Finding Grace Loretta Rothschild, 2025-07-08 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A July Indie Next Pick A strikingly original and deeply moving debut People Begins with such a gasp inducing twist that it's almost impossible to describe Real Simple The literary book of the summer Sarah Gelman CBS Mornings SHE THOUGHT IT WAS FATE I KNEW IT WASN'T Honor seems to have everything she adores her bright and beautiful daughter Chloe and her charming handsome husband Tom even if he works one hundred hours a week Yet Honor's longing for another baby threatens to eclipse all of it until a shocking event changes their lives forever Years later Tom makes a decision that ripples through their families lives in ways he could never have foreseen As the consequences of that fateful choice unfold two women's paths become irrevocably intertwined But when old love clashes with new who will be left standing And what happens when your secrets come back to haunt you Blending a page turning moral dilemma with satisfying emotional poignancy Finding Grace is a sweeping love story that explores the price of a new beginning how the ghosts of our past shape our future and whether redemption can be found in the wreckage of what we've lost

Jeanette Yep, Peter Cha, Susan Cho Van Riesen, Greg Jao, Paul Tokunaga,

Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim, Daniel L. Wong, 2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive questions for contextualizing one's own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach

Last Day on Earth Eric Puchner, 2017-02-21 A boy on the edge of adolescence fears his mother might be a robot a psychotically depressed woman is entrusted with taking her niece and nephew trick or treating a reluctant dad brings his baby to a coke fueled party a teenage boy tries to prevent his mother from putting his estranged father's dogs to sleep Ranging from a youth arts camp to an aging punk band's reunion tour from a dystopian future where parents no longer exist to a ferociously independent bookstore the stories in this collection revolve around the endlessly complex frequently surreal system that is family journey to redemption which is advanced as the blueprint for both the would be proselyte and the would be proselytizer Our nameless narrator who brings an open but critical perspective ponders the deep questions of life as he searches along the River for truth meaning purpose and ultimately a new beginning Accompanied by a compassionate and insightful Christian who uniquely understands the true significance of the River and the Road he faces intellectual and moral challenges from diverse directions that threaten his worldview Interwoven with the gospel themes both false and true are a number of other encounters with angels skeptics seekers temptresses and travelers with a variety of religious viewpoints The allegory illuminating and penetrating through stressing the fundamental notion of salvation from sin not only its consequences aims to undercut some of the most prevalent misconceptions of the gospel message today The result is a narrative that will both delight and educate is both ponderous and free flowing and will both entrench Christians in some of their most beloved doctrines and challenge the very foundations of their theology

Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans

Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermon preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology
