Searching For The Ox Poems:

Searching for the Ox Louis Simpson, 1976 On Louis Simpson Hank Lazer, 1988 These essays on Simpson's poetry provide a commentary on poetics aesthetics and literary politics Tetsugaku Companion to Ueda Shizuteru Ralf Müller, Raquel Bouso, Adam Loughnane, 2022-11-11 This book presents the first collection of essays on the philosophy of Ueda Shizuteru in a Western language Ueda the last living member of the Kyoto school has fostered the East West dialogue in all his works and has helped to open up the Western image of philosophy by engaging the Zen tradition The book reflects this particular trait of Ueda's philosophy but it also covers all thematic fields of his writings Contributions from both young and established scholars and experts from Japan Europe and the U S make this a unique introduction to and reception of Ueda's philosophy Readers will discover discussions of mysticism in the East and West and consideration of modern philosophy topics including self awareness nature and poetic language The book also presents a focussed look at language and nothingness considering silence and nihilism Chapters allow the reader to understand the timeliness of a thinking that mediates and transcends the dichotomy of East and West This volume will appeal not only to scholars of Nishida Japanese philosophy mysticism and religious experience in Japan but also to scholars of Western philosophy especially those interested in Meister Eckhart Martin Heidegger and Martin Buber It makes an ideal introduction to Zen philosophy and presents important contributions to scholarship on language and experience Searching for the Ox Louis Simpson, 1976 Cold Mountain Poems Han Shan, 2009-07-21 The incomparable poetry of Han Shan Cold Mountain and his sidekick Shih Te the rebel poets who became icons of Chinese poetry and Zen has long captured the imagination of poetry lovers and Zen aficionados Popularized in the West by Beat Generation writers Gary Snyder and Jack Kerouac these legendary Tang era 618 907 figures are portrayed as the laughing ragged pair who left their poetry on stones trees farmhouses and the walls of the monasteries they visited Their poetry expressed in the simplest verse but in a completely new tone the voice of ordinary people Here premier translator J P Seaton takes a fresh look at these captivating poets along with Wang Fan chih another outsider poet who lived a couple centuries later and who captured the poverty and gritty day to day reality of the common people of his time Seaton's comprehensive introduction and notes throughout give a fascinating context to this vibrant collection To Make a Poem Alberta Turner, 1992-04 A poem comes from the same human need as a prayer a curse a lullaby and a keen How can emotion use language to satisfy its most urgent need and how can it share and prolong that satisfaction by putting it into poems that will satisfy the same need in others The answer can be learned and the skill taught Unlike many other textbooks this one has no teaching manual and Alberta Turner does not expect those who use it to agree with her interpretations Each principled is illustrated with detailed analysis of several poems but it is up to the teachers and students to decide whether it has succeeded or failed Poetic tastes can't be legislated they have to creep by underground runners Although a poem never illustrates only one poetic principle at a time this book has focused on each separately Since the book is intended to be used by beginning poets the principles are sequenced from simpler to more complex As courses in writing poetry range from two week enrichment programs to full semester college workshops the book is arranged so that the course can be shortened or lengthened This book will work best for flexible imaginative teachers of flexible imaginative students A Collegiate Press book Louis Simpson, a Reference Guide William H. Schneider,2012-12-15 Over the past thirty years narrative poems have made a comeback against the lyric approach to poetry that has dominated the past century Drawing on a decade of conferences and critical seminars on the topic The Contemporary Narrative Poem examines this resurgence of narrative and the cultural and literary forces motivating it Gathering ten essays from poet critics who write from a wide range of perspectives and address a wide range of works the collection transcends narrow conceptions of narrative antinarrative and metanarrative The authors ask several questions What formal strategies do recent narrative poems take What social cultural and epistemological issues are raised in such poems How do contemporary narrative poems differ from modernist narrative poems In what ways has history been incorporated into the recent narrative poetry How have poets used the lyric within narrative poems How do experimental poets redefine narrative itself through their work And what role does consciousness play in the contemporary narrative poem The answers they supply will engage every poet and student of poetry Alphabetical Finding List Princeton University. Library,1921 The World's Hieroglyphic Beauty Peter Stitt,1985 Richard Wilbur William Stafford James Wright Louis Simpson Robert Penn Warren The Art of Anthropology Alfred Gell,2020-08-20 The Art of Anthropology collects together the most influential of Gell's writings which span the past two decades with a new introductory chapter written by Gell The essays vividly demonstrate Gell's theoretical and empirical interests and his distinctive contribution to several key areas of current anthropological enquiry A central theme of the essays is Gell's highly original exploration of diagrammatic imagery as the site where social relations and cognitive processes converge and crystallise Gell tracks this imagery across studies of tribal market transactions dance forms the iconicity of language and his most recent and groundbreaking analyses of artworks Written with Gell's characteristic fluidity and grace and generously illustrated with Gell's original drawings and diagrams the book will interest art historians sociologists and geographers no less than
