Seal Surfer:

Seal Surfer Michael Foreman, 1996 Although he is on crutches a boy goes to the beach with his grandfather where they watch a seal being born and over the following seasons the boy and the seal develop a special bond HandiLand Elizabeth A. Wheeler, 2019-08-21 HandiLand looks at young adult novels fantasy series graphic memoirs and picture books of the last 25 years in which characters with disabilities take center stage for the first time These books take what others regard as weaknesses for instance Harry Potter's headaches or Hazel Lancaster's oxygen tank and redefine them as part of the hero's journey HandiLand places this movement from sidekick to hero in the political contexts of disability rights movements in the United States the United Kingdom and Ghana Elizabeth A Wheeler invokes the fantasy of HandiLand an ideal society ready for young people with disabilities before they get there as a yardstick to measure how far we've come and how far we still need to go toward the goal of total inclusion The book moves through the public spaces young people with disabilities have entered including schools nature and online communities As a disabled person and parent of children with disabilities Wheeler offers an inside look into families who collude with their kids in shaping a better world Moving funny and beautifully written HandiLand The Crippest Place on Earth is the definitive study of disability in contemporary literature for young readers Surfer the Seal Jane Burton, 1989 Depicts a seal in its early life as it grows plays and learns to feed itself

Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities Sarah Jaquette Ray, Jay Sibara, 2017-06 Although scholars in the environmental humanities have been exploring the dichotomy between wild and built environments for several years few have focused on the field of disability studies a discipline that enlists the contingency between environments and bodies as a foundation of its scholarship On the other hand scholars in disability studies have demonstrated the ways in which the built environment privileges some bodies and minds over others yet they have rarely examined the ways in which toxic environments engender chronic illness and disability or how environmental illnesses disrupt dominant paradigms for scrutinizing disability Designed as a reader for undergraduate and graduate courses Disability Studies and the Environmental Humanities employs interdisciplinary perspectives to examine such issues as slow violence imperialism race toxicity eco sickness the body in environmental justice ableism and other topics With a historical scope spanning the seventeenth century to the present this collection not only presents the foundational documents informing this intersection of fields but also showcases the most current work making it an indispensable reference Secondary Assemblies for SEAL: 40 ready-to-deliver assemblies - eBook, The Pinnipeds Marianne Riedman, 2023-12-22 Voices from the Margins Marilyn Ward, 2002-07-30 Young people who feel marginalized due to physical differences or disabilities may benefit from discovering fictional characters who face similar difficulties This unique bibliography surveys the field of children's and young adult literature published since 1990 identifying 200 quality books that deal with a wide range of contemporary health and self image topics Coverage includes physical handicaps Autism burns scars and disfigurement obesity and anorexia
