Lost Cities Of Paraguay:

Lost Cities of Paraguay Clement J. McNaspy, 1982 For one brief shining hour there existed in the jungles of what is now Paraguay Argentina and Brazil a marvelous civilization that stands today only in near forgotten though still eloquent ruins These were the Thirty Cities of the so called Jesuit Reductions safe havens into which Jesuit missionaries gathered primitive Indians to protect them from Portuguese slave traders and the depredations of the Spanish colonists In a fantastically short time the talents of these previously untrained people flowered into the building of a remarkable world of beauty and grace almost beyond belief a world Voltaire called in some way the triumph of humanity and Chesterton called a Paradise in Paraguay Were it not for the mute testimony of the delicately carved statues and the ruins of noble churches the whole story might seem beyond belief

The highly regarded Cultures of the World series celebrates the diversity of other cultures in this fully updated and expanded edition Natives and Newcomers Bruce Trigger, 1986-07-01 Natives and Newcomers discredits that myth In a spirited and critical re examination of relations between the French and the Iroquoian speaking inhabitants of the St Lawrence lowlands from the incursions of Jacques Cartier through the explorations of Samuel de Champlain and the Jesuit missions into the early years of the royal regime Natives and Newcomers argues that native people have played a significant role in shaping the development of Canada Trigger also shows that the largely ignored French traders and their employees established relations with native people that were indispensable for founding a viable European colony on the St Lawrence The brisk narrative of this period is complemented by a detailed survey of the stereotypes about native people that have influenced the development of Canadian history and anthropology and by candid discussions of how historical ethnographical and archaeological approaches can and cannot be combined to produce a more rounded and accurate understanding of the past Cultural Memory Jeanette Rodriguez, Ted Fortier, 2007-06-01 Sangre llama a sangre Blood cries out to blood Latin American aphorism The common blood of a people that imperceptible flow that binds neighbor to neighbor and generation to generation derives much of its strength from cultural memory Cultural memories are those transformative historical experiences that define a culture even as time passes and it adapts to new influences For oppressed peoples cultural memory engenders the spirit of resistance not surprisingly some of its most powerful incarnations are rooted in religion In this interdisciplinary examination Jeanette Rodriguez and Ted Fortier explore how four such forms of cultural memory have preserved the spirit of a particular people Cultural Memory is not a comparative work but it is a multicultural one with four distinct case studies the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe and the devotion it inspires among Mexican Americans the role of secrecy and ceremony among the Yaqui Indians of Arizona the evolving narrative of Archbishop Oscar Romero of San Salvador as transmitted through the church of the poor and the martyrs and the syncretism of Catholic Tzeltal Mayans of Chiapas Mexico In each case the authors religious credentials eased the resistance encountered by social scientists and other researchers The result is a landmark work in cultural studies a conversation between a liberation theologian and a cultural anthropologist on the religious nature of cultural memory and the power it brings to those who wield it War, Human Dignity and Nation Building Gary D. Badcock, 2010-08-11 Canada s involvement in Afghanistan is the longest martial conflict in its history precipitated literally overnight by a world changing event in the 2001 9 11 attack in New York City In 2010 the Afghan Mission remains front page news for Canadians even threatening to undermine the Federal Government due to the so called Detainee Scandal The human cost Canadian and Afghan financial burdens and impact on the self perception of Canadians as a peace keeping Middle Power are immense and likely will form a watershed in Canadian history And yet the Mission remains little scrutinized by faith communities and further left as a non conversation for many and the domain of a nebulous foreign policy and largely toothless Manley Report This volume is the first such major attempt by the Centre for Public Theology to bring together theologians philosophers faith leaders NGOs politicians and other academics from sociology politics and peace keeping in order to dialogue about the impact of the Afghan Mission These papers form much of the conversation of a conference held in May 2009 at the Centre for Public Theology The papers offer reflections on the Manley Report investigations on the theological and philosophical issues at play in Canada's response interaction with Canada's shift from peace keeping to war fighting and the new NATO mandate thoughts on the role of Islamic nations and analysis of the role of the Abrahamic faith communities in this wider Canadian conversation The Centre for Public Theology is a federally funded research centre housed at Huron University College whose mandate is to bring into conversation academics NGOs media Government and the public on issues of public policy and life with a particular attention to the role of religion in Canadian life Its founding motto is intelligence not advocacy It is not an advocacy or lobbying centre instead seeking only to facilitate dialogue across boundaries Its webpage can be found at www publictheology org

Saints at Heart Bert Ghezzi, 2019-10-22 Saints at Heart presents an engaging picture of the spiritual life as shown in the experience and writings of the saints The title announces the book's double theme the lives of holy men and women who have consecrated their lives to God and to the possibility of our following them and also dedicating our hearts to God Readers will discover in this book well told and appealing stories of women and men ordinary human beings like themselves who knew God and whose lives as a consequence radiated light love and joy Each story presents the core message of a saint's life and highlights an important spiritual path that readers will be encouraged to follow

Constructing Mission History Stanley H. Skreslet, 2023-01-17 Three master narratives currently dominate the analysis of modern mission history One puts foreign missionaries at the heart of the story A second emphasizes the colonial aspect of modern missions Here missionaries are not heroes but villains who are implicated in hegemonic schemes of imperial domination Thirdly mission history is subordinated to one of its outcomes the advent of World Christianity In this master narrative the concept of contextualization looms large bolstered by Sanneh's notion of translatability and emphasis on the agency of non Westerners who participate in and subtly shape the complex social processes of evangelization While all three of these master narratives are insightful none of them adequately balances concern for missionary initiative and indigenous agency Borrowing from speech act theory Skreslet offers a new analytical approach to the modern roots of World Christianity that differentiates between what a speaker might intend to communicate and the effects of what has been said or actions taken both in the moment and over time Corresponding to the concepts of illocution and perlocution as these technical terms are used in speech act theory the book is structured in two main sections Initially the focus is on expressed missionary motives Part two engages a representative set of modern era mission performances involving many more actors than just the foreign evangelizers whose stated or implied intentions are emphasized in part one
