Sculpture Market Trends offers a comprehensive exploration of the financial aspects of the sculpture and 3D artwork market. It delves into how these unique art forms command diverse prices influenced by factors like historical significance and material composition. Readers will gain insights into market trends and learn to identify investment opportunities, making it a valuable resource for artists, collectors, and investors. The book uncovers the economic principles governing the sculpture market, arguing that despite subjective aesthetic preferences, discernible financial dynamics are at play. It traces the market's evolution from ancient times to the digital age, highlighting the impact of technological changes on artistic production and market demand. The approach is analytical and data-driven, using auction house data and market reports to support its arguments. Organized for a holistic view, the book starts with art valuation and market dynamics before exploring factors driving sculpture prices, such as artist reputation and craftsmanship. Major sections cover various sculpture types, including emerging trends like 3D printed art. It culminates in practical strategies for buying, selling, and investing, complete with case studies and expert insights.

Current Trends in Narratology Greta Olson, 2011-03-29. Current Trends in Narratology offers an overview of cutting-edge approaches to theories of storytelling. The introduction details how new emphases on cognitive processing, non-prose, and multimedia narratives, and interdisciplinary approaches to narratology have altered how narration, narrative, and narrativity are understood. The volume also introduces a third post-classical direction of research: comparative narratology, and describes how developments in Germany, Israel, and France may be compared with Anglophone research. Leading international scholars, including Monika Fludernik, Richard Gerrig, Ansgar Nünning, John Pier, Brian Richardson, Alan Palmer, and Werner Wolf, describe not only their newest research but also how this work dovetails with larger narratological developments.

Modern Sculpture Reader Jon Wood, David Hulks, Alex Potts, 2012-08-21. In many anthologies of art, sculpture is given short shrift in relation to other media if it is treated at all. Modern Sculpture Reader aims to rectify this situation by presenting a collection of important texts that have defined sculpture's radically changing status and role since the end of the nineteenth century, a time marked by a general reappraisal of the forms and functions of art. From the rigorously theoretical to the experimental and poetic, Modern Sculpture Reader offers a lively discourse on the medium by a range of artists, writers, critics, and poets: Marcel Duchamp, Louise Bourgeois, Claes Oldenburg, Andr  Breton, Ezra Pound, and Clement Greenberg, in a variety of genres: poems, lectures, transcribed interviews, newspaper and magazine articles, and artists' statements. These diverse text selections offer valuable insight into the development of the critical language of sculpture and its connections to other media in an era of increasingly conceptual artistic practice. Many of the essays highlight key ongoing concerns, such as sculpture's physical properties and conditions of display both of which have important implications for the viewer's tactile and emotional interaction with sculptural works
