Models Of Adult Religious Education Practice:

Models of Adult Religious Education Practice R. E. Y. Wickett, 1991 MODELS OF ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PRACTICE offers a foundational rationale plus a wide inventory of workable teaching procedures for vitalizing the religious education of adults No other major book on adult religious education offers as wide a range of concrete teaching procedures as does this volume The distinctiveness of this book lies in its holism It provides concrete practical models for teaching cognitive affective and lifestyle outcomes to all kinds of adult learners in all kinds of settings This volume has been widely praised by major authorities in adult education and religious education including Allen Tough Nancy Foltz Ron Habermas and Kenneth Gangel

The Religious Education of Adults Leon McKenzie, R. Michael Harton, 2002 Increasingly adults do not see the church as a credible provider of quality religious education This revision by R Michael Harton of the classic work by Leon McKenzie addresses the foundational issues of what constitutes such an education for adults and how ministers and teachers can determine and understand the needs of learners It also offers ways to involve learners in the planning and execution of their own religious education A must read for ministers and seminarians who care about the religious education of adults Leon McKenzie is a retired professor of adult education at Indiana University where he also served as Director of Human Resource Development for Indiana University Hospital He received his Ed D in adult education from IU and has authored several books including Adult Education and the Burden of the Future and Adult Education and World View Construction He lives in Indianapolis R Michael Harton has authored several articles on local church adult education and contributed to A Church's Ministry to Adults and Handbook on Adult Religious Education A former congregational educator and seminary professor he now serves the Virginia Baptist Resource Center in Richmond Virginia and teaches adjunctively at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond He received his Ed D in adult education and instructional systems technology from Indiana University

The Power of Small Groups in Christian Formation Harley T. Atkinson, 2018-01-10 Small groups continue to be a significant part of church life and Christian formation in the twenty first century impacting a church and society characterized by loneliness and fragmentation As such Julie Gorman is prompted to declare Small groups have come of age They have found unprecedented acceptance and endorsement This is a comprehensive book on small groups and Christian formation informed by theology church history and the social sciences It addresses both the foundations and praxis of groups with a special emphasis on leading dynamic group discussions Learning in the Way Jeff Astley,2000 Adult Christian learning is central to the life of the Christian church and is essential for its health outreach and very survival Leading Christian educators here apply the principles of Christian education to adult learning in the churches and present the results and methods of empirical research relevant to the church s ministry of adult Christian education This book will be of interest to all who are concerned for the ways in which adults learn to be Christian The editor Jeff Astley is Director of the North of England Institute for Christian Education and Honorary Professorial Fellow in Practical Theology and Christian Education in the University of Durham Resources in Education ,2001-04 Open Minds, Devoted Hearts Sarah Tauber,2015-07-16 How do religious educators meaningfully engage adult learners How do they invite adults to begin a learning journey and inspire them to stay on it In an era of spiritual but not religious how can religious educators and clergy in particular respond to the yearnings of adults for connection wholeness and purpose Open Minds Devoted Hearts offers the examples of three outstanding congregational rabbis whose teaching answers that call to action Through innovatively incorporating biographical portraits and educational scholarship the book provides a comprehensive exploration of how the themes of narrative transformation and spirituality bring adult religious educators and learners into a powerful interactive educational process The portraits and accompanying analysis reveal how constructing personal meaning and building sacred community through study situates adult learning as a dynamic centerpiece of an energized congregational life Teaching about God and Spirituality Roberta Louis Goodman,2002 A wide array of renowned scholars and practitioners share their ideas for teaching about God from a Jewish perspective in this comprehensive collection This enlightening yet practical resource includes ready to use lessons for preschool through adult and family education as well as background material to enrich the teacher s own sense of God and spirituality Chapters include Writing a Personal Theology by Dr Neil Gillman The Changing Perceptions of God in Judaism by Rabbi Rifat Sonsino The Spiritual Condition of American Jews by Dr David Ariel The Image of God as Teacher by Dr Hanan Alexander Spiritual Mentoring by Dr Carol Ochs Tell Me a Story by Rabbi Sandi Eisenberg Sasso Living Spiritual Praxis Eric J. Kyle,2013-10-24 Christian ministers working in congregations and with nonprofits seek to discern what it is that God has been doing and where it is that the Spirit might be leading them In Living Spiritual Praxis Eric Kyle looks to address the lack of resources on the work and dynamics of Christian spiritual formation that actually develop a specific process for spiritual formation programs Kyle strives to provide a guide for spiritual formation by using the praxis oriented fields of action research and practical theology He explores a process for understanding the nature and dynamics of a situation discerning specific formative interventions assessing various approaches and continually assessing and modifying these understandings and approaches Living Spiritual Praxis will be an invaluable resource for all Christians leaders and laity alike who are challenged by the spiritual formation of church members communities groups and individuals overlook the need to bring their daily vocations in accord with the reality created sustained and purposed through Christ This is no less true for language teachers who find themselves at a difficult interdisciplinary crossroads where the paths of linguistics culture and education merge This challenge should not discourage these educators but instead aid them in their journey to form a pedagogy rooted in theological truths from Scripture one that provides a nuanced approach that glorifies God in a manner specific to the language classroom The contributors of this book outline why and how theology must inform teaching methods so that Christian language educators might better serve their students with both faith and excellence thereby pointing them to the communicative God whose image they bear Teaching for Reconciliation Ron

Thinking Theologically about Language Teaching Cheri L. Pierson,Will Bankston,2017-08-31 Christians can often

Habermas,2001-11-28 Teaching For Reconciliation is an introductory resource that connects foundational issues of theology and the social sciences with practical topics of how to teach It is organized according to a comprehensive theory created by the educational philosopher William K Frankena The overarching objective is first reconciliation with God then with ourselves others and creation itself Online Small Groups as Sites of Teaching Simon Hallonsten,2024-04-25 Centered around a reflective narrative recounting the experiences of a participatory action research project into leading online small groups for adults in the Church of Sweden Diocese of Stockholm during 2021 and 2022 the dissertation argues for the need to reconceptualize and reemphasize teaching as an important aspect in Christian religious education Employing creative non fiction methods the dissertation aims to broaden the scope of the initial Online Small Groups project by inviting readers to join into a learning journey The narrative account is complemented with more traditional forms of analysis that connect experiences from online small groups in the Church of Sweden to similar research from Anglo Saxon countries noting especially how notions of community diverge due to different ecclesiological understandings Insights are then synthesized into eight teaching strategies aimed at communicating actionable knowledge to small group leaders before noting how the study complements research on Christian religious education and particularly the current debate about learning and teaching in the Church of Sweden Interpretative Identity and Hermeneutical Community Mi-Rang Kang,2011 In this study Mi Rang Kang 1969 in Seoul investigates the role of women in Korean church life and society and shows possibilities for their empowerment By transposing Paul Ricoeurs hermeneutics into her own context she wants to contribute to the formation of Korean Christian women s identity Along the lines of the book of Ruth she develops a Bible didactical theory for her own church At the same time the book will also give Western readers an insight into one of the major Presbyterian denominations in Korea little known so far Handbook of Young Adult Religious Education Harley Atkinson,1995
