The German Air Force I Knew 1914-1918 Bob Carruthers,2014-03-31 Major Georg Paul Neumann was a former German Air Force officer who had served in the Great War He produced his outstanding survey of the German Air Force in 1920 while the events were still recent history He was able to draw on his own experience and his contacts to compile a large number of personal accounts from officers and men who had so recently fought in the cause The result is an accurate faithful and comprehensive review of the aircraft personnel and organisation of the force which began life in 1910 as the Imperial German Army Air Service and ended the war as the Luftstreitkräfte This comprehensive and compelling review includes a series of primary sources dealing with some of the unusual and lesser known aspects of the Luftstreitkräfte including a gripping account of defending a Zeppelin against attack by British fighters Major Neumann's indispensable work has never been surpassed and this English language translation is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the realities of the war in the air in the Great War

Alternatives Marvin Leon,2001 Alternatives is a compilation of supplemental readings created by Mr Leon to add meaning to the Jewish Conservative prayer service or to rituals such as the dedication of a new home a Brit or a memorial service The readings reflect a modern interpretation of traditional liturgy in an attempt to reach those who find ancient formulations unsatisfying For too long the thinking Jew has been required to deal with a theology rooted in a 5000 year old concept of an all powerful God of justice who sees all and knows all This does not resonate with the cumulative intelligence of the centuries The included readings while personal to the author have received broad acceptance from the members of his own congregation They are offered here in the hope that they can reawaken attachment to a tradition which has in certain respects become sterile and repetitive It is also the author's hope that they will give insight to non Jews as to the breadth and reach of an ancient philosophy which became the foundationstone for western civilization
