The Seaboard Parish - Volume III George MacDonald, 2015-05-04 The Seaboard Parish Volume III from George MacDonald Scottish author poet and Christian minister 1824 1905 The Seaboard Parish George MacDonald, 2020-12-02 In the evening we met in Connie's room as usual to have our talk And this is what came outof it The window was open The sun was in the west We sat a little aside out of the course of hisradiance and let him look full into the room Only Wynnie sat back in a dark corner as if shewould get out of his way Below him the sea lay bluer than you could believe even when yousaw it blue with a delicate yet deep silky blue the exquisiteness of which was thrown up by the brilliant white lines of its lapping on the high coast to the northward We had just sat down when Dora broke out with I saw Niceboots at church He did stare at you papa as if he had never heard a sermonbefore I daresay he never heard such a sermon before said Connie with the perfect confidence of inexperience and partiality not to say ignorance seeing she had not heard the sermon herself Here Wynnie spoke from her dark corner apparently forcing herself to speak and therebygiving what seemed an unpleasant tone to what she said Well papa I don't know what to think You are always telling us to trust in Him but howcan we if we are not good The first good thing you can do is to look up to him That is the beginning of trust in him and the most sensible thing that it is possible for us to do That is faith But it s no use sometimes How do you know that Because you I mean I can t feel good or care about it at all But is that any ground for saying that it is no use that he does not heed you that hedisregards the look cast up to him that till the heart goes with the will he who made himselfstrong to be the helper of the weak who pities most those who are most destitute and who sodestitute as those who do not love what they want to love except indeed those who don't wantto love that till you are well on towards all right by earnestly seeking it he won't help you You are to judge

him from yourself are you forgetting that all the misery in you is justbecause you have not got his grand presence with you I spoke so earnestly as to be somewhat incoherent in words But my reader will understand Wynnie was silent Connie as if The Seaboard Parish, Complete George MacDonald, 2019-11-26 In The partly to help her sister followed on the same sid Seaboard Parish Complete George MacDonald weaves a captivating tapestry of human experience exploring themes of faith community and redemption within the picturesque setting of a coastal parish Through vivid prose and lyrical descriptions MacDonald employs a blend of realism and fantasy that immerses readers in the lives of its characters who navigate personal and spiritual trials The narrative marked by rich symbolism and moral inquiry reflects MacDonald s deep interest in the intersection of theology and everyday life placing it within the literary context of Victorian spiritual fiction where personal transformation often resonates alongside natural landscapes George MacDonald a pivotal figure in the realm of imaginative literature was influential in shaping the fantasy genre and is often regarded as a precursor to authors like C S Lewis and J R R Tolkien His own struggles with faith and his role as a minister deeply informed his writing The Seaboard Parish is a testament to MacDonald's theological explorations influenced by his belief in a loving God and the redemptive power of grace proving his commitment to both literary creativity and spiritual discourse Readers seeking a profound exploration of faith woven through the fabric of human life will find The Seaboard Parish Complete an enriching experience MacDonald s masterful storytelling invites both reflection and meditation making it an essential read for those interested in the interplay of spirituality and character development within a beautifully crafted narrative The Seaboard Parish George MacDonald, 2020-04-16 In a minute or two she looked in again all ready I rose laid aside my Plato and went with her We turned our steps along the edge of the down and descended upon the breakwater where we seated ourselves upon the same spot where in the darkness I had heard the voices of Joe and Agnes What a different night it was from that The sea lay as quiet as if it could not move for the moonlight that lay upon it The glory over it was so mighty in its peacefulness that the wild element beneath was afraid to toss itself even with the motions of its natural unrest. The moon was like the face of a saint before which the stormy people has grown dumb The rocks stood up solid and dark in the universal aether and the pulse of the ocean throbbed against them with a lapping gush soft as the voice of a passionate child soothed into shame of its vanished petulance But the sky was the glory Although no breath moved below there was a gentle wind abroad in the upper regions The air was full of masses of cloud the vanishing fragments of the one great vapour which had been pouring down in rain the most of the day These masses were all setting with one steady motion eastward into the abysses of space now obscuring the fair moon now solemnly sweeping away from before her As they departed out shone her marvellous radiance as calm as ever It was plain that she knew nothing of what we called her covering her obscuration the dimming of her glory She had been busy all the time weaving her lovely opaline damask on the other side of the mass in which we said she was swallowed up The Seaboard Parish - Volume I George MacDonald, 2015-05-04 The Seaboard Parish Volume I from George
