nature and purpose of Moore's writing is illuminated. Sir Alan Bowness, editor of the Henry Moore Complete Sculpture Series. The Shape of Hawthorne's Career Nina Baym, 2019-01-24. This gracefully written book considers all of Nathaniel Hawthorne's works from Fanshawe through the unfinished romances of his last years and establishes the pattern of his literary development. Ms Baym brings the crucial facts of Hawthorne's career into clear focus and places the individual works within the total picture. Disputing some enduring critical pieties, she finds in Hawthorne a writer who experimented with a series of literary poses through which he tried both to discover himself and to please his audience. He realized late, she says, the paradox that the more he departed from conventional modes, the more popular his writing became. By looking discerningly at all of Hawthorne's work as it unfolded, Ms Baym produces compelling new insights into a major American writer and adds appreciably to our understanding of him. A Companion to Modern

Creative Thinking C J Hollins, 2012-01-28. What would Cézanne, Monet, Picasso, Kandinsky, and the other founders of modern art think of Damien Hirst's shark in formaldehyde or Tracey Emin's unmade bed? Has modern art moved on since the breakthroughs of these early pioneers, or are we going round in circles? Has modern art merely become a carnival of the shocking, grotesque, and ridiculous because modern artists have failed to comprehend what Modernism emerged to explore? Have modern artists become so intoxicated by the need for notoriety and celebrity status that they are no longer interested in the quest for a genuine art experience? In this collection of essays written between 1968 and 2010, C J Hollins reveals his thoughts on these questions in an unflinching attempt to open our eyes to the enigma of modern art. From early cave paintings and traditional masterpieces, Hollins explores the development of art ending at the current crisis point of our times. More importantly, he offers concrete theories of what the modern artist should be striving to achieve to move us closer to a new way of perceiving the world. Rethinking Asuka Sculpture Hong Wu, 2024-08-05. In this book, WU Hong deconstructs the prevailing theory of a 100-year Buddhist artistic lag between Asuka Japan and the Chinese mainland. She proposes to radically re-date Asuka statues such as the famous Horyu-ji Kondō Shaka Triad. The new dating opens up possibilities for revising our perceptions of early Japanese history and interchange in East Asia while also allowing a fresh account of Asuka statuary to emerge. Proceeding from the revised chronology and emphasizing local processes, this new account brings the growth of Asuka Buddhism into clearer vision and elaborates on heretofore unknown historical details for an enriched understanding of this critical period of East Asian history George A. Kubler and the Shape of Art History
