Lord Of The World Catholic Writers Series:

Lord of the World Robert Hugh Benson, 2017-12-04 This book written in 1907 is Benson's dystopic vision of a near future world in which religion has by and large been rejected or simply fallen by the wayside. The Catholic Church has retreated to Italy and Ireland while the majority of the rest of the world is either Humanistic or Pantheistic. There is a one world government and euthanasia is widely available. The plot follows the tale of a priest Percy Franklin who becomes Pope Silvester III and a mysterious man named Julian Felsenburgh who is identical in looks to the priest and who becomes Lord of the World. Lord of the World (Esprios Classics) Robert Hugh Benson, 2022-03-21 Robert Hugh Benson 18 November 1871 19 October 1914 was an English Roman Catholic priest and writer. In 1903 Benson, an Anglican priest, was received into the Catholic Church; he was ordained a Catholic priest the next year. He was also a prolific writer of fiction, writing the notable dystopian novel Lord of the World as well as Come Rack Come Rope. His output encompassed historical horror and science fiction, contemporary fiction, children's stories, plays, apologetics, devotional works, and articles. He continued his writing career at the same time as he progressed through the hierarchy to become a Chamberlain to Pope Pius X in 1911 and gain the title of Monsignor before his death a few years later. Lord of the World. By Robert Hugh Benson, 2016-05-24 Robert Hugh Benson 18 November 1871 19 October 1914 was an English Anglican priest who in 1903 was received into the Roman Catholic Church in which he was ordained priest in 1904. He was lauded in his own day as one of the leading figures in English literature, having written the notable novel Lord of the World 1907. Benson was the youngest son of Edward White Benson, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his wife Mary, and the younger brother of Edward Frederic Benson and A. C. Benson. Benson was educated at Eton College and then studied classics and theology at Trinity College, Cambridge, from 1890 to 1893. In 1895 Benson was ordained a priest in the Church of England by his father, who was the then Archbishop of Canterbury. After his father died suddenly in 1896, Benson was sent on a trip to the Middle East to recover his own health. While there, he began to question the status of the Church of England and to consider the claims of the Roman Catholic Church. His own piety began to tend toward the High Church tradition, and he started exploring religious life in various Anglican communities, eventually obtaining permission to join the Community of the Resurrection. Benson made his profession as a member of the community in 1901, at which time he had no thoughts of leaving the Church of England. As he continued his studies and began writing, however, he became more and more uneasy with his own doctrinal position, and on 11 September 1903 he was received into the Catholic Church. He was awarded the Dignitary of Honour of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre. Benson was ordained as a Roman Catholic priest in 1904 and sent to Cambridge. He continued his writing career along with his ministry as a priest. Like both his brothers, Edward Frederic Benson, Fred, and Arthur Christopher Benson, Robert wrote many ghost and horror stories, collected in The Light Invisible 1903 and A Mirror of Shallott 1907. His novel Lord of the World 1907 is generally regarded as one of the first modern dystopias; see List of dystopian literature. As a young man, Benson recalled he
