Private Politics A Multidisciplinary Approach To Bigman Systems Studies In Human Society:

Private Politics, 2023-07-24 Leadership and Change in the Western Pacific R. Feinberg, K. A. Watson-Gegeo, 2021-01-07 An ethnographic exploration of the rise of new forms of leadership at community and national levels with islanders are synthesising traditional and Western models Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Alan Barnard, Jonathan Spencer, 1996 Providing a guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline this volume discusses human social and cultural life in all its diversity and difference Theory ethnography and history are combined in over 230 entries on topics How to Become a Big Man in Africa Wale Adebani, 2024-08-06 Can subalterns transform themselves into members of the elite and what does it take to do so And how do those efforts reveal the nature of ethnic politics in postcolonial Africa How to Become a Big Man in Africa Subalternity Elites and Ethnic Politics in Contemporary Nigeria examines these questions by revealing how through ethno regional conflict violence and cultural activities an artisan Gani Adams transformed himself into the holder of the most prestigious chieftaincy title among the Yoruba Addressing persistent gaps in anthropological studies of the subaltern and of big men in politics through in depth biography and rich social history Wale Adebani follows Adams and other major figures in Nigeria's Oodua People's Congress OPC over two decades of ethnographic study and visual representations Challenging existing models of African political mobility by leveraging his initial lack of formal education into a position of power Adams moved from a radical lumpen and area boy to a big man who continues to struggle and reflect over the significance of his role as a cultural subject Blurring the lines between tradition and modernity Adams and his group have used Yoruba rituals to simultaneously claim authenticity and champion new movements for democracy and self determination How to Become a Big Man in Africa encourages us to understand the full complexity of Adams's political trajectory and how it reflects the structural and personal realities of becoming a Big Man in the contemporary postcolony The Inca Empire Thomas C. Patterson, 1992-02-09 The last of the Andean civilizations Inca society was the product of complex historical and social processes of class and state formation This study examines the contradictions tensions and conflicts these processes engendered and explores the involvement of Europeans in Andean life after the 1530s as it resulted in new forms of exploitation and repression Waves of Time K.R. Dark, 2001-01-31 This volume provides an overview of the whole range of long term analyses in international relations It evaluates and draws on theoretical approaches in both the humanities and social sciences in subjects such as sociology history anthropology and archaeology and recent progress in evolutionary theory and the mathematical study of complexity The resulting analysis reinterprets processes of global political change in the past and present and opens fresh areas of enquiry for international relations Land and Ancestors Frans Theuvs, Nico Roymans, 1999 This volume includes an interdisciplinary research programme involving archaeological anthropological and historical perspectives on different dimensions of the landscape Although directed towards a specific region the intensity of the archaeological fieldwork and the large scale of the excavations allow for interpretations that are important for the Northwest European Plain as a whole Contributions include the publication of primary data of excavations published for the first time and analysis on a more abstract level The studies include among others Urnfield symbolism ancestors and the land in the Lower Rhine Region Roymans Kortlang Urnfield and settlement traces from the Iron Age at Mierlo Hout Tol The archaeology and history of the curia of the abbey of St Truiden at Hulsel Theuws Gift exchange eternity and landed property The foundation and endowment of the Premonstratensian priory at Postel Bijsterveld Berichten van de Rijksdienst voor het Oudheidkundig Bodemonderzoek Netherlands. Rijksdienst voor het Oudheidkundig Bodemonderzoek,1998 From Equality to Inequality Csilla Dallos,2011-04-09 The egalitarian society once enjoyed by the Lanoh hunter gatherers of Peninsular Malaysia is quickly changing Throughout a year of ethnographic fieldwork among the Lanoh Csilla Dallos studied and interpreted social change in order to better understand the processes leading to inequality and the concurrent development of social complexity within a community From Equality to Inequality provides rich empirical data on the factors within a community that significantly affect the development of inequality including the effects of sedentism integration leadership competition self aggrandizement marginalization and feuding kinship groups In this case study Dallos argues that in order to understand emerging inequality anthropologists and social scientists need to revisit current conceptions of politics in small scale egalitarian societies Offering a new model of developing social inequality that is congruent with the principles of complexity theory From Equality to Inequality is a sterling example of how anthropological practice can further our general understanding of human behaviour Art and Performance in Oceania Barry Craig,Bernie Kernot,Christopher Anderson,1999-12-01 The Fifth International Symposium of the Pacific Arts Association titled Art Performance and Society called for papers in sessions dealing with Production and Performance Social and Cultural Context The Record and the Remainder and The Mission of Museums In all some sixty papers were presented twenty four of which have been included in this book The first two topics elicited several papers that explored the creative process including the description and analysis of performance and the taxonomy of objects used the transmission of cultural knowledge and the identity and work of individual artists The second two topics provided the opportunity for papers on some significant early museum collectors and collections various methods of documenting cultural material such as photography how cultural material has been and can be exhibited and the role of museums and cultural centers in Pacific Island countries
