty and sexual violence to new topics inspired by post industrialization and multiculturalism such as the welfare state cyberspace hate speech and queer politics and finally to topics that traditionally have not been seen as appropriate subjects for philosophizing such as adoption care work and the home Incorporating the latest most cutting edge material on feminism this volume aims at reaching a broad spectrum of readers by connecting postmodern feminist theory with concrete issues that are practical and relevant to their daily lives and experiences

Beyond Reproduction Karen L. Baird, Dána-Ain Davis, Kimberly Christensen, 2009 Examines the women's health movement of the 1990s and how activists achieved policy changes in the areas of medical research HIV AIDS breast cancer and violence against women Back cover

Qualitative Methods in Tourism Research Wendy Hillman, Kylie Radel, 2018-01-05 This volume seeks to expose and illustrate new approaches and thinking in qualitative methods that are being developed and implemented in tourism research The contributions bring together various qualitative methods and approaches while also providing suggestions for the juxtaposition of qualitative and quantitative methods in mixed methods research The book has been written with a cross disciplinary approach which provides an insight into the art of research development from business sociology and tourism perspectives The chapters provide readers with a context and practical application examples for each method They present a distinctive opportunity for social researchers from a range of disciplines in particular tourism to examine how to adapt the wide variety of qualitative approaches to their particular research needs
