Sculpture Since 1945:

Sculpture Since 1945 Andrew Causey, 1998 This fresh account of post war sculpture examines innovative and avant garde works SCULPTURE SINCE ~1945œ (NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-FIVE). Edward Lucie-Smith, 1987

Sculpture Since 1945 Edward Lucie-Smith, 1987 In Sculpture since 1945 Edward Lucie Smith classifies the full range of movements and provides an explanation of their development and how they are related to one another He begins by reflecting on the work of the early modernists Auguste Rodin Pablo Picasso Marcel Duchamp and Jacob Epstein and proceeds to look at the succeeding influences and revolutions in sculpture from the Constructivist and neo classical works of the immediate post war years to the Minimalism Pop Conceptual and Land Art of the sixties and seventies and the return to figurative imagery of the 1980 s Many of the new sculptors Henry Moore Alberto Giacometti Marino Marini David Smith are dealt with at length and altogether some 200 artists are discussed BOOK JACKET British Sculpture Since 1945 Dennis Farr, 1967 British Sculpture Since 1945 , 1965 British Women Sculptors , 2020-04 The first contemporary survey of postwar British women sculptors from modernism to the YBA s This publication focuses on postwar British women sculptors including Tracey Emin Mona Hatoum Barbara Hepworth Kim Lim Sarah Lucas Cornelia Parker and Rachel Whiteread Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson, 2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1 3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9 11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding Joe Fafard Terrence Heath, National Gallery of Canada, 2007 Few contemporary artists have worked in the sheer variety of styles that Joe Fafard has perfected and won such acclaim for their efforts Born in 1942 in a remote farming hamlet in Saskatchewan the idiosyncratic artist early on chose a radically different direction from the prevailing modernistic aesthetic of the early 1960s boldly exploring new media and new imagery Gaining fame initially as a ceramic sculptor of oversize animals and people in the early 1980s he turned to laser steel and bronze work along the way adding painting to his repertoire This dual biography and critical study features a wealth of illustrations from Fafard s long career generously sampling both the monumental sculptures done as public and private commissions and the more intimate studies of people and prairie that reside in museums worldwide and in the private collections of Oprah Winfrey Bill Cosby and others

Materials and Processes of Contemporary Sculpture Mahmoud Farag,2020-01-17 Creating a successful sculpture requires an imaginative concept and a sound design that utilize the potential and avoid the limitations of the material and the process used in making it Prior to a few decades ago most sculptors were restricted to carving stone and wood or casting plaster ceramics and bronze for their creations Contemporary sculptors however are no longer bound by the limitations of these traditional materials and processes and can now create works in sizes forms and textures that could not have been achieved previously Many modern sculptures are now made from materials ranging from steel and aluminum to plastics and composites using processes ranging from welding and adhesive bonding to molding and 3D printing To fully utilize the full potential of such new materials the sculptor needs to understand their points of strength their limitations and the most effective way of shaping them to achieve a given design Although this book is written by a materials engineer the subject matter is presented from the point of view of the sculptor with emphasis on the strengths and weaknesses of different materials their resistance to weather conditions natural color and possible surface textures possible methods of shaping and joining tools and equipment needed and safety measures to take Whenever possible case studies are used to illustrate the sequence of processes and the cost elements involved in shaping a given material to create an actual work of sculpture architecture comprises much more than the traditional image of Gothic cathedrals and the castles of chivalry. A great variety of buildings, synagogues, halls and barns testify to the diverse communities and interests in western Europe in the centuries between 1150 and 1550. This book looks at their architecture from an entirely fresh perspective, shifting the emphasis away from such areas as France towards the creativity of other regions including central Europe and Spain. Treating the subject thematically, Coldstream seeks out what all buildings both religious and secular have in common and how they reflect the material and spiritual concerns of the people who built and used them. Furthermore, the author considers how and why, after four centuries of shaping the landscapes and urban patterns of Europe, medieval styles were superseded by classicism.

Medieval Architecture Nicola Coldstream,2002 Medieval

Byzantine Art Robin Cormack, 2018-02-27 The opulence of Byzantine art with its extravagant use of gold and silver is well known. Highly skilled artists created powerful representations reflecting and promoting this society and its values in icons, illuminated manuscripts and mosaics and wallpaintings placed in domed churches and public buildings. This complete introduction to the whole period and range of Byzantine art combines immense breadth with interesting historical detail. Robin Cormack overturns the myth that Byzantine art remained constant from the inauguration of Constantinople, its artistic centre, in the year 330 until the fall of the city to the Ottomans in 1453. He shows how the many political and religious upheavals of this period produced a wide range of styles and developments in art. This updated colour edition includes new discoveries, a revised bibliography and in a new epilogue a rethinking of Byzantine Art for the present day.

Renaissance Architecture Christy Anderson, 2013-02-28 The Renaissance was a diverse phenomenon marked by innovation and economic expansion, the rise of powerful rulers, religious reforms and social change. Encompassing the entire continent, Renaissance Architecture examines the rich variety of buildings that emerged during these seminal centuries of European history. Although marked by the rise of powerful individuals, both patrons and architects, the Renaissance was equally a time of growing group identities and communities, and architecture provided the public face to these new identities. Religious reforms in northern Europe, spurred on by Martin Luther, rejected traditional church function and decoration and proposed new models. Political ambitions required new buildings to satisfy court rituals. Territory, nature and art intersected to shape new landscapes and building types. Classicism came to be the international language of an educated architect and an ambitious patron drawing on the legacy of ancient Rome. Yet the richness of the medieval tradition continued to be used throughout Europe, often alongside classical buildings. Examining each of these areas by turn, this book offers a broad cultural history of the period as well as a completely new approach to the history of Renaissance architecture. The work of well-known architects such as Michelangelo and Andrea Palladio is examined alongside lesser-known, though no less innovative, designers such as Juan Guas in Portugal and Benedikt Ried in Prague and Eastern Europe. Drawing on the latest research, it also covers more recent areas of interest such as the story of women as patrons and the emotional effect of Renaissance buildings as well as the impact of architectural publications and travel on the emerging new architectural culture across Europe. As such, it provides a compelling introduction to the subject for all those interested in the history of architecture society and culture in the Renaissance and European culture in general Architecture in the United States Dell Upton,1998 From Native American sites in New Mexico and Arizona to the ancient earthworks of the Mississippi Valley to the most fashionable contemporary buildings of Chicago and New York American architecture is incredibly varied In this revolutionary interpretation Upton examines American architecture in relation to five themes community nature technology money and art 109 illustrations 40 linecuts Map Fashion Christopher Breward,2003-04-24 This lively survey of 150 years of fashion covers everything from Haute Couture to the High Street From Coco Chanel to Alexander McQueen Breward explores fashion as a cultural phenomenon Topics include fashion in film the world of Vogue and advertising and the use of fashion to create identity from the Flapper to the New Look and Dandy to Punk Twentieth-Century American Art Erika Doss,2002-04-26 Jackson Pollock Georgia O Keeffe Andy Warhol Julian Schnabel and Laurie Anderson are just some of the major American artists of the twentieth century From the 1893 Chicago World s Fair to the 2000 Whitney Biennial a rapid succession of art movements and different styles reflected the extreme changes in American culture and society as well as America s position within the international art world This exciting new look at twentieth century American art explores the relationships between American art museums and audiences in the century that came to be called the American century Extending beyond New York it covers the emergence of Feminist art in Los Angeles in the 1970s the Black art movement the expansion of galleries and art schools and the highly political public controversies surrounding arts funding All the key movements are fully discussed including early American Modernism the New Negro movement Regionalism Abstract Expressionism Pop Art and Neo Expressionism Provocative Plastics Susan Lambert,2021-01-07 Plastics have now been our most used materials for over fifty years This book adopts a new approach exploring plastics contribution from two perspectives as a medium for making and their value in societal use The first approach examines the multivalent nature of plastics materiality and their impact on creativity through the work of artists designers and manufacturers The second perspective explores attitudes to plastics and the different value systems applied to them through current research undertaken by design materials and socio cultural historians The book addresses the environmental impact of plastics and elucidates the ways in which they can and must be part of the solution The individual viewpoints are provocative and controversial but together they present a balanced and scholarly unpicking of the debate that surrounds this ubiquitous group of materials The book is essential reading for a wide academic readership interested in the Arts and Humanities especially Design and Design History Anthropology and Cultural Material and Social Histories Area Handbook for North Korea Rinn-Sup Shinn,American University (Washington, D.C.).
