Britain's Medieval Episcopal Thrones Charles Tracy,2015-01-30 This book is the first major investigation of a subject of seminal importance in the study of church history and archaeology The two stone thrones at Wells and Durham the three timber monuments at Exeter St Davids and Hereford and the mid 14th century bishop s chair at Lincoln all come under a searching empirical enquiry The Exeter throne is the largest and most impressive in Europe It is a distinguished innovatory example of the English Decorated style with antecedents passing back to the court of Edward I It exemplifies most of the historical and formal strands that suffuse the entire book visual appearance distinctiveness within the building prestige construction stylistic context finance and the patronage and personal role of the bishop himself as well as the subtler issues of the personal and collective politics of bishop and chapter the monument s liturgical applications its relationship with the cathedral s relics its symbolism and what it tells us about the aspirations of the institution within the existing ecclesiastical hierarchy The thrones also reveal much about the personal circumstances of an individual bishop and where he stood on the scale of a good diocesan on the one hand and ambitious politician on the other as exemplified at Exeter and Durham The text is by the art historian Dr Charles Tracy a seasoned expert on church furniture both in Britain and on the continent of Europe The chapter on the stone thrones was prepared by Andrew Budge who is currently preparing a Ph D thesis on English Chantry Churches at Birkbeck College The polychromy authority Eddie Sinclair spent many hours on the scaffold to bring forward her remarkable report on the Exeter throne Her full report is to be published online The Exeter throne is also interpreted by the established timber conservation practitioner Hugh Harrison and the St Davids throne by the experienced draughtsman Peter Ferguson In an age of the CAD his meticulous measured drawings of the Exeter and St Davids monuments are one of the most remarkable features of book The architect Paul Woodfield prepared the drawings for the Lincoln chair

The Archaeology of Medieval England and Wales John Steane,2014-10-30 In the preceding 25 years to this book s publication in 1985 there was an extensive and unprecedented burst of archaeological activity in evidence from below ground deposits above ground structures and artefacts During the boom of the late 1960s and 1970s which led to go much central town redevelopment it was buried remains which yielded the most dramatic information In the recession of the 1980s it was realised that upstanding remains had a lot to offer as well and they were being subject to ever more sophisticated study techniques This book examines those recent developments in archaeology and assesses their bearing on the study of medieval English and Welsh history Taking a series of important themes such as government religion and the countryside the book offers a chronological approach from the coming of the Vikings 850 AD to the Reformation in 1530 This approach focuses on the impact of man on the urban and rural landscape An important text for students of ancient history

The Long Twelfth-Century View of the Anglo-Saxon Past Martin Brett,David A. Woodman,2016-03-03 Scholars have long been interested in the extent to which the Anglo Saxon past can be understood using material written and produced in the twelfth century and simultaneously in the continued importance or otherwise of the Anglo Saxon past in the generations following the Norman Conquest of England In order to better understand these issues this volume provides a series of essays that moves scholarship forward in two significant ways Firstly it scrutinises how the Anglo Saxon past continued to be reused and recycled throughout the longue dur e of the twelfth century as opposed to the early decades that are usually covered Secondly by bringing together scholars who are experts in various different scholarly disciplines the volume deals with a much broader range of historical linguistic legal artistic palaeographical and cultic evidence than has hitherto been the case Divided into four main parts The Anglo Saxon Saints Anglo Saxon England in the Narrative of Britain Anglo Saxon Law and Charter and Art history and the French Vernacular it scrutinises the majority of different genres of source material that are vital in any study of early medieval British history In so doing the resultant volume will become a standard reference point for students and scholars alike interested in the ways in which the Anglo Saxon past continued to be of importance and interest throughout the twelfth century

Reassessing Nikolaus Pevsner Peter Draper,2017-07-05 Nikolaus Pevsner was one of the most important and influential art historians of the twentieth century He opened up new areas of enquiry in the history of art revolutionising architectural studies in England and playing a key role in establishing the discipline of design history Through his lectures and broadcasts as well as the remarkable volumes in The Buildings of England series which made him a household name he did much to encourage greater interest in and understanding of art and architecture among a wide public This wide ranging collection of essays based on papers delivered at the conference held at Birkbeck in celebration of the centenary of Pevsner s birth offers the first sustained critical assessment of Pevsner s achievements With contributions by leading international scholars the volume brings together a wealth of new material on Pevsner and his intellectual background both in Germany in the late 1920s and 1930s and in England particularly in the 1940s and 1950s

The Use of Hereford William Smith, 2017-05-15 The Use of Hereford a local variation of the Roman rite was one of the diocesan liturgies of medieval England before their abolition and replacement by the Book of Common Prayer in 1549 Unlike the widespread Use of Sarum the Use of Hereford was confined principally to its diocese which helped to maintain its individuality until the Reformation This study seeks to catalogue and evaluate all the known surviving sources of the Use of Hereford with particular reference to the missals and gradual which so far have received little attention In addition to these a variety of other material has been examined including a number of little known or unknown important fragments of early Hereford service books dismembered at the Reformation and now hidden away as binding or other scrap in libraries and record offices This is the fullest examination of Hereford liturgical sources ever undertaken and may stimulate similar and much needed studies of other diocesan uses in particular Sarum and York As well as describing in detail the various manuscript sources the rare single edition printed Hereford texts the missals and breviaries are also discussed Unlike books of the Sarum and York rites these one offs were never revised and reissued In addition to the examination of these sources William Smith discusses the possible origins of the rite and provides an analysis of the Hereford liturgical calendar of the festa including those of the cathedral s patron St Ethelbert and the no less famous St Thomas Cantilupe that helped to make Hereford use so distinctive

English Medieval Alabasters Francis W. Cheetham, 2005 Francis Cheetham s classic survey of English medieval alabasters includes a richly illustrated catalogue of the Victoria and Albert Museum s unparalleled collection English alabasters represent a unique contribution to medieval art Less sophisticated perhaps than other contemporary forms of religious art they were a neglected area of study until this volume was first published in 1984 Stories from the New Testament and The Golden Legend were the most favoured subjects and the numerous examples that survive in churches and museums throughout Europe attest to their wide and enduring appeal Francis Cheetham examines here all aspects of their production and demonstrates how the panels and altarpieces can aid our understanding of life and devotional practice in medieval times At the heart of this fascinating study is a richly illustrated catalogue of the 260 examples in the collection of London s Victoria and Albert Museum a collection so comprehensive that it would be possible to write a survey of the subject almost without recourse to pieces elsewhere as Sir Roy Strong notes in his Foreword Their division into subject categories is an invaluable aid to identification and classification The late Francis Cheetham was an acknowledged expert on medieval English alabasters and this reissue of his classic work will be welcomed by historians art historians collectors and dealers alike taking its place alongside his Alabaster Images of Medieval England which was published by the Boydell Press in 2003

Gothic Sculpture, 1140-1300 Paul Williamson, 1995-01-01 This study examines the development of Gothic sculpture throughout Europe It discusses the most famous monuments such as the cathedrals of Chartres Amiens and Reims Westminster Abbey and the Siena Duomo and less familiar buildings in France England Italy Germany Spain and Scandinavia
