The Generation of Identity in Late Medieval Hagiography Gail

Ashton,2012-09-10 In this interdisciplinary and boundary breaking study Gail Ashton examines the portrayals of women saints in a wide range of medieval texts She deploys the French feminist critical theory of Cixous and Irigaray to illuminate these depictions of women by men and to further our understanding of both the lives and deeds of female saints and the contemporary and almost always male attitudes to them Naming Security - Constructing Identity Maria Stern,2005 Based on the experiences of Mayan women Stern critically re considers the connections between security subjectivity and identity By engaging in a careful reading of how Mayan women speak security in relation to the different contexts that inform their lives she explores the multiplicity of both identity and security and questions the main story of security imbedded in the modern paradox of sovereignty Writerly Identities in Beur Fiction and Beyond Laura Reeck,2011-02-11 Writerly Identities in Beur Fiction and Beyond explores the Beur banlieue literary and cultural field from its beginnings in the 1980s to the present It examines a set of postcolonial Bildungsroman novels by Azouz Begag Farida Belghoul Le la Sebbar Sa d Mohamed Rachid Dja dani and Mohamed Razane In these novels the central characters are authors who struggle to find self identity and a place in the world through writing and authorship The book thus explores the different ways all these novels relate the process of becoming to the process of writing Neither is straightforward as the author characters struggle to put their lives into words settle upon a genre of writing and adopt an authorial persona Each chapter of Writerly Identities in Beur Fiction and Beyond focuses on a given author s own relationship to writing before assessing his or her use of the author character as a proxy In so doing the study as a whole explores a set of literary questions genre textual authority reception and engages them against the backdrop of socio cultural challenges facing contemporary French society These include debates on education cultural literacy diversity and equal opportunity and the banlieue environment Finally it argues in relation to the authors and novels in question for the particular relevance of rooted and vernacular cosmopolitanism which suggests both that exploration of the world must begin at home and that stories are crucial for such explorations Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association,2000 List of members in v 1

Constructing Identity in Iranian-American Self-Narrative M. Blaim,Amnon Sella,2015-02-11 Shaped by the experiences of the Iranian Revolution Iranian American autobiographers use this chaotic past to tell their current stories in the United States Wagenknecht analyzes a wide range of such writing and draws new conclusions about migration exile and life between different and often clashing cultures Claims of Identity Alan Lewis Silva,2020-01-12 Claims of Identity is a book of essays discussing relationships between archetypes and identities Drawing on history timeless tropes and comparative literature this book explores the activities of identification in a variety of ways adding significance to representations of outsiders and the marginalized in order to appreciate authors and cultures with a view toward philosophy A thematic treatise included in this volume Claims of Identity in Bret Harte s Gabriel Conroy argues that identity is claimed rather than inherently bestowed and that this is contributive to California identity The treatise also discusses Bret Harte the original California author Gabriel Conroy Bret Harte s only long novel published in 1875 tells a fiction of who owns California symbolized as a silver mine in the Sierras Various imposters are implicated The result is a sweeping adventure that typifies Californian identity to this day and compliments the understanding of additional topics Encyclopedia of Identity Ronald L. Jackson, Michael A. Hogg, 2010-06-29 Alphabetically arranged entries offer a comprehensive overview of the definitions politics manifestations concepts and ideas related to identity New Forms of Self-Narration Ana Belén Martínez García, 2020-08-21 This book is a timely study of young women s life writing as a form of human rights activism It focuses on six young women who suffered human rights violations when they were girls and have gone on to become activists through life writing Malala Yousafzai Hyeonseo Lee Yeonmi Park Bana Alabed Nujeen Mustafa and Nadia Murad Their ongoing life writing projects diverge to some extent but all share several notable features they claim a testimonial collective voice they deploy rights discourse they excite humanitarian emotions they link up their context bound plight with bigger social justice causes and they use English as their vehicle of self expression and self construction This strategic use of English is of vital importance as it has brought them together as icons in the public sphere within the last six years New Forms of Self Narration is the first ever attempt to explore all these activists life writing texts side by side encompassing both the written and the audiovisual material online and offline and taking all texts as belonging to a unique single though multifaceted project

Outspeak Narrating Identities That: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Outspeak Narrating Identities That : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
