The poetic life and times of Big Bubba equal parts charismatic trickster and tent revival preacher This propulsive narrative poem tells the extended story of the popular born again televangelist Ray Bob Elray better known to all his fans as Big Bubba his twin sons Nick and Jesse and his niece and adopted daughter Donna The comic tragedy of Big Bubba s family begins to unfold when he is interviewed by an old friend country radio disc jockey Charlie Printwhistle Bubba has come to Waco Texas to preach a revival but soon reveals to Charlie much about his complicated relationship with his family his ambitions for the ministry his faith healing and his most recent venture with Pure Products of America Inc which produces and endorses anything pure from Bibles to jelly preserves for a whopper of a fee of course Structured as a verse play of two acts composed of three scenes each Pure Products of America Inc follows the unwinding of Bubba s legacy as his heirs fall out and his already slippery relationship with religion is tested by genuine grief Along the way master poet John Bricuth treats readers to a sly sarcastic and sometimes deeply moving look at storytelling old time religion and the American way The Night

Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel Daniel Anderson,2014-04-21 In his third collection of poems Daniel Anderson ponders and celebrates the images sounds and tastes of contemporary life The poems in The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel navigate the evanescent boundaries between the public and the private self Daniel Anderson s settings are often social but never fail to turn inward drowning out the chatter of conversation to quietly observe the truths that we simultaneously share and withhold from one another even as we visit friends celebrate a young couple s union or eavesdrop on the conversations of others These twenty poems include meditations on teaching hungover undergraduates wine tasting among snobs and engaging the war on terror from the comfort of the suburbs They are alternately driven by ornamental language that seeks to clarify and crystallize the beauties of our common world and the poet s faith that fellowship ultimately trumps partisanship Even as they weigh and measure the darkness of the heart and the sometimes rash and stingy movements of the mind the poems refrain from pronouncing judgment on their characters As much as they ponder they also celebrate in exact careful and loving terms the haunting and bracing stimuli from which they originate Couldn't Prove, Had to Promise Wyatt

Prunty,2015-05 Funny raw and colorfully musical Nodplays what teeters like a tuning fork The View We're Granted Peter Filkins,2012-08-15 These poems consider large events such as 9 11 and the Holocaust as well as everyday concerns like quilting ice skating or the beauty of a stand of sugar maples in winter Co Winner of the Sheila Motton Book Award of the New England Poetry Club In the pivotal poem Marking Time which appears almost exactly halfway through Peter Filkins s fourth collection of poetry the speaker reflects on the death of a sibling and how time is marked by our memories These memories these moments whether spent contemplating a painting by Vermeer or the simple toss of a bean bag ultimately shape who we are Yet you are with me here with me here again where neither that moon nor you exist but live tethered to this memory composed of words These are poems unafraid to be graceful and engaging They attain an assurance and stability rare in contemporary poetry while their careful balance of sadness and joy reminds the reader of the difficult negotiations we make in life In Late Light Brian Swann, 2013-05-15 From a stone to fireflies from childhood to growing old Brian Swann's poems contemplate the moments and individual objects that create a whole life and our relationship to them There is a clearing by a certain stone where images flow and are worth stopping for I have stayed there almost all day in silence until night remembered what belonged to it and its shadows started to take back its own I've found it hard to walk away as starlight infused daisies and the stone itself began to feel like a star so although what I have done with my life may not be much for a while it seemed to be in line The poems of In Late Light situate objects and experiences both large and small concrete and abstract within Brian Swann's perspective of the natural world Sixty-two poems presented in four sections explore his life from early days to the present evoking friends and family on two continents His sharp bright imagery affirms the unique beauty of our world and explores its invisible mysteries Revenge and Forgiveness Patrice

Vecchione, 2004-04 When you seek revenge dig two graves Anonymous A poetry anthology for teens on a perennially important topic Acclaimed anthologist and teacher Patrice Vecchione has put together an immensely powerful group of poems all of which address the timeless and uniquely human desires for revenge and for forgiveness The events of September 11th inspired this book I wanted to create a tangible forum a book to hold in our hands to help frame and think not just about terrorism but about who we are as individuals and who we are as a country It's been gestating in me for all this time Finding these poems was like turning little lights on to illumine the dark How can beauty be made out of ugliness and fear Can it rise from ash Patrice Vecchione Water / Music Peter Filkins, 2021-04-06 A diverse display of formal dexterity narrative power and lyrical resonance Peter Filkins's latest collection of poems explores the fraught relationship between the natural world and the human Exploring the space between nature and culture the poems of Water Music anchor themselves in the timely and the timeless Rich and diverse in their formal intricacy they move with ease from narrative to meditation from close physical observation to the haunts of memory and from lyric sorrow to the pleasure of living in the world Water Music embraces and celebrates life's mystery and the soul's repose amid talismans at twilight the whirl of birds
